Pat Tillman

NOVEMBER 6, 1976 – APRIL 22, 2004

This past April, the Cardinals lost one of the most extraordinary individuals ever to represent the organization when former safety Pat Tillman was killed in Afghanistan while serving as a member of the Army's elite Ranger unit.

He was one of countless brave men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice in service of their country. Still, news of his death quickly circled the globe because his story was so unique and inspiring. By now it is well known.

He was selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1998 NFL Draft out of Arizona State, the 226th of 241 total players taken that year. Believed to be a long-shot to make it in the NFL, Tillman not only made the squad but eventually became the team's starting safety and in 2000 he set the franchise record for tackles with 224.

The following spring, he turned down a free agent contract offer from the St. Louis Rams to return to the Cardinals in 2001. Shortly after that regular season began, the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001 forever changed America and Pat Tillman as well.

Moved by a sense of duty and a personal obligation, Pat walked away from a lucrative contract offer from the Cardinals and in the spring of 2002 enlisted in the United States Army along with his younger brother, Kevin. The public and media interest in his decision was immense but Tillman declined every request to speak publicly on the topic.

He successfully completed the very demanding Army Ranger training program and was deployed for a tour of duty in the Middle East thereafter. He returned safely to the U.S. and in December of 2003, made a surprise visit to his former team when the Cardinals played in Seattle. He spoke quietly to his former coaches and teammates after the game and it would be the last time most of them would see him. He was sent overseas again, this time to Afghanistan, and was killed four months later.

Immediately after his death, the Cardinals announced that the team was retiring Tillman's jersey #40 and when the new Cardinals Stadium opens in 2006, the area surrounding it will be named the Pat Tillman Freedom Plaza. Both actions will serve as permanent reminders of the exceptional life and legacy of Pat Tillman.

LONG LIVE SUNDAY.

William V. Bidwill

PRESIDENT

College: Georgetown
Hometown: Chicago, Illinois

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner and president.

The 73-year-old Chicago native presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise that dates to 1898. The Cardinals and the Chicago Bears are the two charter members of the National Football League (1920).

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since William's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947.

His wife, Violet, guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons William and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). William became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, William Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the Cardinals' day-to-day operation. He operates the organization in south Tempe, Arizona from its award-winning training facility the team has called home since construction was completed in September, 1990.

He has been credited with his leading role in bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona on January 28, 1996. He also was a pivotal voice in Arizona's original award of Super Bowl XXVII.

An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

Bidwill currently is seated on the NFL Broadcasting Committee and the new NFL Business Ventures Committee, and he co-chairs the NFL Retirement Board Trustees/Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle Planned Committee.

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children and have eight grandchildren. ■

Michael Bidwill

VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL COUNSEL

College: St. Louis University
Hometown: St. Louis, Missouri
Cardinal Season: 9th

Facilitator of the Cardinals' administration is Michael Bidwill, the team's vice president and general counsel since 1996.

His leadership since joining the organization after practicing law for seven years has been visible and undeniable, leading to an array of change.

The former federal prosecutor's most visible role remains development of the new Cardinals' stadium, scheduled to open in 2006. Groundbreaking for the 65,000-seat, $370-million multipurpose facility currently under construction in Glendale, Arizona, a west suburb of Phoenix, was held April 12, 2003. Bidwill has been a driving force in community and political arenas as the vision for the eventual public-private partnership evolved from concept to reality. He will continue to oversee the team's interests in the stadium's design and construction.

The successful efforts of Bidwill and other community leaders will bring the state of Arizona a new stadium home not only for the Cardinals, but also the Fiesta Bowl and future Super Bowls while also creating revenue streams to buoy the Cactus League (Arizona spring training baseball), fund community youth recreation, and double the state's tourism promotion budget in Maricopa County.

Bidwill was instrumental in the political campaign strategy that created the dramatic come-from-behind win on election night, 2000 when Maricopa County voters approved the stadium funding plan via Proposition 302. The measure also created the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority (AZSTA) that has earmarked $73.5 million over 30 years for youth and amateur sports in Maricopa County (greater Phoenix).

The AZSTA has funded several projects currently under construction and the local youth around the Valley from which local youth are already benefiting.

In March, 2002, NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue named Bidwill to one of the league's most prominent committees, the Management Council Executive Committee, the NFL's labor relations council charged with bargaining with the players' association.

He also serves on the Arizona Super Bowl Committee which won the bid in October, 2003 to host Super Bowl XXXXII in February, 2008 at the new Cardinals Stadium.

In other administrative capacities, Bidwill continues to help mold the Cardinals' future.

He spearheaded the restructuring of the Cardinals' marketing and sales department in 2000 and oversaw the restructuring of the team's community relations efforts in 2001.

The expanded community outreach was acknowledged in 2003 when The (Phoenix) Business Journal recognized the Cardinals for their proactive hands-on community efforts.

Bidwill's community focus has a particular eye toward the value of youth sports.

That awareness was recognized recently when Bidwill received the 2003 Glenn S. "Pop" Warner Award, presented annually by the national youth football organization to an individual who has achieved excellence in athletics, scholarship, and life's endeavors with integrity and humanity. Bidwill was recognized for his support of youth sports in Arizona.

Past NFL Warner Award recipients include Kansas City Chiefs General Manager and Chief Executive Officer Carl Peterson (2002), Jacksonville Jaguars owner Wayne Weaver (2001), Kansas City Chiefs owner Lamar Hunt (1997), Chicago Bear Hall of Fame linebacker Dick Butkus (1995), NFL Films President Steve Sabol (1994), NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue (1993), broadcaster and ex-Eagle Irv Cross (1982), and former team owners Joe Robbie (1984) and Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. (1985). Other past recipients include college coaching legend Eddie Robinson, former NCAA President Richard Schultz, former U.S. presidential candidate H. Ross Perot, Duke University, the University of Pennsylvania, and the University of Notre Dame.

Bidwill's impact on the Cardinals' organization has been noticed. He is a past nominee for Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's "40 Under 40" celebrating the achievements of 40 of the top young executives in sports, and was named to The Business Journal's "Valley 100-Plus Influential," the commerce publication's listing of prominent and influential business leaders in greater Phoenix.

From 1990-96, Bidwill was a federal prosecutor in Phoenix where he specialized in homicide and other violent crime cases. He also directed three task forces, including the FBI's gang task force on the Navajo Indian Reservation in north-east Arizona.

He received seven letters of commendation in his role with the U.S. Department of Justice from various law enforcement agencies.

Bidwill also is active in the community, serving on numerous committees and boards for a variety of Phoenix-area community and charitable organizations. Most recently, he has been named honorary chairman for the "Step Up For Youth" campaign to raise $1.16 million to double the size of the Glendale/Peoria YMCA's facilities and add new programs and services.

He holds a 1987 bachelor of science degree in finance from St. Louis University and a 1990 law degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C.

Born December 6, 1964 in St. Louis, Missouri, Bidwill resides in Paradise Valley, Arizona. ■

Rod Graves

VICE PRESIDENT-FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Hometown: Houston, Texas

Cardinal Season: 8th

NFL Season: 21st

Rod Graves was promoted to the newly-created position of vice president-football operations following the 2002 season after six years as assistant to the president.

In his new position, Graves, 45, assumes responsibility for all facets of the Cardinals' football operations. He continues to serve as the team's primary contract negotiator in addition to overseeing college and professional scouting efforts, assisting salary-cap management, and consulting on other business aspects of the football operation.

Graves joined the Cardinals in June of 1997 after 13 years in various personnel capacities with the Chicago Bears. He was promoted to assume responsibility for administration of the Cardinals' scouting department in May of 1998.

A native of Houston, Texas, Graves began his career in professional football personnel work in 1982 as a regional scout for the Philadelphia Stars of the United States Football League. It was then he first crossed paths with former Cardinals' Head Coach Vince Tobin, the Stars' defensive coordinator. In 1983, Graves was promoted to assistant director of player personnel.

He joined the National Football League in 1984 as a regional scout for the Chicago Bears, a position he held until promoted to director of college scouting in 1993, then director of player personnel in 1994.

During his tenure with the Bears, he worked for Bill Tobin, the team's director of player personnel and older brother of former Cardinal head coach Vince Tobin, along with another former Cardinal head coach, Dave McGinnis, and running backs coach Johnny Roland.

Graves, who holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Texas Tech, is the son of the late Jackie Graves, the former assistant director of player personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles.

He currently serves on the NFL's C.E.C. Working Group Committee and the NFL College Advisory Committee.

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

College: Dartmouth College
Hometown: Detroit, Michigan
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 12th

John Idzik begins his first season with the Cardinals as Senior Director of Football Operations after spending the previous 11 seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, including the last three as assistant general manager under Rich McKay.

With the Cardinals, Idzik will assist Vice President-Football Operations Rod Graves in many of the areas in which he was involved with Tampa. His responsibilities include negotiating contracts, managing the team's salary cap and football operations budget, assisting in player evaluation and personnel matters, representing the club to the league with respect to compliance-related issues, and directing the team's travel, training camp, and football computer operations.

Idzik came to the Buccaneers in 1993 as a pro personnel assistant, was elevated to director of football administration in 1996, then to assistant general manager in 2001. During his tenure in Tampa Bay, the Bucs boasted 47 Pro Bowlers and qualified for the playoffs in five of his final seven seasons, capturing an NFC Central Division title and advancing to the NFC Championship in 1999 and ultimately winning Super Bowl XXVII over the Oakland Raiders following the 2002 season.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Idzik spent the 1991-92 seasons as a graduate assistant at Duke University where he coached the offensive line under Barry Wilson. In 1990 he was the offensive backfield coach in 1990 for the Aberdeen Oilers (Scotland) of the British American Football League. Idzik's first coaching assignment came in 1982 when he was the receivers coach at the State University of New York at Buffalo.

Raised in a football family, Idzik's father, John, was the head coach of that Aberdeen club after serving as an NFL assistant coach with the Miami Dolphins, Baltimore Colts, Philadelphia Eagles, and N.Y. Jets. The Idziks became one of the NFL's few father-son Super Bowl champions in 2002 as his father was the offensive backfield coach of the 1970 world champion Baltimore Colts.

Sandwiched between his first coaching assignment in 1982 and his return to football in 1990, Idzik was a programming project manager and systems engineer for IBM from 1983-89 working in White Plains, N.Y., Atlanta, and Tampa.

A native of Detroit, Mich., Idzik graduated magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from Dartmouth College in 1982. In addition to earning a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Dartmouth, he also played wide receiver and helped the Big Green capture the Ivy League title in his senior season. He later earned a master's degree in liberal studies from Duke University in 1992.

Idzik and his wife, Carol, have two sons, Bryant and Bradley, and a daughter, Holly. The family resides in the Ahwatukee Foothills of Phoenix. ■

Hometown: Dallas, Texas

Cardinal Season: 6th

NFL Season: 7th

Rodd Newhouse begins his sixth season with the Cardinals as the club's pro personnel assistant, responsible for overseeing the team's evaluation of professional players, providing input into the club's personnel evaluation and decision-making process, handling matters involving the waiver procedure and free agent signings, and advance scouting of future opponents.

During this past summer, Newhouse participated in the Program for NFL Managers at the Stanford University Graduate School of Business Executive Education, a seminar hosted by Stanford professors and NFL executives focusing on the enhancement of participants' skills in the fields of finance, marketing, personnel, and negotiation.

Following his collegiate football career as a running back at Rice University where he earned degrees in economics, managerial studies, and sports management, Newhouse signed briefly as a free agent with the Baltimore Ravens in 1998.

In the spring and fall of 1998, he worked for the Dallas Cowboys as an assistant to his father, Robert Newhouse, the Cowboys' player programs director, who played for Dallas from 1972-83 and was a member of three Super Bowl teams. The younger Newhouse facilitated various player community programs and monitored career development opportunities.

In the fall of 1998, Newhouse worked with the National Football League Management Council, NFL Properties (the league's marketing arm), and NFL Security.

As a member of the Management Council staff, Newhouse worked in the area of player programs and labor relations where he helped develop programs in continuing education and financial and career advancement for NFL players, spouses, and their families. He also helped monitor the league's salary cap reconciliation through analysis of contract negotiations and legalities as it pertained to the collective bargaining agreement, and was responsible for preparation of the data base for players obtained by the new Cleveland Browns' franchise via the expansion draft.

As a collegian at Rice, Newhouse gained 484 yards rushing and scored two touchdowns on 95 carries in 44 games (14 starts). He also caught five passes for 135 yards, including a career-long 62-yarder against Ohio State as a junior, and returned seven kickoffs for 114 yards.

Born May 21, 1975 in Dallas, Newhouse, who was selected to the under-16 U.S. National regional soccer team as a teenager, attended Lake Highlands High School in Dallas. His father, Robert, a former standout running back for the Dallas Cowboys, currently serves the Cowboys as director of player programs. His brother, Reggie, Baylor's career receiving leader, signed with the Cardinals as a free agent following the 2003 NFL Draft and this spring played for the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe.

He resides in Chandler, Arizona. ■

Jim Stanley

College: Texas A&M

Hometown: Lynch, Kentucky

Cardinal Season: 10th

NFL Season: 22nd

Jim Stanley, the former head coach of the Michigan Panthers (USFL) and Oklahoma State University (O.S.U.), begins his 10th season in scouting after coaching the Cardinals' defensive line in 1994.

Stanley, a 13-year NFL coaching veteran, joined the Cardinals in 1995 following six seasons with the Houston Oilers, including 1993 when the Oilers set a club record with 52 quarterback sacks and ranked first in the NFL in both rushing defense (79.6 yards per game) and interceptions (26). Houston logged 50 sacks in 1992.

Before joining the Oilers, Stanley served as defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1986.

From 1983-84, he compiled a 22-14 record as head coach of the Panthers, a span that included a 12-6 mark, the USFL championship, and league coach-of-the-year honors in 1983.

He was defensive backs coach in 1979 for the New York Giants and from 1980-82 with the Atlanta Falcons.

As the six-year (1973-78) head coach at O.S.U., the Cowboys posted a 35-33-2 composite record and earned bowl victories in 1974 (Fiesta) and '76 (Tangerine). The latter 9-3 squad was Big Eight Conference co-champion. During his Stillwater stay, he also was selected to coach in the East-West Shrine Game (1973), the Hula Bowl (1977), and the Japan Bowl (1977).

Prior to his promotion to the Oklahoma State head-coaching position, Stanley was the Cowboys' defensive coordinator/assistant head coach for the 1972 season in his second stint at O.S.U.

Earlier, he was defensive coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1971-72), the U.S. Naval Academy (1969-70), and O.S.U. (1963-68).

His first two college coaching positions were as an assistant at Southern Methodist (1961) and Texas-El Paso (1962).

Stanley began his coaching career in the Amarillo, Texas high school system from 1959-60.

As a player, Stanley was a three-year starter at Texas A&M under legendary Head Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He played offense (guard) and defense (tackle) for the Aggies who went undefeated in 1956.

Born June 22, 1934 in Lynch, Kentucky, Stanley and his wife, Sylvia, have four grown children—daughters Rhonda and Starlyn, and sons Mark and Matthew. ■

Jerry Hardaway

SCOUT

College: Southern Illinois
Hometown: Memphis, Tennessee
Cardinal Season: 16th
NFL Season: 17th

Jerry Hardaway, who returned to the Cardinals' organization in 1996 after a one-year hiatus (1995) as an area scout for the expansion Carolina Panthers, handled regional scouting the past two years after four years as the Cardinals' national scouting coordinator.

Hardaway, who has coached extensively at the collegiate and high school levels, begins his 17th season with the Cardinals with primary responsibility for scouting the East.

He coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at the University of California (1984-86) where he was utilized in national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978-83) under legendary Head Coach Eddie Robinson as running backs and special-teams coach at Grambling State. During Hardaway's stay, the Tigers registered a 49-14-4 composite record and four conference championships.

Hardaway began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975-77.

He also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton H.S. in Memphis-Arlington, Tennessee in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep, in Richmond, California prior to joining the Cardinals the first time.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University (S.I.U.) where he was named co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway, born in Memphis, Tennessee but reared in Richmond, California, graduated from S.I.U. with a bachelor's degree in speech education in 1974. He also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State in 1979.

He and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Jason and a daughter, Jheri. They reside in Cary, N.C. ■

George Belu

SCOUT

College: Ohio University
Hometown: Lorain, Ohio
Cardinal Season: 4th
NFL Season: 4th

Veteran college football coach George Belu shifted career gears in 2001 when he joined the Cardinals' scouting staff after closing out his coaching career at Ohio State University.

In 2004, Belu will cover the North and Southeast sectors of the United States.

Belu, a 37-year coaching veteran who broke into the profession in 1965, was the offensive coordinator at five schools and offensive line coach at six universities.

His coaching highlights include an 11-0 season and Tangerine Bowl appearance at Miami (O.) in 1973, a Big Eight Conference title and two bowl appearances at Colorado, an Orange Bowl trip at Louisiana State, an Atlantic Coast Conference (A.C.C.) championship at North Carolina State, an Aloha Bowl appearance at Wake Forest, and a bowl game at Ohio State.

His coaching pedigree was shaped by serving on the staffs of an impressive list of head coaches—Jim Caldwell (Wake Forest), John Cooper (Ohio State), Bill Mallory (Indiana, Colorado, and Miami, O.), Keith Piper (Denison), and Jerry Stovall (Louisiana State).

Belu spent the 2000 season at Ohio State as offensive line coach when the Buckeyes appeared in the Outback Bowl.

Prior to his stay at Ohio State, he was the running-game coordinator at Wake Forest from 1997-99 during a resurgence in the Winston-Salem, North Carolina school's football fortunes. Under Belu's tutelage, the Demon Deacons' rushing attack made the second biggest improvement in A.C.C. history, jumping from 65.4 yards per game in 1998 to 175.7 yards per outing in 1999.

Unexpectedly, the Deacons ranked 31st nationally in rushing yardage in '99 and recorded the highest rushing totals by a Wake Forest team since 1984. In the process, Belu helped the Deacons earn a bowl bid for only the fifth time in school history (23-3 victory over Arizona State in the Aloha Bowl) and notch their first winning season since 1992.

Before landing at Wake Forest, Belu spent 13 seasons at Indiana as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. The Hoosiers appeared in six postseason games (All-American Bowl, Copper Bowl, Independence Bowl, Liberty Bowl, Peach Bowl twice) during Belu's tenure.

Individuals also excelled for Belu in Bloomington. Running back Anthony Thompson, a three-year Arizona Cardinal who was the team's second-round draft choice in 1990, led the Big Ten Conference in rushing for two consecutive seasons, was named the conference most valuable player by the Chicago Tribune, and was runner-up for the 1989 Heisman Trophy.

Belu's lengthy stay at Indiana was preceded by stops at Louisiana State (1980-83), North Carolina State (1979), Colorado (1974-78), Miami (1973), and Denison (1968-72).

During Belu's tenures, Louisiana State reached the Orange Bowl in 1982, N.C. State won the A.C.C. title in 1979, Colorado was co-champion of the Big Eight Conference in 1976 and earned bids to the Orange (1976) and Astro-Bluebonnet (1975) bowls, and Miami's 11-0 squad won the Mid-American Conference championship and a berth in the Tangerine Bowl in 1973.

Belu, a Lorain, O. native who holds bachelor of science and master of education degrees from Ohio University, is a member of the Lorain Football Sports Hall of Fame.

He has been married to his high school sweetheart, Janet, since 1961. They have two sons, David and Thomas, two daughters, Kathleen and Rebecca, and seven grandchildren. ■

George Boone

SCOUT

College: Kentucky

Hometown: Louisville, Kentucky

Cardinal Season: 28th

NFL Season: 34th

George Boone, a long-time fixture in the Cardinals' scouting department, rejoined the team in 2001 after a nine-year hiatus. The past two seasons, he's handled cross check evaluations of the Cardinals' scouting staff and additional study of top collegiate players.

Prior to rejoining the Cardinals, Boone spent six years with the Indianapolis Colts, serving the team as director of player personnel (1994-97) and director of college scouting (1998-99).

Boone previously spent 24 years with the Cardinals' organization, serving as director of player personnel from 1973-91 when he oversaw the club's scouting and drafting operations, directed the team's full-time scouts, and managed involvement with the National Scouting Combine, a personnel organization utilized by most NFL teams to pool scouting reports.

Before joining the Cardinals, Boone held a scouting position with the Central-Eastern Professional Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine also used by NFL teams. He worked three years for CEPO before accepting the assistant player personnel director's post with the Cardinals in 1968.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Boone is an alumnus of the University of Kentucky where he was a three-year starter at offensive and defensive tackle from 1957-59. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Kentucky where he also served as an assistant football coach for six years (1960-65).

He and his wife, Dedee, the parents of five grown children, reside in Tempe, Ariz. ■

Jim Carmody

SCOUT

College: Tulane

Hometown: Shreveport, Louisiana

Cardinal Season: 10th

NFL Season: 10th

Jim Carmody, the former head coach at Southern Mississippi and a veteran of more than 30 years of coaching at various colleges and the NFL, enters his ninth season as a scout for the Cardinals.

The past two years Carmody served primarily as a cross-checker of players in the Western area of the United States.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Carmody completed a three-year (1992-94) stay as assistant head coach and defensive line coach at Mississippi in 1994, his second stint at Ole Miss.

Before rejoining the Rebel staff, Carmody was assistant head coach and secondary coach at Mississippi College for the 1991 season.

A graduate of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and Tulane University, Carmody launched his collegiate coaching career as an offensive and defensive line coach at Tulane from 1961-62. He served as freshmen coach at Kentucky in 1963, followed by a three-year tenure as defensive line coach at Mississippi State from 1964-66.

He coached inside linebackers and the defensive line at North Carolina from 1967-73, and the defensive line at Ole Miss from 1974-77 before the Rebels promoted him to defensive coordinator (1975-77). He later spent 1978-80 at Southern Mississippi as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach.

Following the 1981 campaign as defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills, Carmody was named head coach at Southern Mississippi in 1982. In six seasons at the Hattiesburg, Mississippi school, Carmody's teams posted a 37-29 composite record, five winning seasons, and a 6-3 slate against in-state rivals Mississippi and Mississippi State.

He returned to the Mississippi State staff in December, 1988, serving two seasons (1989-90) as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach before going to Mississippi College.

In October, 1993, he was inducted into the Copiah-Lincoln Junior College Hall of Fame.

Born in Shreveport, La. and reared in New Orleans, Carmody is married to the former Earlyn "Noonie" Regouffre, also of New Orleans. They are the parents of four sons—Steve, Brian, Keith, and Chris. ■

Bill Dekraker

SCOUT

College: Old Dominion

Hometown: Fairfax, Virginia

Cardinal Season: 5th

NFL Season: 9th

Bill Dekraker begins his fifth season as a member of the Cardinals' scouting staff. His area of responsibility for the second year will be the West after covering the Northeast since joining the Cardinals in 2000. Previously, Dekraker spent three seasons as a scouting assistant for the Carolina Panthers.

While with Carolina, Dekraker worked on draft preparation, attended workouts, and updated a new pro personnel computer program for the Panthers.

Prior to his time in Carolina, Dekraker spent time at Indiana University as a recruiting assistant where he took part in organizing recruiting visits, and worked with professional scouts visiting the school.

Dekraker also served as a scout for the Washington Redskins from December 1995–January, 1997. His responsibilities in Washington included reviewing videos of draft prospects, charting plays during games, assisting with film breakdown, and coordinating training camp.

Before his time with the Redskins, Dekraker, a 1995 graduate of Old Dominion with a bachelor's degree in sports management, served in a variety of capacities with the Hampton Roads Sharks minor league football team and the National Hockey League's Washington Capitals.

He resides in Manassas, Virginia with his wife, Mariela. ■

Steve Keim

SCOUT

College: North Carolina State

Hometown: Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

Cardinal Season: 6th

NFL Season: 6th

Steve Keim enters his sixth season with the Cardinals after joining the club in May, 1999 as a regional scout.

Formerly the Cards' scout in the East, Keim will primarily cross-check evaluations of players in the Eastern portion of the United States.

Keim attended Red Land High School in Lewisberry, Pennsylvania and earned a bachelor's degree in communications from North Carolina State.

A two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a guard at N.C. State, Keim had a brief stint in pro football as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins (1996) and Edmonton Eskimos (1997) of the Canadian Football League.

He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater for two years, assisted the recruiting coordinator with evaluations, and served as liaison to NFL personnel wishing to scout Wolfpack football players.

Keim resides in Raleigh, North Carolina with his wife, Kimberly. ■

Bob Mazie

SCOUT

College: Waynesburg College

Hometown: Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Cardinal Season: 11th

NFL Season: 11th

Bob Mazie, with 39 years of experience in football, primarily on the college level, begins his 11th year as a regional scout for the Cardinals. His primary areas of responsibility are the Midwest and Southwest.

Mazie started his coaching career on the high school level in Pittsburgh from 1958–63 where he developed future NFL players Francis Peay and Larry Brown.

Mazie broke into the college ranks from 1965–66 as an assistant coach at Southwestern Oklahoma State, the first of two stints at the Weatherford, Oklahoma school, prior to a five-year tour (1967–71) at Southern Illinois (S.I.U.) as offensive line coach where he tutored future NFL players Lionel Antoine and Carl Mauck. The latter was the Cards' offensive line coach from 1996–97.

Mazie left S.I.U. to become assistant athletic director and head football coach at Kutztown (Pa.) State, providing the school its first winning season in several years with a 6-4 record in 1971. At Kutztown, he coached future Dallas Cowboy running back Doug Dennison.

The University of Dayton was Mazie's next stop from 1972-75, first as an assistant, then as offensive coordinator. During his time directing the offense, the Flyers set several school passing records, including a single-season mark of 1,992 passing yards.

Mazie returned to Southwestern Oklahoma State as head coach in 1978, compiling a 38-38-2 (.500) composite slate over eight seasons that would have read 44-32-2 (.577), but a player ruled ineligible at the end of the 1981 season dropped that year's 9-2 record to 3-8. Overall, the squad led the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference in defense five times (1978-79, '82-83, '85). Mazie was named the league's coach-of-the-year in 1985. One of his standout Bulldog players was future Cardinal punter Carl Birdsong.

Born March 29, 1938 in Pittsburgh, Pa., Mazie played collegiately at Waynesburg (Pa.) College where he was a four-year letterman, senior captain, and all-conference and all-state at tight end and defensive end while earning his bachelor's degree in social studies and history in 1957.

He later continued his education and playing career, playing for the U.S. Army service team, captaining the Wheeling Ironmen of the Continental Football League in 1961-62, and completing a master's degree in education at Southwestern Oklahoma State in 1965.

Mazie and his wife, Inez, who reside in The Woodlands, Texas, are the parents of four daughters and a son. They have 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. ■

Lonnie Young

SCOUT

College: Michigan State
Hometown: Flint, Michigan
Cardinal Season: 8th
NFL Season: 14th

Lonnie Young, a 12-year NFL veteran defensive back with three teams, including six as a Cardinal safety (1985-90), enters his second year with the Cards as the newest member of Arizona's scouting department. His primary area of responsibility will be the Northeast.

Originally selected by the Cardinals in the 12th round (325th overall) of the 1985 NFL Draft, Young played in 150 NFL games (97 starts) with the Cardinals (1985-90), N.Y. Jets (1991-93, '95-'96), and San Diego Chargers (1994). His professional statistics included 720 total tackles (540 solos), 11 pass interceptions, 14 fumble recoveries, 9 forced fumbles, 44 pass deflections, and 2 quarterback sacks.

Young attended Beecher High School in his native Flint, Michigan and was a two-year starting cornerback at Michigan State where his roommate was former N.Y. Giant linebacker Carl Banks.

After an outstanding college career for the Spartans, Young earned all-rookie notice in 1985 when he led all Cardinal defensive backs with three interceptions and added 92 tackles and six pass deflections as a 10-game starter. He was the team's starting free safety for 72 of his 82 games in a Cardinal uniform, logging 470 tackles, 8 interceptions, and 8 fumble recoveries.

He was an honorable mention all-pro for the Cardinals in 1988.

Prior to the start of the 1991 season, Young was traded to the N.Y. Jets for a ninth-round draft pick. He was the Jets' starting free safety for the next two seasons. After spending 1994 with San Diego as a member of the Chargers' AFC championship squad but inactive for the postseason and Super Bowl XXIX, Young returned for two final seasons with the Jets from 1995-96.

Following his retirement as a player after the 1996 season, Young has worked in private business and served as a personnel scout for the N.Y. Jets prior to joining the Cardinals. In recognition of his high school and college playing career, he will be inducted into the state of Michigan Hall of Fame in December.

Young resides in Holbrook, New York. ■

John Omohundro

HEAD TRAINER

College: Wyoming

Hometown: Salt Lake City, Utah

Cardinal Season: 38th

NFL Season: 38th

John Omohundro, the NFL's senior trainer, begins his 38th season with the Cardinals and his 34th campaign as the team's head trainer.

Omohundro and his assistants, Jim Shearer and Jeff Herndon, gained notoriety in 1993 when they were named the National Football League's athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS). They were recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

During high school, Omohundro's career in athletics and life-long love affair with baseball began wholesomely as the winner of a contest to become bat boy for the Pacific Coast League Salt Lake City Bees in his hometown. Omohundro soon became a jack-of-all-trades around the Bees' clubhouse in the late 1950s and early '60s with future major leaguers like Sam McDowell, Dick Hall, and Dick Stuart, and performing as a clubhouse assistant, traveling secretary, and assistant trainer for future San Francisco Giants head trainer Al Wylder.

Omohundro began his undergraduate studies while serving as head trainer at the College of Southern Utah from 1961-62. He spent 1962-65 in Laramie, Wyoming at the University of Wyoming, serving as a student athletic trainer during his undergraduate studies. After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education/allied health sciences in 1965, Omohundro remained as a graduate assistant trainer.

He also served six years as a sergeant in the U.S. Army Reserve as a senior medical specialist, including one stint on active duty from January-June, 1967 before beginning his long association with the Cardinals in time for the 1967 football season.

He served as the team's assistant trainer for four seasons (1967-70) before his promotion to head trainer in 1971.

Omohundro has taken an active role in his professional associations throughout his career. He served PFATS as secretary/treasurer from 1976-82, followed by a two-year term as the National Football Conference representative. He also is the former member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) Ethics Committee. In 1993, NATA named Omohundro recipient of its 25-year distinguished service award. Omohundro also is a former chairman of the Missouri State Athletic Trainer Advisory Committee.

Omohundro is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, and a member of the International Narcotics Officers' Association.

In 1999, Seton Catholic High School in Chandler, Arizona honored Omohundro's support and fund-raising efforts for the school's baseball program by naming its field "John Omohundro Field."

Omohundro, wife Martha, sons John and Jim, and daughter Neely, reside in Tempe, Arizona. ■

Jim Shearer

ASSISTANT TRAINER

College: Wyoming

Hometown: Worland, Wyoming

Cardinal Season: 31st

NFL Season: 31st

Jim "The Machine" Shearer enters his 31st year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical areas.

Shearer, fellow assistant Jeff Herndon, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, Wyoming as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973-74. He joined the Cardinals in 1974.

Born in Worland, Wyoming, Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher, and a daughter, Sarah. They reside in Tempe, Arizona. ■

Jeff Herndon

ASSISTANT TRAINER

College: Missouri

Hometown: Boone County, Missouri

Cardinal Season: 19th

NFL Season: 19th

Jeff Herndon enters his 19th season on the Cardinals' training staff.

Herndon, fellow assistant trainer Jim Shearer, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

Herndon earned a master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1985 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Missouri.

The Boone County, Missouri native first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and '85 preseason training camps. He followed that initiation as athletic trainer at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, Texas from 1985-86 before rejoining the Cardinals in 1986.

Herndon and his wife, Gail, reside in Gilbert, Arizona with their daughter, Elisabeth Marie. ■

Freddie Carabajal

ASSISTANT TRAINER

College: New Mexico
Hometown: Melbourne, Florida
Cardinal Season: 2nd
NFL Season: 2nd

After paying his dues as a seasonal and training camp intern for the Cardinals and spending three years as a head trainer in the NFL Europe League, Freddie Carabajal accomplished a long-time goal when he was hired as a full-time member of the Cardinals training staff in 2003.

Born in Melbourne, Fla., Carabajal graduated from the University of New Mexico with a degree in athletic training in 1996 and subsequently added a master's degree in sports administration in 2001.

During and after his undergraduate days, however, he was an annual training camp intern for the Cardinals from 1995 through 1999, during which time he also served as a graduate assistant to his alma mater's training staff from 1997–98.

Following his stay in Albuquerque, Carabajal served as head athletic trainer for the New Mexico Scorpions of the Western Professional Hockey League from 1998–99, then held a similar position along with duties as equipment and road manager for the New Mexico Slam of the International Basketball League through their 2000 season.

In 2001, Carabajal was named head trainer for the Rhein Fire of the NFL Europe League, a position he maintained through the 2003 season while also serving as a seasonal intern for the Cardinals once the Fire's season was completed.

Carabajal resides in Maricopa, Ariz. ■

Cardinal Season: 17th

NFL Season: 17th

Steve Christensen enters his 17th year as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager, assisting department head Mark Ahlemeier in all phases of the team's logistical and equipment preparations.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Christensen attended Bozeman (Mont.) High School before enrolling at New Mexico State University and later Western Montana College to study art education.

After working at both schools as a student equipment manager, Christensen was appointed to the equipment staff at Arizona State University as an assistant in 1982. He remained with the Sun Devils until joining the Cardinals in June of 1988 shortly after the team's arrival in Arizona.

The father of one daughter, Kelsey, Christensen resides in Chandler, Arizona. ■

Chris Collins

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

College: Arizona State

Hometown: Billings, Montana

Cardinal Season: 1st

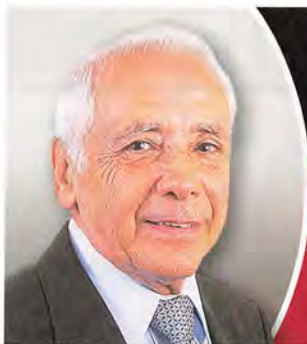

NFL Season: 1st

Chris Collins enters his third season with the Cardinals as an assistant equipment manager after spending his first two seasons as an intern.

A native of Billings, Montana, Collins attended Billings West High School, then played baseball at the College of Southern Idaho before transferring to Arizona State University where he worked as a student equipment manager and eventually earned a degree in recreation management and tourism.

Collins resides in Tempe, Ariz. ■

Benny Greenberg

College: Washington (Mo.)
Hometown: St. Louis, Missouri
Cardinal Season: 39th
NFL Season: 39th

The 2004 season marks Benny Greenberg's 39th year of affiliation with the Cardinals as the team's video director.

In 2001, Greenberg was an instrumental cog in the transition from videotape to digital practice and game footage.

A St. Louis native who spent his entire life in the Gateway City before the Cardinals' move to Arizona in 1988, Greenberg owned and operated photography stores until the team's move to Arizona in addition to his film and video duties with the Cardinals that include videotaping games and practices.

Greenberg also worked as a cameraman for St. Louis television stations, positions he held concurrently with part-time work for the Cardinals that began in 1966. He joined the Cards on a full-time basis in 1970.

He studied mechanical engineering at Washington University in St. Louis for three years in the 1940s.

Greenberg and his wife, Bebe, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona. They have two sons, Mark and Barry, and four grandchildren. ■

COACHES

HEAD COACH

Hometown: Harrisburg, Pa.

Cardinal Season: 1st

NFL Season: 11th as Head Coach, 15th overall

Dennis Green, one of the National Football League's most successful head coaches who revived college football programs at Northwestern and Stanford as well as the NFL's Minnesota Vikings, was handed the reins to the Arizona Cardinals' football fortunes on January 7, 2004 as the 33rd head coach in the history of the franchise.

Green, 55, posted a 101-70 (.591) composite record in 10 seasons (1992-2001) as head coach of the Minnesota Vikings, leading the club to eight postseason berths (four National Football Conference Central Division titles) and two NFC championship games.

"Naming Dennis Green the Cardinals' head coach is a significant element to our plan to build a winning team," offered Arizona Cardinals President Bill Bidwill the day he helped Green don a cardinal-red blazer, reminiscent of the presentation of the green jacket to the winner of the annual Masters Golf title. "He is a proven winner with an outstanding track record of success everywhere he has coached. We're anxious for him to begin implementing his winning program with the Cardinals."

Growing Up

The youngest of five brothers, Green grew up in his native Harrisburg, Pa., roughly 90 miles west of Philadelphia, but encountered adversity at an early age when his father, then his mother, died when he was just 11 and 13 years old. Upon their passing, the ideals of hard work and perseverance became ingrained into a young man mature beyond his years.

Green was all-Pennsylvania running back and class president at John Harris High School, then became one of the most productive running backs in Iowa football history as a two-time (1969-70) honorable mention all-Big Ten conference halfback and flanker. After graduating from Iowa right on schedule—"always my number one priority"—Green signed a contract as a defensive back with the British Columbia Lions of CFL in 1971, then was volunteer coach for the Hawkeye football team but only after spending the morning as a truck driver.

Early Coaching Career

The following year, 1972, Green began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Iowa, then spent the following season as running backs/receivers coach at Dayton before returning to handle the same duties at Iowa from 1974-76.

Following two seasons at Stanford as running backs coach under Cardinal head coach Bill Walsh, Green entered the pro arena with San Francisco in 1979 as wide receivers/special teams coach, then returned to Stanford a year later as offensive coordinator when Cardinal quarterback John Elway set a Pac-10 Conference record with 27 touchdown passes.

Rebuilding Programs

Armed with a dossier featuring success as a professional assistant and accomplished college coordinator, Green became only the second black head coach in NCAA Division I history (Willie Jefferies, Wichita State, 1979) when he took over at Northwestern in 1981, a program mired in futility. His first year, the school lost all 11 of its games, but his background of hard work and perseverance paid off in his second season. While developing such future NFL stars as Steve Tasker and Chris Hinton, the Wildcats forged a 3-8 record and ended the school's 34-game losing streak, earning Green 1982 Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors.

After five seasons (1981-85) at Northwestern, Green returned to the 49ers and head coach Bill Walsh's staff in San Francisco where he earned a Super Bowl ring following the 1988 season. During his three seasons as receivers coach, Jerry Rice twice earned NFL Player-of-the-Year recognition and was selected the most-valuable-player of Super Bowl XXIII.

Another challenge beckoned Green in 1989, however, this time in a return to Stanford, coming off a 3-6-2 record in 1988. Once again, Green dusted off his rebuilding materials and in 1990, his second season as head coach of the Cardinal, Stanford shocked college football when they upset then-number one ranked Notre Dame in South Bend, Indiana. During his final season at Stanford—1991—he led the Cardinal to the school's longest winning streak since 1951 (seven games), their most Pac-10 Conference victories since 1970 (six), and their first bowl appearance since 1986 (Aloha). Only a Georgia Tech touchdown with 14 seconds remaining kept Stanford from its first postseason victory since 1978—ironically when Green was on the staff.

The Pro Arena

Now considered one of the brightest aspiring young coaches in the college ranks, Green's success led to several offers from the NFL, and in 1992 he accepted the position as head coach of the Minnesota Vikings, just the second black head coach in the NFL since the 1920s.

Despite a roster overhaul which included the attrition of several veterans, Green began to fashion one of the most remarkable records of any NFL head coach of his era. In just his first season, Green led the Vikings to an 11–5 record and its only division title under a first-year head coach. He earned NFL Coach of the Year honors from the Washington Touchdown Club and NFC Coach of the Year honors from United Press International and College & Pro Football Newsweekly. In addition, the Vikings came within one victory of tying the team single-season mark for wins at the time and won seven division games, the most in team history in one season. Green also became one of only 11 men since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his first season as an NFL head coach. Of those 11, only two came directly from the college ranks as did Green.

The following season, Minnesota qualified for a wild card playoff spot with a 9–7 record, then in 1994 Green became one of only eight in NFL history to lead his team to the playoffs in each of his first three seasons as the Vikings won the NFC Central title with a 10–6 mark.

An 8–8 in 1995 was followed by 9–7 campaigns in 1996 and '97, the latter season highlighted by a 23–22 wild card victory over the N.Y. Giants in Giants Stadium before losing to San Francisco in the divisional playoffs.

In 1998, Green's team made several personnel moves which paid off handsomely. The Vikings acquired quarterback Randall Cunningham (1997) and kicker Gary Anderson (1998) via free agency, procured defensive back Jimmy Hitchcock (1998) in a trade, and added linebacker Dwayne Rudd (1997) and wide receiver Randy Moss (1998) through the draft. The result was a 15–1 regular-season record as he became one of only three NFL head coaches to record a 15-victory regular season (Bill Walsh, San Francisco, 1984; Mike Ditka, Chicago, 1985). The 1998 season also produced an NFL-record 556 points scored and eight-game winning streak to end the season, the Vikings' longest since 1975. Cunningham enjoyed the finest season of his 13-year NFL career and was named Miller Lite Player-of-the-

Year, while Moss set numerous NFL rookie receiving marks and was named league rookie-of-the-year by virtually every media outlet in the country. Minnesota advanced to the NFC Championship game and Green was named NFL Coach-of-the-Year by Sports Illustrated and the Maxwell Club.

The Vikings compiled records of 10–6 in 1999 and 11–5 in 2000 but were eliminated in second-round playoff action in 1999 and the NFC title game in 2000. In 2001, his final season with the Vikings, Green resigned his position with one week remaining after a 5–10 record.

Green's coaching success includes eight postseason appearances, four NFC Central Division titles, two NFC championship game appearances in 10 seasons at Minnesota. He guided the Vikings to post-season play eight times with seven different quarterbacks—Sean Salisbury (1992), Jim McMahon (1993), Warren Moon (1994), Brad Johnson (1996), Randall Cunningham (1997–98), Jeff George (1999), Daunte Culpepper (2000). Under his guidance, Minnesota was only NFL team to qualify for playoffs each season from 1996–2000, posted the NFL's best winning percentage (.639, 92–52) from 1992–2000, and the Vikings 36–12 (.750) composite record from 1998–2000 was best three-season run in franchise history.

In addition, Green's NFL teams produced wins regardless of playing surface, temperature, home or away. He coached winning records outdoors (33–24), in domes (59–28), on grass (23–20), on artificial turf (69–32), and in temperatures below 40 degrees (7–3).

Personal

Green defines his personal life by the 5 Fs: Faith, Family, Friends, Football, and Fishing.

An accomplished fisherman, Green hosted—and ironically finished first—in the Dennis Green/Arizona Cardinals Celebrity/Pro Bass Fishing Tournament this past spring in Phoenix. He and his wife, Marie, are actively involved in civic endeavors and has instituted "Community Tuesdays" during the NFL season when he and his players visit area schools, boys and girls clubs, local chapters of such causes as the Epilepsy Foundation and Special Olympics, and other venues to offer time and words of advice and encouragement. In 1993, he was honored with the Pop

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

College: Arizona
Hometown: Phoenix, Ariz.
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 10th

Phoenix native and University of Arizona alum Clancy Pendergast returns to the Valley as the Cardinals' first-year defensive coordinator. Pendergast's coaching dossier includes nine seasons in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns (2003), Dallas Cowboys (1996–2002), and the Houston Oilers (1995) and five more seasons on the major college level.

Prior to joining Cleveland last year as linebacker coach, Pendergast spent seven seasons on the staff in Dallas, first as a defensive assistant/quality control/linebackers (1996–99), then extended additional responsibilities to coach nickel defense packages (2000) and overall secondary (2001–02). Dallas fielded the youngest starting defensive backfield in the NFL in 2002 with two rookies (first-round draft pick Roy Williams and Derek Ross), a second-year starting five different lineups and eight different players in the secondary. Pendergast's management of the Dallas nickel package in 2000 helped the unit finish third in pass defense.

During his first four seasons with the Cowboys (1996–99), Pendergast focused primarily on the linebackers and helped mold a unit which was part of a defense that improved from 24th in 1997 to 12th in 1998. During that period, Fred Strickland recorded a career-best 153 tackles (1996), Dexter Coakley set a club rookie record with 136 tackles (1997), Strickland, Coakley, and Randall Godfrey finished 2-3-4 on the club in tackles (1998), and Coakley earned his first Pro Bowl selection and led the club with four interceptions (1999).

Born in November 29, 1967 in Phoenix, Pendergast earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Arizona in Tucson in 1990, then worked with wide receivers and as an advance scout as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State (1991) and defensive assistant at Southern California (1992). He spent the next two seasons (1993–94) at the University of Oklahoma as a graduate assistant advance scout and coaching the tight ends, then named the tight ends coach at Alabama-Birmingham in 1995 before joining the Oilers as a defensive assistant and quality control coach.

Pendergast resides in Scottsdale, Ariz. ■

Alex Wood

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

College: Iowa
Hometown: Massillon, Ohio
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 6th

As the Cardinals' first-year offensive coordinator, Alex Wood brings 26 years of coaching experience to the Valley, including five at the professional level with the Minnesota Vikings (1999-2002) and Cincinnati Bengals (2003).

Last year, Wood's tutelage of the Bengals' wide receivers was instrumental in the club's resurgence to compete for a playoff spot through the final weekend of the season. Under his guidance, Chad Johnson led the AFC with 1,355 receiving yards on 90 receptions, and the Bengals were the only AFC team to place two receivers among the top 10 in the conference (Johnson, 90 receptions, first; Peter Warrick, 79 receptions, sixth). Johnson was selected a Pro Bowl starter.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Wood served as quarterbacks coach for the Vikings where he developed Daunte Culpepper into one of the NFL's bright young stars. A first-round draft choice in 1999 (selected after Tim Couch, Donovan McNabb, and Akili Smith), Culpepper became the Vikings' starting quarterback in 2000, led the NFC with 33 touchdown passes, set a team quarterback rushing record for yards (470) and touchdowns (7) as Minnesota advanced to the conference title game, and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. Culpepper also finished second in the NFC in passing yards (3,937) and third in passer rating (98.0). After missing the end of the '01 season due to injury, Culpepper returned in 2002 to rank second in the NFC in passing yards (3,853) and third in yards-per-attempt (7.02) as Minnesota finished second in the NFL in net offense and ninth in passing.

A college running back and special teams player at Iowa from 1975-77, Wood began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1978, then served on staff at Kent State (1979-80) as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach. Wood changed gears and moved to the defensive side of the ball as defensive backs coach at Southern Illinois (1981) and as defensive coordinator at Southern University (1982–84) before returning to the offense as wide receivers coach at Wyoming (1985–86).

After two seasons overseeing the tight ends at Washington State (1987–88), Wood handled the running backs at Miami-Florida (1989–92), followed by two years as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Wake Forest (1993–94). A four-year stint as head coach at James Madison (1995–98) followed, and in his first season he led the school to an 8–4 record and postseason berth. Overall, his four-year record was 23–22. While running backs coach at Miami under head coach Dennis Erickson, Wood helped the Hurricanes earn national championships in 1989 and 1991.

Born March 14, 1955 in Massillon, Ohio where he was a prep running back and wrestler at Washington High School. Wood and his wife, Rosa have three children—Jerrel, Alex, and Natalie. ■

Frank Bush LINEBACKERS

College: North Carolina
Hometown: Athens, Ga.
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 13th

Former Denver Broncos (1995–03) and Houston Oilers (1992–94) assistant Frank Bush enters his first season with the Cardinals' as linebackers coach.

Bush served the previous nine seasons with the Broncos—three as special teams coach (2001–03), one overseeing the defensive secondary/nickel packages (2000), and five as linebackers coach (1995–99). Last year, Denver ranked fifth in the AFC in both punt and kickoff return average. Kicker Jason Elam accounted for 120 points for the second consecutive season, placing him fourth (2003), and second (2002), respectively. In 2001, Elam's 86 percent field goal accuracy mark (31-of-36) was the best in Bronco history and Reuben Droughns ranked third in the AFC with a 25.8-yard kickoff return average.

In 1995, his first season as linebackers coach with Denver, the Bronco defense improved from 28th to 15th, then skyrocketed to the fourth overall defense in the league in 1996, including first against the run. The 1997 season saw two of his pupils—John Mobley (162) and Bill Romanowski (117) rank 1–2 on the club in tackles as Denver forged consecutive World Championships with victories in Super Bowl XXXII over Green Bay following the 1997 season and Super Bowl XXXIII over Atlanta after the '98 campaign. In the latter campaign, the linebacker trio of Mobley (132) Glenn Cadrez (105), and Romanowski (95) led the team in tackles. Romanowski earned his second Pro Bowl berth, and the Bronco run defense finished third in the NFL.

After an outstanding college career as a three-year starter at North Carolina State, Bush was a fifth-round draft choice by Houston in the 1985 NFL Draft and earned all-rookie acclaim starting 11 of 16 games for the Oilers before a spinal injury prematurely ended his pro career a year later.

After serving as a college scout for the Oilers for six years (1987-92), he was the team's linebackers coach for three seasons, bringing his tenure with Houston as a player, scout, and assistant coach to 10 years.

Bush's linebackers continued to play an integral role the following two seasons as the Broncos. In 2002, his special teams ranked among the best in the league as Denver ranked third in the AFC in kickoff coverage and fourth in kickoff return average.

Born January 10, 1963 in Athens, Ga., Bush and his wife, Stephanie, reside in Phoenix. ■

Ryan Capretta

College: Santa Barbara City College

Hometown: Westlake, Calif.

Cardinal Season: 1st

NFL Season: 1st

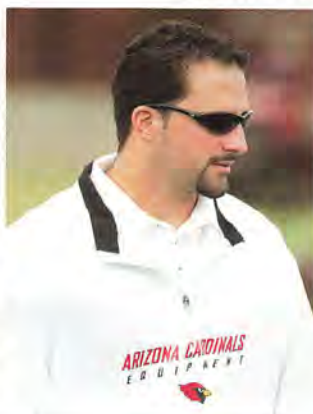

After spending the 2003 season on an internship basis, Ryan Capretta begins his first season as a full-time member of the Arizona Cardinals coaching staff as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

The past four seasons Capretta served on the staffs of the Cardinals and Baltimore Ravens at the professional level, and on the college level at Stanford University and Indiana State.

Born June 25, 1977 in Westlake, Calif., Capretta attended Agoura High School and became an all-conference performer at Santa Barbara (Calif.) City College where he holds the school single-game record for receiving yardage. Two years at Indiana State followed, capped by an appearance in the national college all-star game in 1999.

After earning his degree from I.S.U. in exercise science, he spent one year as the school's wide receivers coach.

Capretta's first professional experience followed when he first served an off-season internship with the Baltimore Ravens in 2000, then was named assistant strength and conditioning coach during the football season. That year the club established several NFL records with a stifling defense enroute to a 34-7 win over the N.Y. Giants in Super Bowl XXXV.

In 2001, he worked as an assistant coach for head coach

Tyrone Willingham on the staff at Stanford, where his duties extended from year-round strength and conditioning training for football and other major college sports to responsibilities as an offensive assistant for the Cardinal football team. In 2002 Capretta trained numerous championship teams in the school's various sports programs, worked extensively in the sports medicine department's rehabilitation programs, and assisted with the design of a new 10,000 square foot strength training facility prior to joining the Cardinals last year.

Capretta resides in Tempe, Ariz. ■

Rick Courtright

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

College: Wheaton College
Hometown: Miami, Fla.
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 1st

With a coaching background entering its 15th year, Rick Courtright joins the Cardinals staff in the area of defensive quality control. Courtright spent the past three seasons as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Western Illinois and was a member of the University of Washington staff in 1991-92 that produced two Pac-10 Conference titles, a pair of Rose Bowl appearances, and the 1991 National Championship.

A native of Miami, Florida, Courtright began his coaching career as defensive coordinator at Hendricks (Minn.) High School in 1988, then as head coach at Teton County High School in Driggs, Idaho in 1990.

Following his two seasons as assistant offensive line coach at Washington (1991-92), he joined the staff at Minnesota-Morris as defensive line coach, strength coach, and academic coordinator in 1993, coached defensive ends at Ohio University in 1994, then served as linebackers coach at Idaho State (1995) and as linebackers coach, tight ends coach, special teams coordinator, and recruiting coordinator at the University of Idaho (1996-99).

Prior to his tenure at Western Illinois, he served one season (2000) as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Murray State.

Courtright was an all-state linebacker at Miami (Fla.) Christian High School, and played college football at Wheaton (Ill.) College where he earned a degree in physical education in 1983, which he later complemented with a degree in sports pedagogy (the science of teaching) from Idaho in 1999.

Born January 4, 1961, Courtright resides in Phoenix with his wife, Lois. ■

WIDE RECEIVERS

College: Houston
Hometown: Belton, Tex.
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 14th

Robert Ford, with playoff coaching experience in 10 of his 13 seasons as an NFL assistant, enters his 14th season after serving on the staffs in Dallas (1991-97) and Miami (1998-2003).

Ford joins Arizona Cardinal Head Coach Dennis Green's staff after six seasons as wide receivers coach for the Dolphins. There he developed wide receiver Chris Chambers, who led all NFL rookies in 2001 with 48 pass receptions and a team-high 883 yards and seven touchdowns, led the club with 52 receptions in 2002, then added a team-best 64 catches for 963 yards last year and led the AFC with 11 touchdown receptions.

The Belton, Texas native broke into the NFL as an assistant with the Dallas Cowboys in 1991. During his seven seasons as tight ends coach, Jay Novacek was voted to the Pro Bowl five times and recorded 280 receptions—more than any other NFL tight end during that span (1991-95). While a member on the staffs of Jimmy Johnson (1991-93) and Barry Switzer (1994-97), he helped the Cowboys qualify for postseason play six times, play in four NFC championship games, and win three Super Bowl titles. Ford also spent the 1990 training camp with the Cowboys as part of the NFL's minority coaching fellowship program.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ford spent 16 seasons as an assistant at the high school and collegiate levels. He began his coaching career in 1973 at Saginaw (Michigan) High School, then joined the staff as wide receivers coach at Western Illinois in 1974 for three seasons, followed by stops at New Mexico (1977-79), Oregon State (1980-81), and Mississippi State (1982-83).

After one season (1985) as wide receivers coach for the Houston Gamblers of the USFL, he returned to the college arena and held wide receivers coaching posts at Kansas (1986), Texas Tech (1987-88), and Texas A&M (1989-90) before his first NFL position in Dallas.

Ford earned a degree in education from the University of Houston and a master's degree in athletic administration from Western Illinois. While at Houston, he led the Cougars in receiving, punt returns, and kick-off returns as a senior. He is the only player in NCAA history to catch two 99-yard pass receptions.

Born June 21, 1951, Ford and his wife, Janice, have two sons—Bobby and Jason. ■

Bill Khayat

College: Duke

Hometown: York, Pa.

Cardinal Season: 1st

NFL Season: 1st

Bill Khayat enters the NFL coaching fraternity in 2004 in the area of offensive quality control. Khayat spent the past four seasons at Tennessee State as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator (2003) and tight ends coach and video coordinator (2000-02).

A standout tight end at Duke University from 1992-95, Khayat was twice named to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference second team and was an honorable mention All-America pick in 1994. The first Duke tight end to lead the team in receptions in 25 years, he set the Hall of Fame Bowl game record with 11 receptions for 109 yards against Wisconsin.

After graduating from Duke, Khayat spent time in the National Football League on the practice squads with Kansas City (1996) and Carolina (1997), and in 1998 played for the Barcelona Dragons of NFL Europe and caught 16 passes for 125 yards and one touchdown.

Born March 26, 1973 in York, Pa., Khayat was three-sport star at York Catholic High School. In addition to being an all-state football player, he was the starting center for the state champion York Catholic basketball team and an all-county selection as a catcher for the school's baseball team. He was honored by his high school when his football jersey (No. 30) was retired in 1991 and he was named the outstanding student-athlete.

Khayat credits his father, Eddie, who spent 10 years as a player in the NFL and later 25 as a coach as one of his greatest influences.

Bill earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Biological Anthropology and Anatomy from Duke in 1995. He was on the Distinguished Dean's List at Duke and was named to the Academic All-ACC Football team.

Bill resides in Gilbert, Ariz. ■

Mike Kruczek

QUARTERBACKS

College: Boston College

Hometown: Washington, D.C.

Cardinal Season: 1st

NFL Season: 1st

Though he will embark upon his first season as an NFL assistant, Cardinals' quarterbacks coach Mike Kruczek is well-equipped for his role with 22 years of coaching experience and five seasons as a professional quarterback.

Kruczek, an all-America quarterback at Boston College and owner of two Super Bowl rings while a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers, joins the Cardinals after 19 seasons at the University of Central Florida, including the past six as head coach.

While guiding UCF to a 36-30 record from 1998-03, Kruczek's passing offense finished among the top 10 in the NCAA three times (1998, 2001, '02). His '98 squad—posting a school-best 9-2 mark—featured senior quarterback Daunte Culpepper, who set more than 30 school records while becoming only the third player in NCAA history to pass for more than 10,000 yards and rush for more than 1,000 yards in a career. Culpepper earned all-America honors, won the Sammy Baugh Award as the nation's top college passer, finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting, and was a first-round pick by the Minnesota Vikings in the 1999 NFL Draft. Culpepper also broke Steve Young's 15-year old NCAA record for single-season completion percentage with a 73.6 percent mark.

Prior to his six seasons as the Golden Knights' head coach, Kruczek served for 13 seasons as the school's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach during which time UCF led all NCAA Division II schools in scoring offense (1987), passing offense (1988), and advanced to the I-AA national semifinals (1990).

Born March 15, 1953 in Washington, D.C., Kruczek earned all-America notice in 1975 as a quarterback at Boston College where he set several school passing and total offense records. He was selected in the second round of the 1976 NFL Draft by Pittsburgh and played in 29 games for the Steelers from 1976-79 and was a member of Super Bowl championship squads in 1978 and '79. As a rookie in 1976 he stepped into the lineup for an injured Terry Bradshaw and led the Steelers to six consecutive victories enroute to the AFC title game. He concluded his playing career in 1980 with the Washington Redskins.

Kruczek, who owns a degree in marketing from Boston College, received his first coaching experience as quarterbacks coach under Bobby Bowden at Florida State from 1982-83, then spent one season (1984) as quarterbacks coach for the Jacksonville Bulls of the USFL prior to joining the staff at UCF.

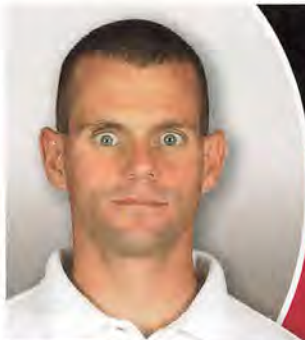

Kruczek (KROO-zek) and his wife, Leigh, have two children—daughter Kelly and son Garrett—and reside in Chandler, Ariz. ■

Daryl Lawrence

College: Illinois State
Hometown: Chicago Heights, Ill.
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 5th

Daryl Lawrence joins the Cardinals after serving the past four seasons with the Minnesota Vikings as an assistant to Steve Wetzel, the Cardinals' new Strength and Conditioning coach.

After spending the 1997 season with the Vikings as a part-time assistant in strength and conditioning, Lawrence bolstered his resume as an assistant strength coach at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point from 1998-00 where he worked with a variety of sports, including the Academy's football, ice hockey, lacrosse, and basketball programs. Prior to his tenure with the Vikings, he was a graduate assistant in the strength and conditioning program at Illinois State University from 1995-96.

Lawrence's educational background includes a bachelor's and master's degree from Illinois State where he was a Cum Laude graduate with a bachelor's in food nutrition and dietetics and carried a 4.0 GPA while earning a master's in exercise physiology. In addition, Lawrence has been published in several publications, including Medicine & Science in Sports & Exercise.

Lawrence spent 1984-88 in the United States Army as a paratrooper where he rose to the rank of sergeant and was a squad leader in the storied 82nd Airborne Division based at Fort Bragg, N.C.

Born Oct. 20, 1965, Daryl and his wife, Mary, have two daughters—Mia and Gianna—and resides in Chandler, Ariz. ■

Kevin O'Dea

SPECIAL TEAMS

College: Lock Haven
 Hometown: Williamsport, Pa.
 Cardinal Season: 1st
 NFL Season: 11th

Kevin O'Dea begins his first season as the Cardinals' special teams coach and has spent 10 years in the NFL, the past two seasons with the Detroit Lions.

As special teams assistant last year, O'Dea helped tutor a Lions unit which ranked among the NFL leaders in punt return average (12.3 yards, fourth), kickoff return average (22.6 yards, eighth), and field goal percentage (22-of-23, .957, second).

Prior to joining the Detroit staff in 2002, O'Dea spent six seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as an offensive assistant (2001) and defensive assistant (1996–2000), handling all aspects of game preparation and producing scouting reports, opponent video breakdowns, and playbook and game plan assembly. He joined the Buccaneers after two seasons with the San Diego Chargers (1994–95) in a similar capacity.

A native of Williamsport, Pa., O'Dea spent a four-year term in the Coast Guard (1979–83) before enrolling at Lock Haven University where he played wide receiver and defensive back. When a back injury cut his playing career short, coached the wide receivers in 1986 while still a student and earned a degree in fitness management. He later obtained a master's degree in education from the University of Virginia.

O'Dea spent one season (1987) as freshmen defensive backs coach at Cornell, then in 1988 joined the staff at Virginia as a graduate assistant for two years (1988–89) and one season as assistant strength coach (1990). He served three years at Penn State (1991–93) as a graduate assistant working with the wide receivers (1991), defensive line (1992), and linebackers (1993) before entering the professional ranks with San Diego in 1994.

Born June 9, 1960, O'Dea and his wife, Mary Anne, reside in Chandler, Ariz. with their son, Sean Michael. ■

DEFENSIVE LINE

College: Western Illinois

Hometown: Roodhouse, Ill.

Cardinal Season: 1st

NFL Season: 7th

Donald "Deek" Pollard claims 39 years in coaching, including 12 at the professional level and 16 in the college arena. His NFL tenures include the St. Louis Rams (1995–96), Cleveland Browns (1988–89), and N.Y. Giants (1979–81).

Born in Roodhouse, Ill., Pollard served on the staffs as defensive backs coach at Western Illinois (1971–73) and Florida State (1974–75), then spent three seasons as defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State (1976–78) before his first professional assignment in 1979 with the N.Y. Giants as defensive backs coach. Following the 1982 season with the Denver Gold of the USFL, Pollard was defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the Chicago Blitz/Arizona Wranglers in the USFL from 1983–85 as the club advanced to the league championship game in 1984.

The NFL called again in 1988 when he served as a special assistant to head coach Bud Carson with the Cleveland Browns for two seasons, helping the club advance to postseason play with an appearance in the AFC championship game in 1989.

Pollard returned to the college ranks as defensive coordinator at Central Florida (1990–93) and defensive line coach at Boston College (1994) where the Eagles set a Big East Conference record with 56 quarterback sacks before his two-year stop with the Rams (1995–96). His most recent coaching assignment was from 1998–99 as defensive line coach at Syracuse University as the Orangemen won a Big East Conference title and appearance in the Orange Bowl.

In addition, Pollard owns a legendary high school coaching career with a 55–4–3 mark at Pittsfield High School from 1961–71 which included an Illinois state record 54 consecutive victories.

Born September 16, 1939, Pollard owns a master's degree in education and has logged 18 hours of work toward a doctorate degree.

His nickname "Deek" came from his father when he was an infant.

Pollard has two children and two grandchildren. ■

Richard Solomon

DEFENSIVE BACKS

College: Iowa
Hometown: New Orleans, La.
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 11th

A native of New Orleans, La., Cardinals' first-year defensive backs coach Richard Solomon owns 24 years in the coaching fraternity, including 10 on Dennis Green's staff with the Minnesota Vikings (1992–2001) and five seasons (1987–91) as a scout for the N.Y. Giants. He also assumed responsibilities as director of pro personnel for the Vikings in 2001. In his 14 years in the NFL, Solomon's clubs have made the playoffs 10 times, had 13 consecutive non-losing seasons (1988–2000), won six division titles, and collected one Super Bowl title while compiling an impressive 146–93 (.611) regular-season record.

During his decade with the Vikings, Solomon coached the outside linebackers (1992–93), defensive secondary (1994–2000) and inside linebackers (2001). Under his direction, safety Robert Griffith (1998) and cornerback Jimmy Hitchcock (1998) earned all-pro status, safety Orlando Thomas led the league with nine interceptions as a rookie (1995), cornerback Anthony Parker set an NFL record with three consecutive games with a defensive touchdown (1994), and cornerback Dewayne Washington was selected NFL defensive rookie of the year (1994). Griffith's 138 tackles in 1999 were the most by a Vikings defensive back since Joey Browner recorded 152 in 1986, and in 1998 Hitchcock set team single-season marks for interceptions returned for a touchdown (3), passes defended (30), and interception return yardage (242). While linebackers coach in 1993, the Vikings finished with the NFL's top-rated defense overall, led NFC defenses against the run (96.0 yards-per-game), and held opponents to the fewest first downs (259) in the league.

In five seasons as a scout with the N.Y. Giants, the club forged a 49–30 record (.620), won two NFC East crowns, and defeated Buffalo in Super Bowl XXV.

After three seasons (1969–71) as a defensive back and teammate of Green at Iowa, Solomon began his coaching career tutoring the defensive backs and serving as defensive coordinator at the University of Dubuque (1973). Solomon joined the staff at Southern Illinois for one season (1976) before working with the wide receivers at Iowa from 1977–78. In one season as receivers coach at Syracuse (1979), he helped hone the skills of future NFL star Art Monk, who as a senior caught 40 passes for a school-record 716 yards and earn all-America honors.

From 1980–86, Solomon was the defensive coordinator at the University of Illinois and helped turn around a program that hadn't posted consecutive winning seasons since the mid-1960s. During his stay in Champaign, the Illini strung together five consecutive winning seasons for the first time since the 1920s and appeared in the 1982 Liberty Bowl, 1984 Rose Bowl, and 1985 Peach Bowl.

In 1983, Illinois swept through Big 10 Conference play with a 9–0 record to become the school's only team to defeat all nine conference opponents in the same season.

A two-year starting defensive back and Green's college teammate at Iowa (1969–71), Solomon attended St. Augustine High School in New Orleans and owns a degree in physical education from Iowa. Born Oct. 8, 1949, he has three children—Alesia, Brandon, and Ryann. ■

Steve Wetzel

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

College: Slippery Rock
Hometown: Washington, D.C.
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 15th

Entering his 15th season in the National Football League, Steve Wetzel was among the first group of assistants Cardinal Head Coach Dennis Green named to his staff in Arizona.

Prior to his assignment with the Cardinals, Wetzel served as the Minnesota Vikings' strength and conditioning coach since 1992. He was a key member of Green's coaching staff that compiled a 101-70 (.591) composite record in 10 seasons as the Vikings earned eight postseason berths and two NFC championship games appearances.

In his 14 NFL seasons, Wetzel has been with teams that have gone 136-88 (.607) and made the playoffs 10 times, including 1991 when he was on the Washington Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI Championship staff. In his two seasons (1990-91) as assistant strength coach for the Redskins, the team posted a 28-9 (.757) record, including playoffs. Further evidence of Wetzel's expertise is that three of his assistants—Mike Wolf (Philadelphia), Mark Asanovich (Tampa Bay/Jacksonville), and Jeff Friday (Baltimore)—have become head strength and conditioning coaches with other NFL teams.

Before joining Washington, Wetzel spent four months as strength coach for George Mason University, the first strength coach ever hired at the University. He was the assistant strength coach at the University of Maryland from 1985-89. In his first season there, the Terrapins finished 9-2, won the Atlantic Coast Conference title and defeated Syracuse in the Cherry Bowl.

Wetzel earned his degree in physical education/sports management from Slippery Rock University, where he was a power lifter. He is a former record holder in the bench press in the American Drug Free Power Lifting Association. In 1998, Wetzel received the President's Award for contributions to his profession as selected by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Born May 11, 1963 in Washington, D.C., Wetzel attended Park View High School in Sterling, Va. He and his wife, Michelle, reside in Chandler, Ariz. with their daughter Samantha. ■

Kirby Wilson

RUNNING BACKS

College: Illinois

Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.

Cardinal Season: 1st

NFL Season: 7th

A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Wilson owns 16 years of coaching experience at the college and professional levels, including the past two seasons as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

After one season (2001) as wide receiver coach at Southern California, Wilson joined head coach Jon Gruden's staff in Tampa Bay in 2002 as the Buccaneer trio of running backs Michael Pittman and Aaron Stecker and Pro Bowl fullback Mike Alstott collectively gained over 1,400 rushing yards and helped the Buccaneers to the NFC title and Super Bowl XXXVII victory over Oakland. Last year's backfield duo of Pittman (751 yards rushing/597 receiving) and Thomas Jones (627 yards rushing/180 receiving) accounted for nearly 40 percent (2,155) of the Bucs' 5,453 total net yards. Jones, a former Arizona first-round draft selection (2000), achieved career-best rushing marks in yards (627) and yards-per-attempt (4.6) while Pittman's 75 pass receptions led all NFC running backs was a single-season career-high.

Prior to his stay with the Buccaneers, Wilson spent four years as running backs coach with the New England Patriots (1997-99) and Washington Redskins (2000), tutoring a trio of Pro Bowl performers in Patriot running backs Curtis Martin (1997) and Robert Edwards (1998), and later Redskin running back Stephen Davis (2000). In addition, Wilson honed the skills of Washington fullback Larry Centers, who led his team with 80 pass receptions in 2000. Centers (827 pass receptions) and Keith Byars (610 receptions), whom Wilson coached in New England in 1997, rank one and three in career receptions by a running back in NFL history (Marshall Faulk, no. 2 at 673).

Wilson entered the coaching arena on the staff at Pasadena (Calif.) City College (1985) as wide receivers coach, and after obtaining a degree in psychology from Eastern Illinois in 1989, returned to the coaching arena at Los Angeles Southwest Community College (1989-90) as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach. Following two seasons at Southern Illinois as linebackers coach (1991) and secondary coach/passing game coordinator (1992), he joined he staff at the University of Wyoming (1993–94) as secondary coach and the Cowboys won the 1993 Western Athletic Conference title and earned an appearance in the Copper Bowl. Wilson then coached running backs at Iowa State for two years (1995–96). Under his guidance, Troy Davis earned all-America honors and led the nation with over 2,000 yards rushing in both '95 and '96—the only player in NCAA history to reach the 2,000-yard rushing mark in consecutive seasons.

A running back and wide receiver at Pasadena Community College (1979–80) and the University of Illinois (1980–81), Wilson played two seasons in the Canadian Football League as a defensive back and kick returner for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1983) and Toronto Argonauts (1984).

Born August 24, 1961, Wilson was on the football and track teams at Dorsey High School in his native Los Angeles. He resides in Scottsdale, Ariz. with his wife Danielle and four children—sons Kris, Michael, and Tyler, and daughter Malia. ■

TIGHT ENDS

College: Washington State
Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 3rd

With the appointment of 10-year coaching veteran Mike Wilson tight ends coach, Cardinal Head Coach Dennis Green reunites with one of his wide receiver pupils from nearly 20 years ago.

During his 10 seasons (1981–90) with the San Francisco 49ers, where Green was his position coach from 1986–88, Wilson was a member of four Super Bowl championship teams (following the 1981, '84, '88, and '89 seasons) and caught 182 passes for 2,470 yards and 17 touchdowns.

A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Wilson was an all-city football and basketball standout at Carson (Calif.) High School where he led his team to the Los Angeles City title as a senior in basketball. Following his college football career at Washington State, he was selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the ninth round of the 1981 NFL Draft. Upon his release by the Cowboys during the preseason, he joined the 49ers where he was mentored by several accomplished coaches—Green, Bill Walsh, George Seifert, Sam Wyche, and Mike Holmgren. During his stay with San Francisco, the 49ers won four World Championships, appeared in six NFC title games, and won eight NFC West crowns. He is one of only three wide receivers in NFL history to own four Super Bowl rings (Lynn Swann and John Stallworth, Pittsburgh Steelers).

Wilson broke into coaching at Stanford from 1992–94 in charge of the wide receiver and tight ends on the staffs of Walsh and Tyrone Willingham, then spent two seasons (1995–96) as wide receivers coach with the Oakland Raiders. From 1997–2000 he served as wide receivers coach at Southern California, and last year spent training camp with the Washington Redskins as part of the NFL's minority internship program. While in private business the past three years, he served as an assistant for the annual East-West College All-Star game.

Wilson owns a degree in communications from Washington State, was the 49ers recipient of the NFL Ed Block Courage Award, and has generously donated his his time in several civic endeavors—Champs Foundation, Family House, Westside Los Angeles Blazers Youth Organization, and the Kidney Foundation.

Born Dec. 19, 1958, Wilson and his wife, Tona, reside in Chandler, Ariz. with their two daughters—Samantha and Emma. ■

Bob Wylie

OFFENSIVE LINE

College: Colorado
Hometown: West Warwick, R.I.
Cardinal Season: 1st
NFL Season: 14th

Entering his 14th season in the National Football League after tenures with the N.Y. Jets (1990–91), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1992–94), Cincinnati Bengals (1997–98), and most recently the Chicago Bears (1999–2003), Bob Wylie's resume contains 31 years of coaching experience. He also owns a unique distinction of coaching on five levels of football—Pop Warner, junior high school, high school, college, and in the professional arena.

Wylie's 2001 Bear offensive line led the league in fewest quarterback sacks allowed, surrendering a league-low 17—more than 21 below the NFL average (38.6) and 17 fewer than the team allowed in 2000 (34). His offensive line paved the way for running back Anthony Thomas to be named NFL Offensive Rookie-of-the-Year—the first Chicago running back to achieve the honor since Gale Sayers in 1965. Thomas' 1,000-yard rushing season marked the seventh time Wylie's offensive line has produced a 1,000-yard rusher.

Wylie began his coaching career in 1980 as offensive line coach at Brown (1980–82), served in the same capacity at Holy Cross for two years (1983–84), then was named offensive coordinator at Ohio University from 1985–87.

After two seasons on the staff at Colorado State (1988–89), Wylie headed to the NFL as tight ends coach for the N.Y. Jets (1990–91) and spent four seasons as offensive line coach at Tampa Bay (1992–95). In 1996, he returned to the college ranks as offensive line coach at the University of Cincinnati where they led Conference USA in rushing (181.4 yards-per-game) as four Bearcat linemen earned post-season honors.

Wylie returned to the professional ranks in 1997 for a two-year stint as tight ends coach with the Cincinnati Bengals as running back Corey Dillon rushed for over 1,000 yards each season.

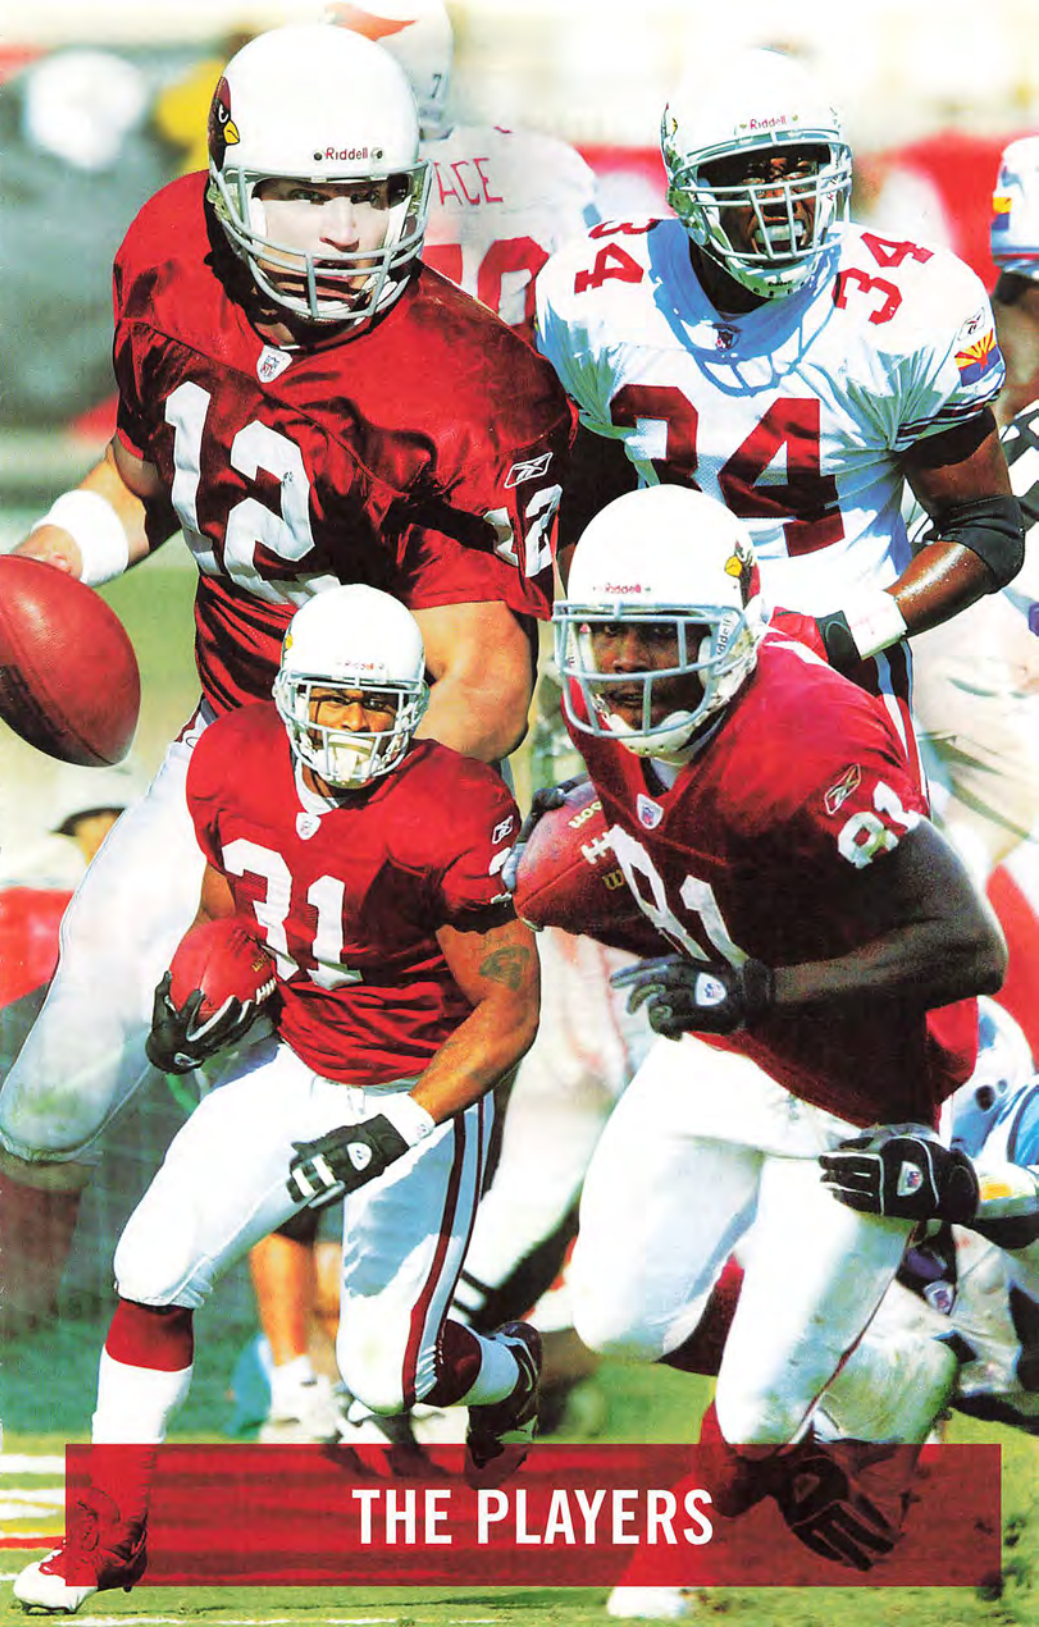

In 1999 he joined Dick Jauron's staff with the Chicago Bears.

A native of West Warwick, Rhode Island, Wylie was a teacher and administrator in his hometown's school system from 1973–80 prior to entering the coaching arena. He played position linebacker at Colorado for three years then transferred to Roger Williams (R.I.) College in 1971 where he earned a degree in American studies, and later added a master's degree in economics from the University of Rhode Island.

Wylie has one child, daughter Jennifer. ■

Pro Career:

Exceeded all expectations with one of the most remarkable rookie seasons in NFL history ... a second-round draft pick from Florida State (54th overall, third wide receiver chosen), he became the most prolific rookie receiver in league annals with 101 receptions, surpassing New England Patriot Terry Glenn's 98-catch mark in 1996, equaling the Cards' overall single-season receptions record of running back Larry Centers (1995), and bettering Arizona's single-season receptions standard by a wide receiver (98, David Boston, 2001) ... his 1,357 receiving yards fell just short of Houston

Oiler Bill Groman's 1960 NFL rookie mark of 1,473 yards ... became only the 13th rookie in NFL history to record 1,000 receiving yards ... logged five 100-yard efforts, two near-misses of 95 and 99 yards, and caught at least three passes in all 16 games ... five 100-yard receiving games most by Cardinal since 1998 (Frank Sanders, 5) ... authored the Cards' three longest plays from scrimmage, all touchdowns (71, 60, and 54 yards), and eight of the top 10.

■ 2003: Burst upon the NFL scene with a stunning season opener at Detroit (Sept. 7), a 10-reception, 217-yard performance, the latter the

BOLDIN'S GOLDEN ROOKIE CAMPAIGN

In 2003, Anquan Boldin turned in one of the finest seasons ever by a rookie receiver. He started it at Detroit on opening day (9/7/03) when he racked up 217 receiving yards, the most ever by an NFL player in his first game. By year's end, he owned the league's single-season mark for the most reception ever by a rookie (101) and his 1,377 receiving yards ranked second all-time among rookies and the most in 43 seasons. He was also the only rookie selected to the Pro Bowl.

WIDE RECEIVER

6-2 • 200 • Third Year
Fifth Round (149th), 2002

College: Alabama

DOB: July 28, 1979

Hometown: Oak Ridge, Tennessee

Pro Career:

Arizona's fifth-round selection (149th overall, 18th wide receiver chosen) in 2002 NFL Draft made rapid progress as a rookie ... started eight of nine games in 2002, appeared in two contests last year before hamstring injury ... in 11 overall games (two starts), owns 29 pass receptions for 415 yards (14.3-yard average) with one touchdown and two kickoff returns for 45 yards.

■ 2003: Played in two games but severe hamstring injury relegated him to inactive status for eight games before finishing season on injured reserve list ... inactive for season-opener at Detroit (Sept. 7) ... with three receivers (Larry Foster, Bryan Gilmore, Kevin Kasper) inactive due to injury vs. Seattle (Sept. 14), saw first playing time of season and caught three passes for 28 yards ... one reception for 25 yards vs. Green Bay (Sept. 21) converted third-and-nine in first quarter but left game with hamstring pull and did not return ... inactive next eight games, placed on injured reserve list Nov. 26.

■ 2002: Benefactor of Cards' rash of injuries to wide receivers (David Boston, MarTay Jenkins, Bryan Gilmore) within a two-week mid-season span ... spent first seven weeks of rookie season on "inactive" list, the final eight as a starter ... overall in nine games, caught 25 passes for 362 yards (14.5-yard average) with one touchdown and returned two kickoffs for 45 yards ... first NFL game action vs. St. Louis (Nov. 3) after Jenkins left game in first quarter with fractured scapula ... two receptions for 30 yards and a pair of kickoff returns for 20 and 25 yards ... first reception was five-yarder from quarterback Jake Plummer in third quarter, the second a leaping 25-yard grab to convert a third-and-20 down on final play of third period ... the following week, made first NFL start vs. Seattle (Nov. 10) and splashed with five receptions for 113 yards ... 113 yards marked the first 100-yard receiving game by a Cardinal rookie since David Boston collected 101 yards on eight receptions vs. N.Y. Giants Oct. 10, 1999 ... opened game in grand style when Plummer handed the ball to running back Thomas Jones, who lateralled back to Plummer, who threw to McAddley deep down the middle for a 42-yard gain to the Seattle 29-yard line to set up a 40-yard field goal ... also caught 14-yarder on first play of following Cardinal possession late in first quarter and added 23-yard grab to convert a third-and-six play in second period ... made another third-down conversion on third-and-five play in third quarter with 20-yard reception, then finished with 14-yard catch in final period ... provided encore the next week at Philadelphia (Nov. 17) with his first NFL touchdown reception, a diving, outstretched, fingertip grab in the end zone for a 12-yard touchdown in spite of an illegal contact call on the Eagle defender ... left game prematurely, however, when he suffered a bruised bicep muscle on the final play of the first half, playing only sparingly in the second half ... two receptions for 20 yards vs. Oakland (Nov. 24) ... two catches for 32 yards at Kansas City (Dec. 1), one a 26-yarder from rookie relief passer Josh McCown ... matched season-best five receptions (48 yards) in 23–20 overtime win over Detroit (Dec. 8), including a 19-yarder in the third-quarter scoring drive, and induced two pass interference calls, one in overtime drive, that eventually produced the winning points ... three catches for 57 yards at St. Louis (Dec. 15) included 22-yarder in third quarter to open a six-play, 55-yard scoring drive that cut the Rams' lead to 24–21 ... concluded outstanding rookie season with three receptions for 38 yards at Denver (Dec. 29), highlighted by a 19-yarder on third-and-eight down in second-quarter scoring drive.

College/Personal:

Three-year starter at Alabama also excelled on the Crimson Tide track team ... in 45 games, caught 71 passes for 1,020 yards (14.4-yard average) and eight touchdowns ... caught 41 passes for 867 yards and 12 touchdowns to lead Oak Ridge (Tenn.) High School to a 13–2 record as a senior ... member of the two-time Tennessee state championship 4x100-meter relay team ... placed third in the 300-meter hurdles and sixth in the decathlon at the state finals as a junior ... lettered as a junior and senior on the Tide's track team, performing in the relays and hurdles ... during the 2001 track season, performed in the 110-meter hurdles (14.13 seconds), 4x100-meter relay team (40.75), and 4x110-meter shuttle-relay squad (56.42) ... in 2000, a member of the 4x100-meter relay team that clocked a time of 39.93 seconds ... also competed in the 4x110-meter shuttle relays (56.96) and the 100-meter hurdles (14.57) ... sports and fitness management major at 'Bama ... caught the eye of Cardinal coaching staff that coached his South squad in the 2002 Senior Bowl in Mobile, Alabama ... born July 28, 1979 ... resides in Oak Ridge, Tenn. ■

■ 2003: Flashed promise and leadership with three late-season starting assignments ... logged 1-2 mark as starter to end season ... in those three starting roles, compiled 82.7 passer rating with 59 completions in 98 attempts—60.2 percent efficiency... averaged 6.84 yards-per attempt with 670 yards ... three touchdowns and two interceptions ... combined with wide receiver Nate Poole to author one of the NFL's most memorable plays of 2003 ... their 28-yard touchdown connection as time expired knocked Minnesota out of the playoffs in the season finale ... overall in eight appearances, completed 95 of 166 passes (57.2 percent) for 1,018 yards with five touchdowns and six interceptions ... also logged 158 rushing yards on 28 carries with one score ... first action of season occurred vs. Seattle (Sept. 14) with under two minutes left in first quarter when Blake suffered heel bruise ... first pass was a 14-yarder to Anquan Boldin to convert a third-and-10 situation, then found Bryant Johnson for nine-yard gain ... finished first half with eight completions in 12 attempts for 58 yards ... overall connected on 18 of 32 attempts for 150 yards, threw one interception near the goal line in the third quarter, and was intercepted again with 13 seconds left in game ... also ran six times for 33 yards, primarily in the fourth quarter ... next activity was at St. Louis (Sept. 28) as he entered game for final two series late in fourth quarter and completed three of four passes for 47 yards, including a 31-yarder to Boldin into Rams territory with two minutes left ... did not play in next five games ... came off bench in fourth quarter for three series at Cleveland (Nov. 16) to complete four of 11 passes for 31 yards with two interceptions ... relieved Blake for two plays in fourth quarter vs. St. Louis (Nov. 23)—a handoff to Marcel Shipp and third-down incomplete pass ... played entire second half at San Francisco (Dec. 7) and showed promise with 11-20-120 effort, including touchdown passes of three yards to James Hodgins and 16 yards on Boldin ... named to his first NFL start on Monday, Dec. 8 and responded with steady effort vs. Carolina ... connected

BROTHERS IN ARMS

In the fourth round of the 2004 NFL Draft, the Cleveland Browns selected Josh McCown's younger brother, Luke, who was a standout quarterback at Louisiana Tech. The '04 draft began when Mississippi quarterback Eli Manning joined brother Peyton (Colts, 1998) as the only two siblings ever taken #1 overall in the NFL Draft. Eli was selected by the Chargers and subsequently dealt to the Giants.

Including the McCowns and the Mannings, there are now a record five sets of brothers playing quarterback in the NFL, eclipsing the previous benchmark of three established in 2002.

The other three brother pairings at the quarterback position at the start of the 2004 season are: Koy (Eagles) and Ty (Atlanta) Detmer; Tim (Redskins) and Matt (Seahawks) Hasselbeck; Brock (Colts) and Damon (Chiefs) Huard.

What may be more remarkable is that aside from the five current sets of quarterback brothers, in the history of the NFL there have been just two other brother tandems at the quarterback position: Craig (Oilers, 1980) and Terry Bradshaw (Steelers, 1970-1983) and Ed (Decatur Staleys/Chicago Bears, 1920-27) and Joey Sternamen (Bears, 1922-25, 1927-30, also played with Duluth Eskimos, 1923).

Following is the current list of the NFL's signal-calling brothers:

FAMILY	PLAYER	TEAM	PLAYER	TEAM	COMMON YEARS
					IN NFL
The Detmers	KOY	Philadelphia Eagles	TY	Atlanta Falcons	1997-2004
The Hasselbecks	TIM	Washington Redskins	MATT	Seattle Seahawks	2002-2004
The Huards	BROCK	Seattle Seahawks	DAMON	Kansas City Chiefs	1999-2002, 2004
The Mannings	ELI	New York Giants	PEYTON	Indianapolis Colts	2004
The McCowns	JOSH	Arizona Cardinals	LUKE	Cleveland Browns	2004

The Detmer brothers also accomplished a unique feat back in 1997 when they both played quarterback for the same team - the Philadelphia Eagles - during Koy's rookie season. Two seasons later both Koy and Ty became the first set of brothers to ever throw touchdown passes on the same day (December 19, 1999). The Hasselbeck brothers accomplished the same feat last season on November 23, 2003.

The Huards were the first pair of brothers to ever start at quarterback in the NFL on the same weekend back in 2000, when Damon filled in for an injured Jay Fiedler in Miami and Brock started in place of an ailing Jon Kitna. The Hasselbecks also duplicated that feat last November.

on 14 of 25 passes for 172 yards ... dented the scoreboard in first quarter with 15-yard run to convert third and 12 to the Panther 16-yard line, then followed with 16-yard touchdown run on next play to cap 10-play, 80-yard drive ... later guided 10-play, 59-yard scoring drive in second quarter for 14-7 lead at halftime ... showed composure throughout game against pressure-cooker Panther defense after as he totalled 47 rushing yards on seven attempts ... second NFL start showed continued improvement with 25-40-274 showing for impressive 91.0 passer rating at Seattle (Dec. 21) ... led team in rushing yardage with 38 on eight attempts ... connected on seven of 12 first-half throws for 87 yards with five sacks, then opened up in second half facing 21-3 deficit to complete 18 of 28 attempts for 187 yards and a 61-yard scoring connection to Boldin in fourth quarter ... connected on 20 of 33 passes for 224 yards, two touchdowns vs. Minnesota (Dec. 28) in 18-17 victory ... finished first half 8-15-95 with two drives to field goals ... after just one completion for three yards in third quarter, fourth quarter fireworks opened with interception that Minnesota converted to a field goal and 17-6 lead with 6:48 to play ... ensuing possession was 14-play, 60-yard scoring drive as he connected on eight of 10 attempts for 80 yards, including fourth-down toss to Boldin for six yards and a first down, a 15-yarder to Johnson ... added a third-and-13 connection with Poole for 37 yards to the Viking 11-yard line, then a two-yard touchdown toss to tight end Steve Bush just after the two-minute warning to climb within 17-12 ... after a failed two-point conversion, Cards recovered onside kick and good fortune continued with 30-yard pass interference call on attempt to Johnson to place ball at the Viking 31-yard line with 1:46 to play ... found Smith for five yards, Poole for 13, and after sacks on successive plays—the second of which was third-and-14 as he lost the ball but recovery made by Card rookie tackle Reggie Wells—clocked showed 0:04 and fourth and 25 at the Minnesota 28-yard line ... took shotgun yard average ... rebounded with 45-yard average on five efforts in 23-19 win over Detroit (Nov. 14) ... impressive day vs. Dallas (Nov. 21) with 42.2-yard average on five punts, including first-half boots of 51, 48, and 49 yards ... Sanders fielded just one punt and ran out of bounds after five yards ... took intentional safety near end of the 13-9 win as he ran 14 seconds off the clock late in fourth quarter, then knocked Sanders out of bounds after the ensuing free kick ... punts of 39, season-long 60, 52, and 53 yards translated into season-best 51-yard average in 21-17 win over Philadelphia (Dec. 5).

■ 1998: As a 28-year-old NFL "rookie," punted 81 times for 3,378 yards which translated into NFC rankings of 11th in gross average (41.7 yards) and 10th in net average (35.9 yards) ... ranked third in NFC with just six touchbacks in 81 punts for 7.4 percent mark ... also dropped 12 punts inside the 20-yard line ... one blocked punt ... hit the ground running in first NFL game at Dallas (Sept. 6) with six punts for 44.2-yard average in first half, eight for 46-yard mark for the day ... suffered calf muscle pull on scout team in practice Wednesday prior to game vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 20) ... after considerable treatment throughout week, kicked by Friday and managed seven punts for 36.4-yard average vs. Eagles ... best effort since season-opener with 44-yard average on six punts vs. Oakland (Oct. 4), including three inside-the-20 efforts ... punted for 41 and 55 yards in first half vs. Chicago (Oct. 11) ... fourth-quarter punt blocked by Ricky Bell, only to have teammate Ronald McKinnon snatch the ball out of the air and run for a first down ... closed game with season-long 67-yarder to the Bear three-yard line with 1:15 left in 20-7 win ... rose to the challenge of Cowboy returner Sanders vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) with directional boots of 48 and 46 yards ... the former pinned Sanders on the sideline for a one-yard return, the latter was downed ... outstanding 47-yard gross and 46.5-yard net average for the day ... punted three times for 39.7-yard average in first half at Washington (Nov. 22), including a 47-yarder in first quarter that Redskin Mitchell muffed and Cards recovered and converted into 3-0 lead ... impressive game at Kansas City (Nov. 29) with 46.8-yard average on five punts, including first-half boots of 52, 51, and 51 yards ... after kicker Joe Nedney was injured on fourth-quarter kickoff that had to be re-kicked due to offsides penalty, handled the place-kicking duty, a squib kick the Chiefs covered on their own 33-yard line ... re-kicked first attempt, however, when he booted the ball before the referee gave him the signal to put it in play ... flawless effort in 20-7 wild-card victory at Dallas (Jan. 2) with eight punts for 37.9-yard average and three inside-the-20 efforts at the 11, 10, and 1-yard lines ... forced Sanders into two fair catches, Tyrone Hughes into one, and allowed Hughes one 11-yard return until Sanders shook loose for a 41-yard return in the fourth quarter to set up Dallas' only touchdown of the game ... capped the victory with 36-yard punt with one minute left that Fred Brock downed at the one-yard line ... two punts for 36-yard average in divisional playoff loss at Minnesota (Jan. 10).

College/Personal:

Former walk-on at Florida State University (F.S.U.) ... originally played collegiate baseball (catcher) in Florida at Flagler College and Florida Community College ... rotator cuff injury stalled baseball career ... despite F.S.U. having two punters on scholarship, earned punting duties as a senior ... punted 45 times for 1,820 yards, good for a 40.4-yard average for the 11-2 Seminoles ... in 1991 season-ending 14-9 loss to Florida, posted 50-yard average on six punts, highlighted by two 60-yarders and a 57-yarder ... played football and baseball at St. Augustine (Fla.) High School ... interests include classic cars and golf ... owns bachelor's degree in education from F.S.U. ... wife Julianne, daughters Ava Anne and Margeau Scott ... born Dec. 17, 1969 in St. Augustine. ■

WIDE RECEIVER

Free Agent, 2002

College: Marshall

DOB: February 1, 1977

Hometown: Danville, Virginia

Pro Career:

Free agent has ridden the same roller coaster the past three years, beginning each season at training camp with the Cardinals, waived prior to the season, then re-signed later in the year ... in 20 pro games (two starts) has caught 26 passes for 285 yards and two touchdowns ... achieved celebrity status last year when his 28-yard touchdown grab as time expired in the season finale knocked Minnesota out of the playoffs and allowed Green Bay to reach the postseason ... subsequently attended Packers' playoff game as guest of Green Bay mayor.

■ 2003: Re-signed Sept. 12 after injuries decimated Cards' receiving corps ... originally waived in final roster reduction Aug. 31 ... in 15 games (one start), caught 13 passes for 177 yards and one touchdown ... added four tackles on special teams ... first reception of season was seven-yarder to convert third-and-four situation in first quarter at Dallas (Oct. 5) ... started vs. Baltimore (Oct. 12) as Cards opened in three-wide receiver alignment and caught two passes for 22 yards ... both catches were in fourth quarter, including a 16-yarder on final scoring drive ... two receptions vs. Carolina (Dec. 14) included 10-yarder to convert third-and-four in second quarter scoring drive and 12-yarder in fourth quarter ... and at Seattle (Dec. 21) ... two catches for 21 yards at Seattle (Dec. 21) featured 11-yarder to convert third down late in first half ... walked off the field as hero vs. Minnesota (Dec. 28) with 28-yard touchdown grab from Josh McCown on final play of game in 18-17 comeback win ... converted third and four with five-yard grab in first quarter scoring drive to a field goal, then saved the best for last with four catches for 81 yards in the fourth quarter ... on receiving end of 37-yard gain to the Viking 11-yard line on third and 16 as McCown found Steve Bush for two-yard touchdown toss four plays later to bring Cards within 17-12 ... snared 13-yarder on second down to the Minnesota 13-yard line, then three plays later, on fourth and 25 from the 28, glided to back of end zone, made eye contact with McCown as he was flushed out of the pocket, and made acrobatic catch for the game-winning score along the sideline.

■ 2002: After being released Aug. 26 at the end training camp, summoned from his post-football job at a children's home in North Carolina to bolster Cards' injury-depleted receiving corps ... played in final five games (one start), catching 13 passes for 108 yards (8.3-yard average) with one touchdown in addition to special-teams duty ... signed to practice squad Oct. 29 ... activated

Nov. 6 ... first NFL action at Kansas City (Dec. 1) off the bench following early-game injury to starter Frank Sanders (foot) ... caught three passes for 35 yards ... first pro reception a 15-yard grab from quarterback Jake Plummer that converted a third-and-12 down in second quarter ... later in drive converted a third-and-eight play with nine-yard catch ... led Cards with six receptions for 41 yards and a score in starting role of 23-20 overtime win vs. Detroit (Dec. 8) ... first pro touchdown was a 10-yard hitch route near the end of the first half that he completed with a vault for the final two yards into the end zone ... concluded season with two catches at St. Louis (Dec. 15) and vs. San Francisco (Dec. 21).

■ 2001: Signed as undrafted rookie free agent and spent training camp with Cards ... waived during Sept. 1 ... re-signed to practice squad on Dec. 3 for duration of season.

College/Personal:

Moved into the starting lineup midway through sophomore year at Marshall ... caught passes in 38 consecutive games ... ranked third in Mid-American Conference history with 215 receptions and fifth with 2,840 receiving yards ... two-time first-team all-Mid-American Conference selection ... as a senior, caught 73 passes for 883 yards (12.9-yard average) and four touchdowns ... 71 catches for 1,122 yards (15.8-yard average) and nine touchdowns as a junior ... competed on the Thundering Herd's track team in the spring of 1999 ... won the triple jump at the Kent Indoor Open with a leap of 45'-7"

... also competed in the 4x100-meter relays ... averaged two points per game for Marshall's 1997-98 basketball team ... three-year letter winner in football and basketball at George Washington (Danville, Va.) High School ... sports management major at Marshall ... born Feb. 1, 1977. ■

KICKER

6-1 • 206 • Fifth Year
 Free Agent, 2003
 College: Illinois
 DOB: August 16, 1976

Pro Career:

Signed as free agent on Nov. 11, 2003, replacing Tim Duncan, who in turn handled kicking duties for five games while incumbent Bill Gramatica nursed a back injury ... joined Arizona following three seasons (2000-02) with Cincinnati Bengals, converting 44 of 67 field goals and 74 of 77 PATs for 206 points in 48 games ... originally selected by Bengals in sixth round (169th overall, second kicker chosen) of 2000 NFL Draft ... 12-for-21 as rookie, 17-for-28 in 2001, 15-of-18 last year ... released by Bengals Sept. 1 on final roster cutdown prior to start of 2003 season.

■ 2003 (Cardinals): Joined Cardinals in mid-season and handled kicking duties for final seven contests ... made nine-of-12 field goal tries, perfect on eight PATs, for 35 points ... five touchbacks on 27 kickoffs good for 18.5 percent success, second in league to Miami's Olindo Mare (24-of-72, 33.3 percent) ... first action in Cardinal uniform at Cleveland (Nov. 16) and connected on 42-yard field goal in second quarter, 26-yarder in third period for Cards only points ... remained perfect as a Cardinal with field goals of 22 and 27 yards and three PAT conversions in addition to his first touchback on kickoff vs. St. Louis (Nov. 23) ... saw 35-yard try in fourth quarter sail wide right in bid to tie game vs. Carolina (Dec. 14) at 17-17, then atoned with 44-yarder for the tie with 1:09 left in regulation ... ensuing kickoff sailed three yards deep into end zone for touchback ... got Cards on the board with 49-yarder early in second quarter at Seattle (Dec. 21) ... followed with a touchback on the ensuing kickoff ... in season finale vs. Minnesota (Dec. 28) converted first half field goals from 22 and 26 yards ... after Cards pulled within 17-12 with two minutes left in game, successful onside kick recovered by Damien Anderson as ensuing possession resulted in game-winning touchdown and 18-17 victory.

■ 2002 (Bengals): Career-best 75 points on 15 field goals (18 attempts, 83.3 percent) and 30 PATs (32 attempts) ... made 12 of his final 13 field goals, only a missed 52-yarder prevented him from tying a Cincinnati record of 13 consecutive field goal successes ... perfect 13-for-13 from inside 45 yards ... converted attempts from 21 and 54 yards in season-opener vs. San Diego (Sept. 8), the latter a career-best ... made three field goals from 51, 18, and 25 yards vs. Jacksonville (Dec. 15).

■ 2001 (Bengals): Connected on 17 of 28 field goal tries and 23 of 24 PATs for 74 points ... made eight of last 10 field goals, including game-winners in final two contests ... eight touchbacks in 58 kickoffs gave Bengals league's fourth-best touchback percentage—13.8—and reached the end zone 17 times ... Bengals also recovered both onside

Pro Career:

Selected by Arizona in sixth round (190th overall, 21st cornerback chosen) of the 1999 NFL Draft ... played in all 16 games in '99, spent the entire 2000 season on injured reserve following reconstructive knee surgery from a preseason injury, appeared in 13 games in 2001, 16 outings (two starts) in each of the last two years ... in 61 NFL games, owns 48 tackles (38 solos), 2 interceptions, and 57 special-teams tackles.

■ 2003: Appeared in 16 games with two starting roles for second consecutive season ... posted 16 solo tackles, 4 assists, 1 interception, 2 tackles for loss, 2 pass deflections, and 1 hurry ... on special teams ranked fourth with 11 tackles, second with 72 "blocks" ... posted one solo tackle and deflected two passes in season opener at Detroit (Sept. 7) ... one tackle from scrimmage, one tackle on special teams, in 20-13 win over Green Bay (Sept. 21) ... one tackle from scrimmage, two tackles on kick coverage units, and downed a 61-yard punt at the one-yard line in third quarter at St. Louis (Sept. 28) ... first interception of season gave Cards the ball at the Ram 38-yard line with just over five minutes left vs. St. Louis (Nov. 23) ... first start of season at Chicago (Nov. 30) and collected two solo tackles, two assists, and one stop for loss at cornerback in place of Renaldo Hill (ankle) ... again a starter the following week at San Francisco (Dec. 7) and produced four solo tackles, one assist, a hurry, and added a tackle on special teams.

■ 2002: Played in all 16 games (two starts) ... led Arizona's special teams with 18 tackles and 65 "blocks" ... 18 tackles (16 solos), 1 tackle for loss, 3 pass deflections, and 1 interception from scrimmage ... one punt return for 18 yards ... clutch first career interception at Carolina (Oct. 6) on Rodney Peete pass with just under six minutes left as Cards converted the turnover into a touchdown to pull even at 13-13 in 16-13 overtime win ... two tackles from scrimmage vs. Dallas (Oct. 20) plus two tackles on kick coverage and five blocks on kick-return units in 9-6 win ... came off bench to relieve injured starter Renaldo Hill (foot) in first quarter at San Francisco (Oct. 27), recording one tackle for loss in 40 plays ... also scooped a loose punt for an 18-yard return ... downed a punt at the three-yard line at Philadelphia (Nov. 17) ... started vs. Oakland (Nov. 24) as extra defensive back, posting one solo tackle from scrimmage ... one solo tackle and a pass deflection vs. Detroit (Dec. 8) two solo tackles and two assists on special teams in 23-20 overtime win ... started for Hill (hamstring) at Denver (Dec. 29) and led secondary with six solo tackles and a pass deflection.

■ 2001: Played in 13 games, primarily on special teams ... inactive for three outings ... admirable return from reconstructive knee surgery that sidelined him for all of 2000, showing little or no effects ... 4 solo tackles, 4 assists from scrimmage, and 11 tackles with 50 "blocks" on special teams ... outstanding game on special teams at Chicago (Oct. 13) with 2 tackles, 1 forced fumble, and 3 blocks ... nailed Chicago returner Glyn Milburn on opening kickoff of second half with fierce hit, popping the ball loose ... Cards recovered at the Chicago 30-yard line ... contributed to 17-10 win over Dallas (Dec. 23) with 3 tackles from scrimmage, 1 tackle, and 6 blocks on special teams ... added two tackles from scrimmage, one solo stop on kick-coverage units in 30-7 win at Carolina.

■ 2000: Suffered severe knee injury in preseason outing at Minnesota (Aug. 18) ... stepped awkwardly in pass coverage, appearing to catch right foot on seam of second-base insert on artificial surface in Metrodome ... sustained torn anterior cruciate and lateral collateral ligaments in right knee ... underwent reconstructive surgery Aug. 29 ... the surface also claimed two teammates to season-ending injuries the same night—cornerback J.J. McCleskey (fractured right ankle) and wide receiver Rob Moore (torn anterior cruciate ligament in left knee) ... placed on injured reserve Aug. 22.

■ 1999: Concluded rookie season as team leader with 77 "blocks" on special teams, adding 17 tackles on kick coverage ... appeared in all 16 games ... three solo tackles in kick coverage in season opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) ... fine special-teams outing in 14-3 win vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) with four solo tackles and forcing fumble by Giant returner Amani Toomer in the fourth quarter that rolled out of bounds, leaving Giants in possession ... five blocks on special teams and assisted on muffed punt recovery by teammate Mario Bates vs. Washington (Oct. 17) when he drove Redskin Darryl Pounds backwards and the ball bounced off the back of his leg ... added three solo tackles on special teams in 34-24 victory at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28) ... registered on the defensive scrimmage ledger vs. Buffalo (Dec. 19) with a solo tackle and hurry ... one solo tackle from scrimmage with extended playing time in second half at Atlanta (Dec. 26).

College/Personal:

Mainstay in the Southern Methodist secondary ... expanded role as senior in 1998 by also performing as a wide receiver in addition to handling return chores ... all-Western Athletic Conference (W.A.C.) first-team selection in '98

Pro Career:

Selected by Cardinals in sixth round (185th overall, 13th running back chosen) of 2002 NFL Draft ... spent first pro season on injured reserve list (thumb) ... returned in 2003 with impressive kickoff return talents ... posted second-highest single-season totals in franchise history with 73 returns for 1,684 yards, second only to 82 returns for 2,186 yards by MarTay Jenkins in 2000—both NFL single-season bests.

■ 2003: Took advantage of unexpected opportunity with record-setting kickoff return season ... set franchise single-game kickoff return yardage mark with 252 yards (seven returns) at St. Louis (Sept. 28), including a 100-yard return for touchdown—the club's longest since 1979 ... overall averaged 23.1 yards on 73 returns for 1,684 yards ... both the returns and yardage total were NFL-highs ... also saw limited action from scrimmage with one pass reception for nine yards ... inactive for season-opener at Detroit (Sept. 7) ... saw first NFL action the following week vs. Seattle in place of injured Kevin Kasper (back) and returned five kickoffs for impressive 30.4-yard average, including 52-yarder in third quarter ... authored Cards' longest kickoff return since 1979 with 100-yarder for a touchdown midway through third quarter at St. Louis (Sept. 28) to cut Rams' lead to 23-13 as he sped down the right sideline ... equalled Carolina's Rod Smart for the NFL's longest kickoff return of the season, and became the ninth Cardinal to post a kickoff return of 100 yards or more but the first in 24 years ... his 252 yards on seven returns bettered the prior team mark of 207 yards by Kevin Williams in 1997 ... second consecutive impressive effort with 30.5-yard average on four returns at Dallas (Oct. 5), including a 63-yarder to the Dallas 31-yard line to set up Cards' only touchdown three plays later ... three kickoff returns for 24.7-yard average in 16-13 overtime win vs. San Francisco (Oct. 26) ... added one solo tackle on kick coverage ... Cardinal single-game record with nine kickoff returns at Cleveland (Nov. 16), the NFL high for 2003 ... posted 27-yard average on four returns vs. St. Louis (Nov. 23) ... returned opening kickoff 3 yards vs. Carolina (Dec. 14) ... managed four kickoff returns for 21.5-yard average in 18-17 season finale win vs. Minnesota (Dec. 28)... only stat from scrimmage was nine-yard pass reception at Chicago (Nov. 30).

■ 2002: Suffered broken thumb during pre-season ... spent entire campaign on injured reserve list.

College/Personal:

Called Kansas State's finest recruit in the last decade and the hardest worker in the program by the coaching staff ... former junior-college standout (Northeastern Oklahoma A&M) quickly established himself as one of the country's top running backs ... despite playing only two seasons for the Wildcats, ranked prominently in career statistics—seventh in scoring (186 points), fifth in rushing (1,981 yards), and third in 100-yard performances (9) ... 31 rushing touchdowns set a K-State career record ... established school record as a senior with 1,263 rushing yards on 240 carries (5.3-yard average) ... scored 90 points and averaged 124.5 all-purpose yards per game ... all-America honorable mention by USA Today at Del City (Oklahoma City, Okla.) High School ... set single-season rushing record with 1,819 yards and 21 touchdowns in 1997 ... also led the squad with 103 tackles as a sophomore ... lettered four times in football and twice in track ... business marketing major ... born December 11, 1979 ... resides in Oklahoma City, Okla. ■

College: Massachusetts

DOB: August 8, 1978

Hometown: Paterson, New Jersey

Pro Career:

Free-agent signee from Massachusetts has displayed great potential when given the opportunity to play ... split backfield duties last year with future Hall-of-Famer Emmitt Smith ... still managed team-best 830 rushing yards ... one of bright spots during Cards' injury-marred 2002 season ... despite only six starts in '02, led the Cardinals in rushing with 834 yards on 188 carries (4.4-yard average) and touchdowns with nine six-pointers, ranked second in overall scoring with 54 points and receptions with 38 catches (413 yards) ... his showing earned him a four-year contract extension at season's end ... near-exclusive action on special teams as a rookie.

■ 2003: Shared running-back chores ... Smith began the season as the starter, gaining 192 yards on 65 carries until fracturing his scapula and separating his shoulder in his return to Dallas in the season's fifth contest ... while Smith mended over the next six weeks, Shipp laid claim to the position ... the starter over the final 11 outings, Shipp gained 830 yards on 228 attempts overall to fall just four yards short of his 2002 single-season best of 834 rushing yards ... in early November, completed a three-game span of 86 carries, a modern-era franchise record ... the span also included back-to-back 100-yard rushing efforts, a Cardinal first since 1992 ... his 35-attempt, 165-yard effort vs. San Francisco (Oct. 26) was the best performance by a Cardinal running back since 1993 ... the 35 carries were the NFC's 2003 single-game high ... reserve duty at Detroit (Sept. 7) and averaged 4.8 rushing yards on four carries, caught three passes for eight yards, and added a solo tackle on special teams ... change-of-pace action in reserve role vs. Green Bay (Sept. 21) produced 24 yards on seven rushing attempts, including runs of nine, three, and one yard in game-winning fourth quarter scoring drive of 20-13 victory ... added two solo tackles on special teams ... came off bench for Smith (shoulder) at Dallas (Oct. 5) and gained 31 yards on nine carries, including a 16-yard burst in third quarter ... with Smith inactive for next six games, handed first starting role of season vs. Baltimore (Oct. 12) and collected 108 yards from scrimmage with 61 yards rushing on 14 carries and five pass receptions for 47 yards ... on Cards' first possession of second half, popped for gains of 15 and 14 yards on consecutive runs to open the drive ... later sped for 34-yard gain on pass reception in fourth-quarter scoring drive ... exploded for career-best 35 carries and 165 yards rushing to key 221-yard ground effort in 16-13 overtime win vs. San Francisco (Oct. 26) ... 35 rushing attempts most by a Cardinal since Ronald Moore's club-record 36 carries (160 yards) Nov. 7, 1993 vs. Philadelphia ... piled up 50 yards on five carries on Cards first possession of the game, a 12-play, 70-yard scoring drive ... outstanding first quarter with 54 yards on just seven carries, and totalled 15 attempts for 70 yards at halftime ... rumbled for 66 yards on nine carries in third quarter ... overall had five runs of 10+ yards ... became first Cardinal running back to log consecutive 100-yard rushing games since 1992 (Johnny Johnson) with 141 yards on 29 carries in 17-14 win over Cincinnati (Nov. 2) ... strong first quarter with 49 yard on just eight attempts, including a 36-yard rumble from own 12-yard line to near midfield, but lost the ball on next play as Bengals recovered the fumble and converted the turnover into a touchdown and 7-7 tie ... with his confidence back in second half, rolled to 48 yards on nine carries in third quarter and caught two passes for 24 yards ... two-game total of 64 rushing attempts (35 vs. San Francisco, 29 vs. Cincinnati) tied for most in franchise history with Johnny Johnson's 36-156 vs. N.Y. Giants and 28-146 at Washington Dec. 12 and 20, 1992 ... two-game rushing total of 306 yards best since LeShon Johnson's 311 yards in consecutive games in 1996 at New Orleans (21-214) Sept. 22 and vs. St. Louis (12-97) Sept. 29—a span of 114 games ... combined 86 carries (22 at Pittsburgh, 29 vs. Cincinnati, 35 vs. San Francisco) modern-day

Cardinal record for most rushing attempts over three-game span ... left game at Cleveland (Nov. 16) in fourth period with knee contusion ... despite limited practice time while nursing forearm and knee injuries, netted 95 yards on 24 carries and caught two passes for two yards vs. St. Louis (Nov. 23) ... actually hit the 100-yard rushing mark in fourth quarter but was dropped for five-yard loss to fall below the century mark ... with Smith's return to action, rushed for 34 yards at Chicago (Nov. 30) and 30 at San Francisco (Dec. 7) ... rebounded with 89 yards on 23 carries vs. Carolina (Dec. 14), including nine runs of at least five yards ... impressive second quarter with seven carries for 45 yards ... added 21-yard burst in fourth quarter.

■ 2002: Finished the season with 1,247 total yards from scrimmage on 226 touches (188 rushes, 38 receptions) to finish with a 5.5-yard average, second in the NFC to Minnesota running back Michael Bennett (5.6-yard average) and fifth in the NFL ... 5.52-yard average also was best by a Cardinal since fullback Larry Centers averaged 5.54 yards in 1996 (116 rushes for 425 yards, 99 receptions for 766 yards) ... also on receiving end of 80-yard scoring play on screen pass at St. Louis (Dec. 15), the team's longest play from scrimmage since 1988 ... added two rushing touchdowns against the Rams for three overall, a Cardinal first since quarterback Jake Plummer rushed for three scores at Washington Nov. 22, 1998 ... also returned six kickoffs 120 yards ... returned kickoffs for 20 and 29 yards and added one assist and five blocks on special teams in season-opener at Washington (Sept. 8) ... provided change of pace at Seattle (Sept. 15) for tailback Thomas Jones (career-best 173 rushing yards) with eight carries for 39 yards and long run of 17 yards on first down near midfield in game-clinching touchdown drive of 24-13 win ... also made fine block as kick returner MarTay Jenkins took fourth-quarter kickoff 95 yards for a score, then on ensuing Card kickoff made the tackle downfield ... scored first career touchdown vs. San Diego (Sept. 22) with 31-yard catch on third-and-four play midway through fourth quarter by outrunning Charger linebacker Junior Seau to the end zone ... it marked the longest reception by a Cardinal running back in 23 games ... came off the bench for Jones vs. N.Y. Giants (Sept. 29) and was a one-man show with 92 rushing yards and a touchdown on 17 carries, and five receptions for 39 yards and a score for 131 yards total offense, nearly one-half of the Cards' team total of 263 ... in fourth quarter alone, ran 65 yards on 11 carries with a 25-yard burst to the 10-yard line to set up his touchdown catch ... later scored on a 10-yard touchdown run on his sixth consecutive carry of the drive ... suffered a mild sprain of his left knee on the touchdown run, however ... also tackled Giant punter Matt Allen short of first-down yardage on botched punt in third quarter ... did not play (knee) as rookie Damien Anderson opened at tailback at Carolina (Oct. 6) ... came off bench in second quarter vs. Dallas (Oct. 20) to spell Jones and gain 33 yards on 11 carries and catch one pass for 14 yards ... scored twice on runs of seven and 11 yards at San Francisco (Oct. 27), garnering 27 yards on six carries and catching one pass for 15 yards ... fine relief duty with 85 rushing yards on 16 carries and two pass receptions for 20 yards vs. Seattle (Nov. 20) ... impressive third quarter with 14 carries for 61 yards, then added a 14-yard run in fourth quarter ... led team in rushing yards (76) and pass receptions (five) at Philadelphia (Nov. 17) ... highlight of the day was a 56-yard third-quarter burst from Cards' 22-yard line to the Eagle 22-yard line ... 126 yards from scrimmage resulted from nine rushes for 76 yards and 8.4-yard average per attempt and five pass receptions for 50 yards ... rushed for over 100 yards vs. Oakland (Nov. 24) in first NFL start—122 yards on 12 carries in the first half—with 16 attempts for 135 yards and an impressive 8.4-yard average with one touchdown ... first attempt was a 15-yard burst in the first quarter, then added runs of 27, 26, and 39 yards in addition to the three-yard scoring pop in the second quarter ... career-best seven receptions at Kansas City (Dec. 1) netted just 37 yards ... accounted for 130 yards from scrimmage in 23–20 overtime win vs. Detroit (Dec. 8) with 25 rushes for 85 yards and four pass receptions for 45 yards ... opened game with five rushes for 52 yards in first quarter, including consecutive runs of 13 and 16 yards to set up one-yard scoring pass to tie game at 7–7 ... split 158 yards total offense in half at St. Louis (Dec. 15) with 26 carries for 79 yards and two scores, two pass receptions for 79 yards, including an 80-yard scoring play on third-quarter screen pass—the Cards' longest play from scrimmage in 223 games and longest scoring connection for both he and quarterback Plummer ... finished first half with 39 yards rushing on 12 carries, including a five-yard touchdown run in second quarter ... added 26 yards on the ground and the 80-yard score in the third period ... finished with a one-yard sprint around left end with five minutes remaining to bring Cards to within 24–21 ... accounted for 115 yards from scrimmage (62.5 percent of team total) with 84 yards on 20 carries and four pass receptions for 31 yards vs. San Francisco (Dec. 21) ... popped loose for 40-yard run in first quarter, and later converted third-and-10 in third quarter with 15-yard pass reception.

■ 2001: Played in 10 games, exclusively on special teams, as a rookie in 2001 ... inactive for four contests ... finished season ranked fifth with 12 special-teams tackles, added 33 blocks, and returned six kickoffs for 118 yards (19.7-yard average) ... first kick return duty resulted in one kickoff return for 21 yards at San Diego (Nov. 25) ... returned two more kickoffs for 36 yards at Oakland (Dec. 2), one return for 22 yards with two tackles on coverage units at N.Y. Giants (Dec. 15) ... returns of 26 yards vs. Dallas (Dec. 23) and 13 yards in season finale at Washington (Jan. 6).

Pro Career:

The NFL's all-time leading rusher ... joined Arizona as unrestricted free agent March, 27, 2003 following storied career with Dallas Cowboys ... in 14 seasons, has made an impact on the NFL that few players can match at any position in any era ... originally selected by Dallas in first round (17th overall, second running back chosen) of 1990 NFL Draft out of Florida.

■ 2003 (Cardinals): Finished his first season with Cardinals with 10 appearances (five starts) sandwiched around a six-game inactive stretch due to a separated shoulder and fractured scapula ... suffered sprained left AC joint (shoulder separation) and a hairline fracture of scapula (shoulder blade) at Dallas Oct. 5 ... entering the 2003 season, had missed just four games due to injury in his 13-year NFL career—2001, two games, knee; 1998, one game, hand; 1994, one game, hamstring ... carried the ball 90 times for 256 yards (2.8-yard average) with two touchdowns and caught 14 passes for 107 yards ... starting tailback for season-opener at Detroit (Sept. 7) and averaged impressive 4.9 yards-per-carry with 13 rushing attempts for 64 yards and long run of 22 yards ... collected 54 yard in first half on nine attempts for six-yard average ... first play as a Cardinal was a one-yard run around right end ... in Cards' 71-yard, nine play scoring drive in second quarter, picked up 43 yards on runs for three, 19 and 22 yards ... netted 50 rushing yards on 20 carries in win vs. Green Bay (Sept. 21) and added two receptions for 16 yards in 20-13 victory ... two third-down rushing conversions in second half proved valuable ... scored first touchdown as a Cardinal with one-yard blast on fourth down in second quarter for Cards' first points of game at St. Louis (Sept. 28) ... highly-anticipated return to Dallas (Oct. 5) turned disappointing when he left game in first half with left shoulder injury (which proved to be a fractured scapula) after netting minus one yard on six carries ... inactive next six games as Marcel Shipp stepped into starting lineup ... returned to full practice mode Nov. 20 ... first return to action at Chicago (Nov. 30) resulted in one carry for minus three yards and one pass reception for five yards ... received increased playing time vs. Carolina (Dec. 14) with nine carries for 23 yards and his first touchdown at home in 2003, a four-yard scamper in second quarter to give Cards 14-7 lead ... followed at Seattle (Dec. 21) nine yards on four rushing attempts and caught season-best four passes for 27 yards ... in season finale vs. Minnesota (De. 28), collected 20 yards on seven carries and 48 yards on three pass receptions ... pass catches included a 36-yard catch and run to near midfield in first quarter scoring drive, longest since a 40-yarder as a Cowboy at Arizona Sept. 24, 1995.

■ 2002 (Cowboys): Enjoyed a record-breaking year as he moved past Walter Payton to become the NFL's all-time rushing leader midway through the season ... led the Cowboys in rushing for the 13th time, finishing with 975 yards and five touchdowns on 254 carries ... began quest for the NFL's career rushing title with 17 carries for 67 yards at Houston (Sept. 8) ... in the Cowboys' 21-13 win over Tennessee (Sept. 15), gained 59 yards on 18 carries, including a 22-yard pick-up late in the fourth quarter ... became the NFL's all-time leader in rushing attempts (3,844) with his sixth carry against Philadelphia (Sept. 22) ... in the Cowboys' 13-10 win over defending NFC champion St. Louis (Sept. 29), ran for 58 yards on 13 carries, including a season-long 30 yard dash from near the Dallas goal line to get the club out of a deep hole ... returning to Texas Stadium, posted 70 yards on the ground on 13 carries against the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 6), including a 30-yard touchdown run, his longest touchdown run since a 63-yarder for a score at Minnesota Nov. 8, 1999 ... with one reception for seven yards against Carolina (Oct. 13), moved into a tie with Tony Hill for third on the Cowboys' all-time career reception list (479) ... added 59 rushing yards on 13 carries ... in the Cowboys' 9-6 overtime loss at Arizona (Oct. 20), posted 82 rushing yards on 22 carries ... became the NFL's all-time leading rusher with a season high 24 carries for 109 yards against Seattle (Oct. 27) ... on second-and-seven from the Dallas 30-yard line with 9:28 remaining in the fourth quarter, Smith burst up the middle on an 11-yard run,

CANTON BOUND

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- An eight-time Pro Bowler, he owns four NFL rushing titles, three Super Bowl titles, one NFL Most Valuable Player selection (1993), and one Super Bowl (XXVIII) MVP award.
- Became the NFL's all-time leading rusher in 2002 making him the seventh player in NFL history to hold the title and surpassing legendary Chicago Bear Walter Payton; surpassed Payton's 16,726-yard career rushing total week eight of the 2002 season against Seattle. He passed Payton's NFL-record career-carry total of 3,838 week three in 2002.
- Led the NFL in rushing four times (1991-93, 1995) and three straight years; only Jim Brown has more total titles (8) and more consecutive rushing crowns (5).
- His eight Pro Bowl selections rank second only to Barry Sanders (10) among NFL running backs.
- In addition to ranking #1 all-time in rushing yardage, is also the NFL's career leader for rushing touchdowns (155) and rushing attempts (4,142); is second in league annals in total touchdowns with 166, trailing only all-time leader Jerry Rice (205).
- Was the first player in NFL history to post five consecutive seasons over 1,400 yards rushing; joins Hall of Famer and legendary Cleveland Brown runner Jim Brown as the only players in NFL history to post seven consecutive 10-touchdown seasons to begin their careers.
- His 1,021 yards rushing in 2001 made him the first player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in 11 consecutive seasons and the first to post 11 1,000-yard career rushing seasons (10 each for Walter Payton and Barry Sanders).
- In NFL history ranks third all-time in total yards from scrimmage (20,537) and fourth in combined yardage (20,537).
- Smith's 25 rushing touchdowns in 1995 set a record at the time (subsequently broken by K.C.'s Priest Holmes in 2003 with 27) gave him 100 career touchdowns in just six seasons (93 games), equaling Jim Brown for fastest to that plateau.
- Boasts 100-yard rushing efforts against 22 of the 32 other NFL teams and his 76 regular-season 100-yard rushing games tie him with Sanders for second behind Payton (77) in NFL annals; among Smith's Dallas-record 76 hundred-yard rushing games are 11 of the top 15 performances in Cowboy history and 18 outings over 150 yards (fourth-highest total of 150-yard games in NFL history).
- Also owns several of NFL postseason records including playoff marks for career rushing yards (1,586), rushing touchdowns (19), consecutive games with rushing touchdowns (9), and 100-yard rushing games (7) ... shares the NFL total playoff touchdown mark of 21 with ex-Bill Thurman Thomas.
- One of only six NFL players to amass over 9,000 career rushing yards and 400 career receptions, trailing only Marcus Allen, Marshall Faulk, Walter Payton, Thurman Thomas, and Ricky Watters.
- Led Cowboys in rushing in 178 of his 201 regular-season games from 1990-2002; is also third on the Dallas all-time reception list (486), trailing only Drew Pearson (489) and Michael Irvin (750).
- His total of 45 hundred-yard rushing games at Escambia (FL) High School remains the national record.

recording the 16,728th rushing yard of his career to move past Payton's storied NFL mark of 16,726 career rushing yards ... culminated that same drive by scoring his 150th career rushing touchdown on a one-yard run ... 109 yards was his first career 100-yard rushing game against Seattle and the 75th 100-yard rushing game of his career ... also recorded one reception for three yards, moving him into sole possession of third place on the club's all-time reception list ... followed record-breaking day with 39 rushing yards on 16 carries at Detroit (Nov. 3) ... season-low eight carries for 22 yards at Indianapolis (Nov. 17) ... 73 rushing yards and a touchdown on 20 carries against Jacksonville (Nov. 24) plus a 12-yard reception ... in his 195th career start—second most in Cowboy history—Smith exploded for season-high 144 rushing yards on 23 carries against Washington (Nov. 28), his fourth consecutive 100-yard game against the Redskins and the 12th of his career to equal his career opponent best (Philadelphia) ... in the fourth quarter on the same play, became the first player in NFL history to top 17,000 career rushing yards and also the third player to reach 20,000 career yards ... the effort was Smith's third 100-yard Thanksgiving Day rushing performance against Washington in as many tries and his best rushing output since recording 150 yards against Washington Dec. 10, 2000 ... 4,000th career rushing attempt during a 19-carry, 66-yard effort against San Francisco (Dec. 28) ... down early to the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 15), his day was somewhat limited with 11 carries for 32 yards ... in 200th career regular-season game, Philadelphia (Dec. 21) held him to 30 yards on eight carries in the final home game of the year ... closed season at Washington (Dec. 29) with 18 carries for a season-low 13 yards.

■ 2001 (Cowboys): With 1,021 rushing yards became first player in NFL history to compile eleven 1,000-yard rushing seasons, a feat accomplished over 11 consecutive years ... 1,021 rushing yards ranked seventh in the NFC and 15th in the NFL despite missing two consecutive games due to injuries for the first time in his career ... partnered with Troy Hambrick (579 rushing yards) to make Dallas one of eight teams with two backs over the 500-yard rushing mark ... opened the season with 40 yards on 13 carries against Tampa Bay (Sept. 9) to top 18,000-yard mark in career combined net yards ... averaged five yards per carry with 17 rushes for 85 yards against San Diego (Sept. 23) ... 14-yard carry in the second quarter moved him past Barry Sanders into second place on the NFL's all-time rushing list ... after a 58-yard rushing performance in three quarters at Philadelphia (Sept. 30), recorded 25 rushing yards on 16 carries ... led squad with three receptions for 21 yards at Oakland (Oct. 7) ... 46 total yards against the Raiders moved Smith past Herschel Walker (18,168 total yards) into fifth place on the NFL's all-time combined net yardage list ... first 100-yard rushing game of the season with 107 yards on 25 carries against Washington (Oct. 15) as the Cowboys rushed for 211 yards ... it was the 10th 100-yard rushing game of Smith's career against Washington ... added five receptions for 45 yards, his best receiving output since recording five catches against Philadelphia on Oct. 10, 1999 ... 83 yards on 21 carries against Arizona (Oct. 28) before spraining the medial collateral ligament in his right knee in the fourth quarter ... the injury forced him out of action the next two weeks vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 4) and Atlanta (Nov. 11), marking the first time in his career he missed back-to-back games due to injury ... returned to action against Philadelphia (Nov. 18) to run for 80 yards on 15 carries (5.3-yard average) ... on Thanksgiving Day against Denver (Nov. 22), ran nine times for nine yards with two receptions for seven yards, the second lowest single-game rushing total of his career ... the following week at Washington (Dec. 2), bounced back with second 100-yard rushing game of the season, recording 25 carries for 102 yards ... also scored first touchdown of the season with a five-yard run on the game's opening drive ... 11th career 100-yard rushing effort against the Redskins, including three in succession ... staying on a hot streak, ran 22 times for 62 yards and a touchdown, including a season-long 44-yard run, in the Cowboys' 20-13 win over the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 9) ... in the rain at Seattle (Dec. 16), limited to 12 carries for 39 yards ... closed season in style, topping the 100-yard mark for the third time with a season-high 128 yards at Arizona (Dec. 23) ... also a season-high 26 carries in the game to post 11th 100-yard game against the Cardinals ... in the Cowboys' 27-21 upset win over playoff-bound San Francisco (Dec. 30), recorded second consecutive 100-yard rushing game and his fourth of the season with 126 yards on 26 carries that equaled his season high ... on third carry of the game, moved past the 16,000-yard career rushing mark, joining Payton as the only players in NFL history to reach that milestone ... also moved past the 19,000-yard plateau for combined net yards, making Smith one of just four players—Rice (22,248), Brian Mitchell (22,001), and Payton (21,803)—to reach that level ... needing 56 yards in the season finale to reach the 1,000-yard mark for the season, sailed to 77 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries at Detroit (Jan. 6), putting him over the 1,000-yard mark for the season, the 11th consecutive year he accomplished the feat, an NFL record.

■ 2000 (Cowboys): Continued trek through league and Cowboy record books for the 11th straight season ... recorded 10th consecutive campaign rushing over 1,000 yards (1,203) to become second player in NFL history to accomplish that feat (Sanders) and only the third player in history to total 10 career 1,000-yard seasons (Sanders, Payton) ... rushing effort ranked fourth in the NFC and 13th in the NFL ... ninth Pro Bowl selection (did not play, left ankle injury), third most by Cowboy (Bob Lilly, 11; Mel Renfro, 10) ... among NFL running backs, only Sanders (10) had been selected to more Pro Bowls than Smith ... 59 yards on 16 carries at Arizona (Sept. 10) ... with a three-yard carry early in the Cardinals' game, became the third running back in NFL history to top the 14,000-yard career rushing mark ... in 27-21 win at Washington (Sept. 18), led team with 83 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries ... limited to 11 carries for 31 yards and a touchdown against San Francisco (Sept. 24) before erupting for 132 yards and a touchdown, the 150th overall six-pointer of his career, on 24 carries at Carolina (Oct. 1) ... rushed 19 times for 61 rushing yards and a touchdown at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 15) ... 112 rushing yards and a score on 24 carries against Arizona (Oct. 22), marking his fifth consecutive game with a rushing touchdown ... against Jacksonville (Oct. 29), rushed for 102 yards on 24 carries to mark his first career 100-yard game against the Jaguars ... third consecutive 100-yard rushing game with 134 yards and a score on 26 carries at Philadelphia (Nov. 5) while also catching a pass for 15 yards, his 450th career reception ... the Eagles' game marked Smith's fourth straight 100-yard game at Veterans Stadium and the 12th 100-yard game of his career against Philadelphia, the most 100-yard games by a player against a single opponent in league history ... just 16 rushing yards on 17 carries vs. Cincinnati (Nov. 12) ... 48 rushing yards on 11 carries against the NFL's top-rated defense at Baltimore (Nov. 19) ... 100 yards

CORNERBACK

5-10 • 174 • Seventh Year
Unrestricted Free Agent (Ravens), 2002
College: Miami, Fla.
DOB: May 23, 1974
Hometown: Miami, Florida

Pro Career:

One of the league's top cover cornerbacks signed five-year contract with Arizona as unrestricted free agent March 18, 2002, the same day the club announced three-year deal with coveted free-agent tight end Freddie Jones (San Diego Chargers) ... hampered by numerous injuries in 2002 with Cardinals but started 10 games ... spent entire '03 season on injured reserve list after suffering knee injury in preseason ... in four standout seasons for Baltimore Ravens (62 games, 43 starts), logged 175 solo tackles, 34 assists, 20 interceptions, and 87 pass deflections, the latter an average of nearly 22 per season ... 20 interceptions equalled safety Rod Woodson for the Ravens' career lead ... pilfered three passes in Ravens' march through the 2000 playoffs, including a 49-yard interception return for a touchdown in 34-7 win over the N.Y. Giants in Super Bowl XXXV ... originally selected by Baltimore in first round (10th overall, second cornerback chosen) of 1998 NFL Draft after impressive college career at Miami, Fla. ... second defensive back selected in the draft after Michigan's Charles Woodson (Oakland) and one of seven defensive backs selected in the first round.

■ 2003 (Cardinals): Entered training camp fully recovered from nagging groin, knee, and leg injuries from previous season ... suffered torn anterior cruciate ligament in left knee in preseason outing vs. Chicago (Aug. 22) ... placed on injured reserve list Aug. 26 for remainder of season ... underwent reconstructive surgery on Aug. 29.

■ 2002 (Cardinals): Disjointed first season in Cardinal uniform produced 10 starts sandwiched around six games as game-day inactive due to groin, knee, and leg injuries ... concluded season with 60 tackles (45 solos), 2 tackles for loss, 2 interceptions, and 6 pass deflections ... first game in Cardinal uniform at Washington (Sept. 8) resulted in two solo tackles and one assist ... tackled Charger running back LaDarian Tomlinson after one-yard gain on first play of game vs. San Diego (Sept. 22), then left contest in first quarter with groin pull after just six plays and did not return ... inactive for next four games ... returned to action vs. St. Louis (Nov. 4) for first time in five weeks and made immediate impact with second-quarter interception, his first as a Cardinal, a turnover the Cards converted into a touchdown to cut the Rams lead to 10-7 ... later in game made knifing tackle of Ram receiver Isaac Bruce on third-and-two down at Card 22-yard line for one-yard loss to force a field goal and keep Cards within striking distance at 20-14 ... outstanding overall game included 12 solo tackles, 1 tackle for loss, and 2 pass deflections ... seven tackles vs. Seattle (Nov. 10) and at Philadelphia (Nov. 17) ... eight stops with a pass deflection vs. Oakland (Nov. 24) ... inactive for two games with knee, leg, and ankle ailments ... returned to lineup at St. Louis (Dec. 15) after two-week absence and recorded eight tackles and a second-quarter interception of Ram passer Marc Bulger to set up Cards' first points of the game ... four tackles vs. San Francisco (Dec. 21) ... completed season with five stops in season finale at Denver (Dec. 29).

■ 2001 (Ravens): Started final 15 games of the season, collecting 59 tackles (52 solos), 4 interceptions, 3 forced fumbles, and team-best 17 pass deflections ... opened season inactive vs. Chicago (Sept. 9) with knee injury ... four tackles vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 23) in first starting role of season ... four tackles and pass interception that led to game-tying touchdown in third quarter of 20-13 win at Denver (Sept. 30) ... interception for second consecutive game in 26-7 win vs. Tennessee (Oct. 7) plus five pass deflections ... five solo stops and forced fumble for turnover in 18-17 win over Jacksonville (Oct. 28) ... 10 solo tackles, 12 stops combined, and 3 pass deflections in 13-10 victory at Pittsburgh (Nov. 4) ... 5 solo tackles, 2 pass deflections, and 1 interception in 16-10 win at Tennessee (Nov. 12), the latter theft after Titan holder Craig Hentrich attempted a pass on a botched field-goal attempt ... left contest vs. Cleveland (Nov. 18) after just four plays with groin injury ... 4 tackles, 1 deflected pass, and 1 interception in the end zone for a touchback in 16-0 shutout of Cincinnati (Dec. 23) ... concluded regular season with five tackles and a forced fumble in 19-3 win vs. Minnesota (Jan. 7) ... 5 tackles, 1 interception, and 1 deflection in 20-3 wild-card victory at Miami (Jan. 13) as Raven defense held Dolphins to 151 total yards, a team-postseason record ... four tackles in divisional playoff loss at Pittsburgh (Jan. 20).

■ 2000 (Ravens): Key member of Ravens' record-setting defense as he led Baltimore with six interceptions during the regular season and three in the playoffs en route to the Super Bowl XXXV title ... finished regular season with 52 solo tackles, 7 assists, 6 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery, and team-best 28 passes defended ... also returned nine punts 135 yards (15-yard average) with one fair catch and long return of 47 yards ... opened season in impressive fashion at Pittsburgh (Sept. 3) with three tackles and three deflected passes while matched primarily with talented Steeler receiver Plaxico Burress ... 4 tackles, 1 fumble recovery, and 1 deflected pass in Ravens' 39-36 come-from-behind win vs. Jacksonville (Sept. 10) ... key effort in 37-0 shutout of Cincinnati (Sept. 24) as Ravens held Bengal offense to 4 yards rushing, 94 total net yards, and 7 first downs, all team single-game defensive records ... halted only Bengals' scoring threat with an end-zone interception to end first half ... second consecutive game with an interception in following week's 12-0 shutout at Cleveland, the league's first back-to-back shutouts since the 1985 Chicago Bears ... pulled a hamstring on the second-quarter return, however, and did not return ... inactive at Jacksonville (Oct. 8) ... returned to the lineup at Washington (Oct. 15) to make his third interception of the season ... paced 27-0 shutout over Dallas (Nov. 19) with six tackles ... five tackles and team-best three pass deflections in 44-7 win over Cleveland (Nov. 26) as Raven defense held Browns to 112 total yards ... 3 tackles, 3 pass deflections, and 1 interception return for 30 yards in narrow 13-7 win at Arizona (Dec. 17), the Ravens' smallest margin of victory in their 11 season-concluding consecutive victories en route to the Super Bowl XXXV championship ... monster game in 34-20 win over N.Y. Jets (Dec. 24), returning two interceptions 64 and 19 yards in the second quarter and adding eight solo tackles and four pass deflections ... four tackles in Ravens' 21-3 wild-card win over Denver (Dec. 31) as Baltimore's defense held the Broncos to their lowest point total since 1992 and allowed just 177 yards and nine first downs ... four tackles and two deflected passes the next week in 24-10 divisional playoff win at Tennessee (Jan. 7) ... integral contributor in 16-3 AFC title-game upset at Oakland (Jan. 14) with five solo tackles and two interceptions ... concluded Ravens' storybook season with 5 tackles, 2 pass deflections, and a 49-yard interception return for a touchdown in third quarter of Baltimore's convincing 34-7 Super Bowl XXXV win over the Giants.

■ 1999 (Ravens): Finished sophomore season second on team with 23 pass deflections and six interceptions ... added 41 tackles after assuming nickel-back role during second half of season when Baltimore yielded league-low 5.48 yards per passing attempt ... four tackles and three pass deflections in 17-10 win over Cleveland (Sept. 29) ... four tackles and a pass deflection in 19-13 overtime victory at Atlanta (Oct. 3) ... did not start at Tennessee (Oct. 10) but posted four tackles ... snared first interception of season and deflected two other passes vs. Buffalo (Oct. 31) ... followed with another pickoff in 41-9 win at Cleveland (Nov. 7) ... keyed 34-31 victory at Cincinnati (Nov. 21) with 5 tackles, 2 pass deflections, and 1 interception with a 43-yard return for a touchdown ... team-record seven pass deflections vs. New Orleans (Dec. 19), including his fourth interception of the season, as Raven defense set team marks by allowing just 11 rushing yards and eight total first downs in 31-8 win ... concluded season with 2 tackles, 2 pass deflections, and 1 second-quarter end-zone interception in 22-0 shutout win over Cincinnati (Dec. 26).

Cardinals' second-round 2001 draft choice (34th overall, fourth defensive end chosen) from Nebraska ... promising 2001 rookie season cut short after three games by ankle and knee injuries ... returned from reconstructive knee surgery in 2002 to lead club with four quarterback sacks and nine pressures ... unfortunate knee injury last year relegated him to the injured reserve list once again ... has undergone reconstructive surgery on both knees (2001-right, 2003-left).

■ 2002: Returned from reconstructive knee surgery to lead Arizona with 4 quarterback sacks, 9 hurries, and 8 tackles for loss ... overall in 16 starts, collected 66 tackles (35 solos), 4 sacks, a third-quarter sack when he chased down Giant passer Kerry Collins on third-and-12 ... superb effort in 16-13 win at Carolina (Oct. 6) with nine tackles, including a sack and tackle for loss, as Card defensive line helped limit NFC's leading rusher, Panther Lamar Smith to just 49 rushing yards on 18 carries for a miserly 2.7-yard average ... added the sack in third quarter at Cardinal 25-yard line to push ball back to 30-yard line and force Carolina to settle for 48-yard field goal and 13-6 lead ... forced to bench after just seven snaps vs. Dallas (Oct. 20) with muscle pull in rib cage ... returned for one play in second quarter, then sat out remainder of game ... despite no practice time during the week nursing rib cage injury, logged 5 solo tackles, including 2 tackles for loss, 8 tackles overall, and 1 hurry at San Francisco (Oct. 27) as he played 52 of 59 defensive snaps from scrimmage ... season-best 10 combined tackles and set up Cards' first touchdown at Philadelphia (Nov. 17) with a fumble recovery after safety Adrian Wilson punched the ball loose from Eagle passer Donovan McNabb near midfield ... McNabb suffered fractured ankle on the play but finished the game ... Cards scored on ensuing possession to take 7-0 lead ... four combined tackles vs. Detroit (Dec. 8) included 3 solo stops, 1 tackle for loss, and 1 hurry in 23-20 win ... provided constant pressure and fine play against the run at St. Louis (Dec. 15) with 5 combined tackles, 1 tackle for loss, and 1 sack, an 11-yarder of Ram passer Marc Bulger ... impressive tackle of St. Louis running back Lamar Gordon for four-yard loss in the third quarter helped force a punt two plays later ... on ensuing Ram possession, nailed Bulger for 11-yard loss on second down preceding a David Barrett interception on next play ... three tackles and two hurries vs. San Francisco (Dec. 21).

■ 2001: Finished injury-abbreviated rookie season with 6 solo tackles, 6 assists, 1 quarterback sack, 1 hurry, 1 pass defended, and 1 fumble return for touchdown ... started first three games, inactive for next two, then spent final 11 weeks on injured reserve ... underwent reconstructive right-knee surgery Oct. 23 to repair torn medial collateral ligament and partially-torn anterior cruciate ligament by Dr. Scott Strasburger at the Nebraska Orthopedic Clinic in Lincoln ... placed on injured reserve Oct. 25 ... missed Oct. 14 contest at Chicago due to ankle sprain ... suffered season-ending knee injury in freak practice mishap after returning to workouts Oct. 17 ... teammate Barron Tanner rolled into Vanden Bosch's knee while he was defending a screen pass ... inactive again vs. Kansas City (Oct. 21) prior to surgery two days later ... started first NFL game at right defensive end vs. Denver (Sept. 23) in season opener, collecting 1 solo tackle, 3 assists, 1 pass defended, and 1 quarterback hurry ... led defensive line vs. Atlanta (Sept. 30) with eight combined tackles and the first sack of his NFL career, a nine-yard drop of Falcon passer Chris Chandler, on third-and-12 play in second quarter to force a punt ... set tone early for 21-20 win at Philadelphia (Oct. 7) when he scooped a McNabb fumble on a sack-and-strip play by teammate Rob Fredrickson on second play from scrimmage, taking the ball nine yards into the end zone to give Cards 7-0 lead and Vanden Bosch his first NFL touchdown ... suffered left-ankle sprain on next series, leaving game after just seven plays.

College/Personal:

Outstanding college career made him a favorite of Nebraska fans ... two-year starter added 40 pounds to his frame after arriving on the Lincoln campus as a freshman ... three-time Nebraska lifter-of-the-year (1998-2000) ... started final 23 games, closing career with 142 total tackles (51 solos), 13 sacks for -112 yards, 34 stops for -176 yards, and

Pro Career:

Third-round draft choice authored impressive rookie season in 2001, then emerged as starter, playmaker, and defensive stalwart past two seasons ... selected 64th overall (fourth strong safety chosen) after junior season at North Carolina State ... in 46 NFL games (29 starts), owns 214 tackles (141 solos), 2.5 quarterback sacks, 6 interceptions, 6 hurries, 5 tackles for loss, 22 pass deflections, 2 forced fumbles, and 13 special-teams tackles ... led Cardinals with four interceptions in 2002 and ranked fourth with 110 tackles ... also blocked one punt in 2003.

■ 2003: Started all but one contest and collected 54 solo tackles, 18 assists, 1 hurry, 1 tackle for loss, and 7 pass deflections ... special teams play produced Cards' first blocked punt since 1997 ... two solo tackles, three assists, and a pass deflection in 20-13 win over Green Bay (Sept. 21) ... on field for every snap—87 plays overall—and managed four tackles and a pass defended at St. Louis (Sept. 28) ... seven tackles at Dallas (Oct. 5), eight stops and a pass deflection vs. Baltimore (Oct. 12) ... three tackles from scrimmage vs. San Francisco (Oct. 26) and blocked punt in the third quarter which rolled out of bounds at the 49er 11-yard line ... Cards converted the possession into a field goal in eventual 18-17 victory ... whistled for two personal fouls in fourth quarter, however, and eventually ejected from the game ... first call was from fierce hit on 49er tight end Jed Weaver over the middle, sending the receiver's helmet flying through the air (league later admitted no call was warranted) ... second occurred two plays later and resulted in banishment ... four solo tackles in 17-14 win over Cincinnati (Nov. 2) ... team-leading eight combined tackles (seven solo stops) and batted away two passes vs. St. Louis (Nov. 23), then added four tackles and batted away one pass in coverage as only Card defender on field for all 77 defensive snaps at Chicago (Nov. 30) ... did not start vs. Carolina (Dec. 14) due in illness but came off bench to provide three tackles ... seven tackles and a hurry at Seattle (Dec. 21), then finished season with three solo stops in 18-17 win over Minnesota (Dec. 28).

■ 2002: Vaulted over 100-total tackle plateau in first season as a starter ... fourth on club with 110 tackles (68 solos) ... also 1.5 quarterback sacks, 2 hurries, 2 tackles for loss, 6 pass deflections, 4 interceptions, and 1 forced fumble ... three interceptions in 9-6 win over Dallas (Oct. 20) earned NFC defensive player-of-the-week honors, most by Cardinal since Kwame Lassiter made four interceptions in 1998 season finale vs. San Diego ... game-day inactive for season-opener at Washington (Sept. 8) while still on mend from preseason right-shoulder dislocation vs. Denver (Aug. 24) ... first action of season in starting role at Seattle (Sept. 15) resulted in three solo stops and three assists in 24-13 win ... led team with eight tackles as Card starting secondary was on field for all 58 defensive plays of 21-7 win over N.Y. Giants (Sept. 29) ... dismantled Dallas (Oct. 20) with three interceptions plus thundering sack of Cowboy passer Quincy Carter on opening play of game ... first interception occurred on ensuing snap ... second theft came in third quarter to quell Cowboy scoring threat ... completed hat trick with a fourth-quarter end-zone interception in 9-6 win ... season-best 12 combined tackles vs. St. Louis (Nov. 3) included tackle for loss ... nearly duplicated effort with 11 tackles vs. Seattle (Nov. 10) the next week ... set the table for both Cardinal touchdowns at Philadelphia (Nov. 17) ... on first, knocked the ball loose from Eagle passer Donovan McNabb on third play of game to set up 12-yard touchdown pass ... McNabb fractured an ankle on the play ... on second, Wilson intercepted McNabb in second quarter and returned the ball 35 yards to Philadelphia's two-yard line ... Arizona scored on its ensuing play from scrimmage to knot game at 14-14 ... finished contest with 10 tackles, 0.5 sack, 1 interception, and 1 forced fumble ... eight tackles and a hurry vs. Oakland (Nov. 24) ... 10 combined tackles vs. San Francisco (Dec. 21) ... inactive with hamstring injury for season finale at Denver (Dec. 29).

■ 2001: Playing time from scrimmage increased as season progressed ... rookie season included 32 tackles (19 solos), 1 quarterback sack, 3 hurries, 2 tackles for loss, 10 pass deflections, 2 interceptions, and 12 tackles on special teams ... 10 pass deflections ranked second on club to cornerback Corey Chavous (11) ... ample playing time from scrimmage at Philadelphia (Oct. 7), responding with two solo tackles and batted away one pass in 21-20 win ... active game in 24-16 win over Kansas City (Oct. 21) with 3 tackles, 1 quarterback hurry on a corner blitz, and 2 deflected passes ... also got a hand on a Chavous interception in the end zone to stymie last-second Chiefs' rally from their own one-yard line to the Cards' two-yard line with five seconds remaining ... though scrimmage play limited to roughly a dozen snaps at Dallas (Oct. 28), collected two tackles and his first NFL pass interception which he returned 36 yards to give Arizona the ball near midfield with four minutes left ... unexpected call to action early when starter Justin Lucas suffered ankle sprain vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 4), responding with 5 tackles, a 10-yard sack of Donovan McNabb in the third quarter, and 1 deflected pass from safety spot ... another outstanding effort from scrimmage and on special teams in 30-7 win at Carolina (Dec. 30) produced 5 solo tackles, including 1 stop for loss, 1 deflected pass, 1 hurry from scrimmage, and 2 solo tackles on kick coverage ... gave Cards an early 7-0 lead in first quarter at Washington (Jan. 6, 2002) when he stepped in front of Redskins wide receiver Michael Westbrook on a slant route and returned the interception 61 yards for his first NFL touchdown at the 10-minute mark of the opening period.

College/Personal:

Two-year starting strong safety at North Carolina State ... 254 total tackles (144 solos) and 11 stops behind the line of scrimmage in 33 games for the Wolfpack ... career tackle total most by a N.C. State defensive back since James Walker collected 289 hits from 1993-95 ... added three interceptions and 11 pass deflections in 23 career starts ... all-Guilford County honors from the Greensboro News and Record at T.W. Andrews High School in High Point, North Carolina ... most valuable player in the coaches' East-West All-Star Game ... played free safety and split end as a senior, helping his team to a berth in the playoffs ... also played basketball and ran track ... honorable mention high school basketball all-America notice in 1998, Dream Team all-America selection in 2000 ... parks, recreation, and tourism management major at N.C. State ... working toward completion of bachelor's degree as time allows at Arizona State University ... wife Alicia, daughter Aubrei Reign ... born Oct. 12, 1979 in High Point, N.C. ■

General:

Former Minnesota Vikings ball boy, befriended by wide receivers Randy Moss and Cris Carter, who taught him some of the tricks of the trade, while Cardinals Head Coach Dennis Green was the Vikings' head coach in mid 1990s ... attended prep school after his senior year of high school, thus making it three years since his high school class graduated ... one of the most decorated receivers in Big East Conference history ... Walter Camp player-of-the-year, Biletnikoff Award winner, and Columbus Touchdown Club player-of-the-year ... unanimous all-America selection as a sophomore at University of Pittsburgh ... in just 26 games with the Panthers, caught 161 passes for 2,677 yards (16.6-yard avg.) and 34 touchdowns ... only Antonio Bryant (173, 1999-2001) and Latef Grim (178, 1998-2000) recorded more receptions in a career at Pittsburgh ... his 2,677 yards rank behind Grim (2,680), Dietrich Jells (3,003, 1991-95) and Bryant (3,061), and 34 receiving scores broke the school career record of 30 by Bryant ... also holds the school record with at least one touchdown catch in 16 consecutive games ... first player in school history with back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons receiving ... his 14 games with at least 100 yards receiving broke the previous Panthers all-time record of 13 set by Bryant.

As A Sophomore In 2003:

Named Walter Camp player-of-the-year, becoming the first sophomore to win award, and joined running back Tony Dorsett (1976) and defensive end Hugh Green (1980) as one of three University of Pittsburgh Walter Camp Award recipients ... also winner of the Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's outstanding receiver ... Pittsburgh becomes first school to have two Biletnikoff Award winners, as Fitzgerald joined Antonio Bryant, who won the award in 2000 ... finished second in the voting for the Heisman Trophy behind Oklahoma quarterback Jason White ...

unanimous all-America first-team choice, becoming Pittsburgh's first unanimous all-America honoree since Bill Fralic in 1984 and the school's 13th unanimous all-America pick ... named Touchdown Club of Columbus player-of-the-year (Chic Harley Award) ... also College Football News' player-of-the-year ... unanimous first team all-Big East Conference—first Pittsburgh player to be a multiple-time unanimous all-Big East selection—and Big East Conference offensive player-of-the-year—third Pittsburgh player to earn the league's offensive player-of-the-year honor ... led the NCAA in receiving yards-per-game, touchdown catches, total touchdowns, and total receiving yards ... caught 92 passes for 1,672 yards (18.2-yard avg.) and 22 touchdowns, all school single-season records ... his average of 7.08 catches-per-game broke the Big East mark of 6.82 by Pittsburgh's Latef Grim in 1999 ... average of 128.62 yards-per-game receiving is surpassed only by Pittsburgh's Antonio Bryant (130.2 avg., 2000) on the Big East's record books ... 22 touchdowns were one short of the school's overall single-season record of 23 by Tony Dorsett (1973-76) ... gained over 100 yards receiving in 10 contests, one shy of the NCAA season-record of 11 by Aaron Turner of Pacific (1991) ... had at least one touchdown reception in 11 games, one short of the NCAA season-record of 12 by Marshall's Randy Moss (1997)—his tutor during his youth as a ballboy for the Minnesota Vikings ... scored 132 points, topped only by Dorsett (140 in 1976) on the school's single-season list ... opened the season with six receptions for 123 yards and touchdown grabs of 7, 11, and 54 yards vs. Kent State, then followed with seven catches for 124 yards and two touchdowns vs. Ball State ... exploded for 201 receiving yards on 12 grabs vs. Toledo ... the 201 yards rank sixth on the school's single-game list ... only Antonio Bryant (13 vs. Virginia Tech in 1999) and Harry Orszulak (16 vs. Penn State in 1968) had more catches in a game for the Panthers ... totalled 135 yards and three touchdowns on seven receptions vs. Texas A&M, five receptions for 79 yards and two scores vs. Notre Dame ... gained career-high 207 receiving yards on eight receptions against Rutgers with scoring catches of 11, 26, and 43 yards ... only Antonio Bryant (212 vs. North Carolina in 2000, 215 vs. Virginia Tech in 1999, and 222 vs. Boston College in 2000) and Dietrich Jells (225 vs. West Virginia in 1994) recorded more yards in a game for the Panthers ... amassed 149 yards on eight catches with two touchdowns vs. Syracuse ... among seven receptions for 156 yards vs. Boston College was a 35-yard touchdown connection on option pass from tailback Javan Walker ... his 35-yarder marked the 14th consecutive game he caught at least one scoring pass, an NCAA record, breaking the previous mark of 13 by Michigan State's Charles Rogers (2002) ... also his 28th touchdown catch, the most ever by a college football player in his first two seasons, breaking the old mark of 27 touchdowns by Florida's Jabar Gaffney (27, 2000-01) ... eight catches for 108 yards and a touchdown vs. Virginia Tech, nine receptions for 185 yards and a pair of scores vs. West Virginia ... followed with seven receptions for 102 yards and two scores vs. Temple, marking his sixth consecutive 100-yard game, a school record ... limited to 26 yards on three catches vs. Miami in regular-season finale, but scored on an 18-yard reception ... concluded stellar career vs. Virginia in the Continental Tire Bowl with five receptions for 77 yards as fierce pass rush and blanketing defensive coverage led to five sacks and only six throws to Fitzgerald ... it marked the first time since October 12, 2002 (against Notre Dame) that Fitzgerald did not have a touchdown reception, snapping his record string at 18 contests.

As A Freshman In 2002:

First team freshman all-America and unanimous first team all-Big East Conference selection, becoming the first true freshman to earn that distinction ... became one of just six players in Big East history (and the first freshman) to compile 1,000 receiving yards in a single season ... finished the season as the most prolific freshman receiver in Pittsburgh annals with 69 receptions for 1,005 yards (14.6-yard avg.), eclipsing

Antonio Bryant's freshman marks set in 1999 (51 rec., 844 yards) ... also had 12 touchdown catches to surpass Dwight Collins' 22-year-old freshman mark of 10 set in 1980 ... among all Big East receivers, ranked first in receptions (5.31 reception-per-game avg.) and touchdowns, while finishing second in receiving yards (77.3-yards-per-game avg.) ... posted four 100-yard receiving games ... first career reception was 11-yarder vs. Ohio ... came off bench vs. Texas A&M to collect 10 catches for 103 yards ... first start the following week vs. Alabama-Birmingham yielded no receptions—the only time in his college career he was shut out ... snared six passes for 121 yards and two touchdowns vs. Toledo, then followed with 75 yards on three catches and a touchdown vs. Syracuse ... seven grabs for 83 yards vs. Notre Dame, eight for 86 yards and a score vs. Boston College ... fueled upset of Virginia Tech in front of a national television audience with five catches for 105 yards and three touchdowns ... all three scores were acrobatic catches over Hokie defenders ... finished regular season with 11 receptions for 159 yards and scoring grabs of 32 and 25 yards vs. West Virginia ... caught five passes for 88 yards and a 40-yard touchdown vs. Oregon State in the Insight.com Bowl played in Bank One Ballpark in downtown Phoenix.

Personal:

Spent 2001 season at Valley Forge (Pa.) Military Academy where he posted 35 receptions for 420 yards and seven touchdowns in six games ... also two-time all-state and prep all-America receiver at Academy of the Holy Angels High School in Minneapolis, Minn. ... recorded 73 receptions for 1,254 yards (17.2-yard avg.) and 17 touchdowns as a senior, 54 catches for 1,347 yards (24.9-yard avg.) with 12 touchdowns and had 10 consecutive 100-yard receiving games as a junior ... also a three-year defensive starter, playing free safety as a senior and outside linebacker as a junior and sophomore ... lettered twice in basketball and once in track ... studied in the college of arts and sciences at Pittsburgh ... father, Larry Sr., played football at Indiana State from 1975-77 ... Larry Sr. is currently the sports editor for the Minnesota Spokesman-Recorder ... born Aug. 31, 1983 in Minneapolis. ■

2003 IN REVIEW

2003 REVIEW

It was never easy. The Cardinals pedaled uphill from start to finish. An onslaught of turnovers (22 interceptions, 14 lost fumbles) and one-sided road losses became hallmarks of the 2003 Arizona Cardinals, leading to a 4-12 record, the franchise's fifth consecutive losing season.

Setbacks in all eight road contests extended the franchise's overall losing streak away from home to 13 games. A competitive 4-4 home slate, Arizona's best home record since 1999, made the road showings all the more painful.

The sum of the parts spelled the end of Dave McGinnis' three-year run as the team's head coach.

Two Personalities, Two Teams

The Cardinals had two personalities in 2003. They were two different teams, actually, one at home, the other on the road.

They were outscored by 37 points at home but by a whopping 189 points on the road. They allowed 170 points at home but 281 points on the road.

Their turnover differential at home was minus three. On the road it was -10. It began early with nine turnovers in the first two games. Consequently, Arizona stared at a turnover ratio of at least -10 from week four through the end of the season, reaching a high of -17 during the first two weeks of December. At -13 for the season, Arizona ranked 30th in the NFL, bettering only the -16 recorded by Buffalo and the New York Giants.

Arizona played an exciting, competitive brand of football at Sun Devil Stadium. Only the home opener against Seattle wasn't in question when the Cards self-destructed with six season-high turnovers. Thereafter, however, every game remained in balance into the late going.

Arizona beat playoff-bound Green Bay with a late end-zone interception in September, then punched the Packers' postseason ticket in December with an improbable last-play victory over Minnesota to rob the Vikings of the NFC Central Division title. In between, the Cards caused heartburn for three other teams also headed for the postseason. They took eventual NFC champion and Super Bowl entrant Carolina to the last play before succumbing to a long field goal, lost in overtime to NFC West Division champion St. Louis, and bowed late to AFC North Division titlist Baltimore. Arizona bettered Cincinnati and San Francisco, the latter in overtime.

On the road, the Cardinals were inexplicably overmatched. Their closest loss was a 17-point setback in the season opener at Detroit. They dropped the eight assignments by an average of 23.6 points. They scored only 92 points or 11.5 per game while their opponents averaged 35.1 points per game.

Offense

Arizona entered the season hanging its hopes on an offense featuring one of the NFL's largest lines (L.J. Shelton and Anthony Clement at tackle, Leonard Davis and Cameron Spikes at guard, and Pete Kendall at center), respected tight end Freddie Jones, exciting but young receivers (Bryan Gilmore and rookies Bryant Johnson and Anquan Boldin), emerging running back Marcel Shipp, new battering-ram fullback James Hodgins, and the arrivals of two proven veterans, quarterback Jeff Blake, and Emmitt Smith, the NFL's all-time rushing leader.

The unit did not fulfill its promise. It averaged only 280.6 yards per game in total offense to rank 27th in the league.

Boldin, however, exceeded all expectations. Simply stated, he enjoyed one of the most remarkable rookie seasons in NFL history! He also quickly became the focal point of Arizona's offense.

A second-round draft pick from Florida State, he became the most prolific rookie receiver in league annals with 101 receptions, surpassing New England Patriot Terry Glenn's 98-catch mark in 1996, equaling the Cards' overall single-season receptions record of running back Larry Centers (1995), and bettering Arizona's single-season receptions standard by a wide receiver (98, David Boston, 2001). Boldin's 1,357 receiving yards fell just short of Houston Oiler Bill Groman's 1960 NFL rookie mark of 1,473 yards. In so doing, Boldin became only the 13th rookie in NFL history to record 1,000 receiving yards.

Also a former Florida "Mr. Football" in his home state, Boldin tallied eight touchdowns, a franchise rookie record, and most by a Cardinal rookie since running back Ottis Anderson posted 10 in 1979.

Boldin logged five 100-yard efforts, two near-misses of 95 and 99 yards, and caught at least three passes in all 16 games. He authored the Cards' three longest plays from scrimmage, all touchdowns (71, 60, and 54 yards), and eight of the top 10.

Boldin burst upon the NFL scene with a stunning season opener at Detroit, a 10-reception, 217-yard performance, the latter the season's league-wide single-game best. The 217 yards set an NFL record for a rookie in his first game and were the most by a rookie since 1996 (226, St. Louis Ram Eddie Kennison).

Boldin led the NFL with 40 third-down receptions and registered 64 first downs to lead all rookies.

At season's end, Boldin became the only rookie voted to the Pro Bowl and earned two prestigious accolades — Associated Press Offensive Rookie-of-the-Year, and The Sporting News Rookie-of-the-Year.

Johnson, one of Arizona's two first-round draft choices, was the third wide receiver selected in the 2003 Draft.

True to his positioning, the former Penn State star, although overshadowed by Boldin, finished third among NFL rookie receivers with 35 grabs.

Jones turned in another solid campaign, leading NFC tight ends with 55 receptions for 517 yards, his fourth career 50-catch season and the second most receptions by a Cardinal tight end in team history.

Shipp and future Hall of Famer Smith shared running-back chores. Smith began the season as the starter, gaining 192 yards on 65 carries until fracturing his scapula and separating his shoulder in his return to Dallas in the season's fifth contest. While Smith mended over the next six weeks, Shipp laid claim to the position. The starter over the final 11 outings, Shipp gained 830 yards on 228 attempts overall to fall just four yards short of his 2002 single-season best of 834 rushing yards. In early November, the former college free agent from UMass completed a three-game span of 86 carries, a modern-era franchise record. The span also included back-to-back 100-yard rushing efforts, a Cardinal first since 1992. Shipp's 35-attempt, 165-yard effort against the San Francisco 49ers October 26 was the best performance by a Cardinal running back since 1993. The 35 carries were the NFC's 2003 high.

In his first Cardinal season, Smith gained 236 yards and two touchdowns on 90 totes to raise his record-setting career rushing statistics to 4,144 attempts, 17,418 yards, and 155 touchdowns. He tallied his first Cardinal touchdown at St. Louis week four on a one-yard run. His 36-yard reception in the season finale vs. Minnesota was his longest since 1995 as a Dallas Cowboy.

Quarterback became a shared position, also. Blake assumed the reins from the season's outset but deferred to talented second-year signal-caller Josh McCown in seven contests, including starts in the final three outings.

Blake enjoyed a number of personal milestones. He started his 100th NFL game, rushed for his 2,000th career yard, and surpassed 20,000 yards passing. He threw two or more touchdown passes five times. His 358 passing yards in the season opener at Detroit was Arizona's first 300-yard effort in 25 games and its best effort in 49 outings. His 12th professional season improved his career numbers to 1,802 completions, 3,195 pass attempts, 21,530 passing yards, and 132 touchdowns with 95 interceptions.

The inexperienced McCown seized his late-season opportunity to flash promise. He completed 59 of 98 (60 percent) passes for 670 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 112 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries in his three starts to end the season. He also combined with wide receiver Nathan Poole to author one of the NFL season's most memorable plays. Their 28-yard touchdown connection as time expired beat Minnesota and knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs.

Josh McCown staked claim to the Cardinals' quarterback job over the season's final three games.

Hodgins, primarily utilized as a blocker, caught 14 passes for 58 yards and two touchdowns, the first the game-winner against Green Bay.

Clement returned to form by playing every down at right tackle after missing all but one game in 2002 with injuries. Shelton, his bookend on the left side, continued his ironman role, extending his streak of consecutive plays over two seasons to 1,817 before missing the season finale against Minnesota with an ankle injury. Since 2001, Shelton has been on the field for 2,870 of Arizona's 2,879 offensive plays.

Defense

The Cardinals' unheralded defense, hampered from the outset by the preseason losses of two headliners, defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch and cornerback Duane Starks, to season-ending knee injuries, statistically outperformed its offensive counterpart, finishing 26th overall (344 total yards allowed per game), including a respectable 19th (119.7 yards per game) against the run.

Middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon led the team in tackles for the fifth consecutive season with 136 total stops (83 solos). He posted double-figure totals six times in a season that brought him his 100th career start and 125th appearance. He also led the Cardinals with 13 tackles for loss.

Outside linebacker Ray Thompson was pushing McKinnon for team tackle honors with 90 total stops (55 solos) through 12 games until a league-imposed four-game suspension ended his season prematurely. Still, Thompson tied for the squad lead with three sacks (-12 yards) and finished second with 11 quarterback pressures.

Second-year linebacker LeVar Fisher capably manned the other side, finishing third with 87 total tackles (56 solos).

Promising rookie Gerald Hayes and veteran LeVar Woods also made starts at linebacker late in the season during Thompson's absence and for an injured Fisher. The opportunistic Woods led the team with two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries in just three starts. He was one of only 12 NFL players with three or more fumble recoveries in 2003.

Arizona's defensive line was a revolving door. First-round draft choice Calvin Pace was thrown into the fire as a 16-game starter at right end. Dennis Johnson, Fred Wakefield, and rookie Kenny King made starts at left end. Russell Davis, Marcus Bell, Wendell Bryant, and Barron Tanner all earned starts at the two tackle positions.

Johnson led the group with 55 total tackles (31 solos) and equaled Thompson with three sacks. Pace led the team with 13 quarterback pressures.

Free safety Dexter Jackson, a prize off-season free-agent acquisition fresh from his Super Bowl victory with Tampa Bay, tied for fourth in the NFC with six interceptions. He also finished second on the Cardinals with 105 total tackles (69 solos). All were career bests.

Cornerback Renaldo Hill was hot on Jackson's heels with five career-best interceptions. Thrust into the starting lineup after Starks' injury, Hill also displayed a nose for the ball and a knack for big plays. Besides his interceptions, he recorded 2 sacks, 4 tackles for loss, 7 pass deflections, and 1 forced fumble while finishing seventh with 64 total tackles (47 solos). He notched his first NFL touchdown on a 70-yard interception return vs. St. Louis on November 23, the first of two interceptions in his first career multi-interception performance.

Plucky cornerback David Barrett ranked fourth with 89 total tackles (70 solos). Both figures were career bests.

Gifted Adrian Wilson manned strong safety for the second consecutive season. He garnered 72 total tackles (54 solos) in 16 appearances. His blocked punt October 26 vs. San Francisco was Arizona's first since 1997.

Coby Rhinehart made two late-season starts for the hobbled Hill as did Quentin Harris once for Wilson.

Special Teams

Arizona special teams enjoyed four "top 10" statistical finishes in the NFL—seventh in kickoff-return average (22.9 yards per game), eighth in gross punting average (42.3 yards per game), eighth in opponent gross punting average (40.0 yards per game), and 10th in opponent field-goal percentage (.750 percent).

Veteran Scott Player, who signed a two-year contract extension in October, was his steady self, averaging 42.3 gross yards (fourth in NFC) and 34.4 net yards per punt plus 19 "inside-the-20" boots.

The place-kicking game did not enjoy the same continuity. Back miseries limited incumbent place kicker Bill Gramatica to only four early-season appearances. He was followed by Tim Duncan for five games, and ex-Bengal Neil Rackers for the final seven contests. Rackers earned a new contract with nine field goals in 12 attempts and eight points after touchdown in as many tries. He also exhibited a strong leg with five touchbacks. Duncan's 53-yard field goal vs. the 49ers October 26 was the Cards' longest since 1998.

Reserve second-year running back Josh Scobey, who spent his rookie season on injured reserve, took advantage of his opportunity as the Cards' kick returner. He shattered Arizona's single-game kickoff-return yardage record with an NFL-best 252 yards on seven returns September Safety Dexter Jackson posted career bests with 105 total tackles and six pass interceptions in his first season as a Cardinal.

28 at St. Louis. That effort included a 100-yard return for a touchdown, equaling Carolina's Rod Smart for the NFL's longest of the season, and becoming the ninth Cardinal to post a kickoff return of 100 yards or more but the first in 24 years. Scobey also set a Cardinal single-game record with nine kickoff returns November 16 at Cleveland, the NFL high for 2003.

The sure-handed Boldin handled punt-returning duties, averaging 6.5 yards on 20 returns.

Nathan Hodel was flawless as Arizona's long-snapper.

Notes From The Nest

Arizona's 30–27 setback vs. St. Louis on November 23 at Sun Devil Stadium was its first loss in its past five overtime outcomes ... the Cardinals played at Pittsburgh on November 9 for the first time since 1985 ... Arizona made first-time appearances at four new stadiums — Chicago's Soldier Field, Cleveland's Cleveland Browns Stadium, Detroit's Ford Field, and Pittsburgh's Heinz Field ... the Cards' opening-drive touchdown at Detroit in the season opener was their first in 95 games ... their 38–0 loss to Seattle the next week in the home opener was their first home shutout in 93 games and largest margin of defeat at home in 167 outings ... Cincinnati's 47 rushing yards against Arizona on November 2 was the Cards' lowest opponent rushing total in 65 games ... the Thanksgiving Sunday Cardinals-Bears contest at Chicago was the 87th meeting between the NFL's two charter franchises.

2003 GAME SUMMARIES

Lions 42, Cardinals 24

September 7, 2003 • Ford Field (60,691)

Arizona's 439 yards total offense and a spectacular NFL debut by wide receiver Anquan Boldin could not overcome a rash of mistakes—12 penalties (80 yards), 2 lost fumbles, 1 pass interception, 1 muffed punt, and 1 Lion punt return for a touchdown—that led to four Detroit touchdowns in a 7:22 span (late third, early fourth quarters) and a 42-24 season-opening loss. After playing to a 14-14 halftime draw, Boldin's 71-yard touchdown reception on Arizona's third play from scrimmage gave the Cards a 21-14 lead. Then the mistakes began. The Lions tied the score on a 57-yard Eddie Drummond punt return. Boldin muffed Detroit's next punt, leading to an eight-yard Lion touchdown pass two plays later and a 28-21 Detroit lead. Two turnovers by quarterback Jeff Blake on Arizona's first two fourth-quarter possessions led to two Lion touchdowns. On the first, Blake lost the ball attempting to throw, a fumble the Lions recovered and converted into a touchdown in six plays. Two plays later, Blake was intercepted by Detroit's Dre Bly who returned the pickoff 48 yards for a touchdown. Boldin amassed an NFL first-game rookie record 217 receiving yards on 10 receptions with two touchdowns. The 217 yards also rank second in Cardinal single-game receiving annals (256, Sonny Randle vs. N.Y. Giants, Nov. 4, 1962). Running back Emmitt Smith contributed 64 rushing yards on 13 carries in his Cardinal baptism, including bursts of 19 and 22 yards on Arizona's second scoring drive. Detroit's 42 points were the most by a Cardinal opening-day opponent since 1950 (45, Pittsburgh). Arizona recorded its first opening-drive touchdown in 95 games (Aug. 31, 1997 at Cincinnati) on a seven-yard pass from Blake to Boldin to take an early 7-0 lead.

Seahawks 38, Cardinals 0

September 14, 2003 • Sun Devil Stadium (23,127)

The Cardinals suffered their first home shutout in 93 games (28-0 vs. Minnesota, Oct. 27, 1991) and largest margin of defeat at home in 167 outings (52-10 vs. Philadelphia, Nov. 8, 1981) in their home-opener against Seattle. Six Arizona turnovers (four interceptions, two fumbles) caused most of the bleeding. Turnovers on the Cards' first four offensive possessions staked Seattle to a 14-0 lead. Sandwiched around two pass interceptions of Card quarterback Jeff Blake that Arizona weathered by forcing punts, Seattle recovered and returned the Cardinals' two lost fumbles 31 and 55 yards, the former to Arizona's six-yard line leading to Seattle's first touchdown three plays later, the latter a touchdown by Seahawk linebacker Randall Godfrey. Long touchdown passes of 55 and 66 yards from quarterback Matt Hasselbeck to wide receiver Darrell Jackson followed, accounting for 121 of Seattle's 323 total yards. Cardinal rookie receiver Anquan Boldin extended his NFL-leading reception total to 18 with eight catches for 62 yards. Fellow rookie Bryant Johnson added seven grabs for 68 yards. Josh McCown quarterbacked the Cardinals for most of the afternoon after starter Blake was forced from the contest with a bruised heel late in the first quarter. The second-year McCown completed 18 of 32 passes for 150 yards and two interceptions in his most extensive NFL playing time. Running back Josh Scobey averaged 30.4 yards on five kickoff returns, including a long of 52 yards, in his first NFL appearance. Punter Scott Player posted a 54-yard average, his career single-game best, an effort that included a 64-yard boot, the second longest of his career.

September 21, 2003 • Sun Devil Stadium (58,784)

The Cardinals rode a two-to-one second-half time-of-possession advantage (19:59-10:01) in 102-degree heat to notch their first 2003 victory. After dueling the Packers to a 10-10 halftime stalemate, the teams traded second-half field goals to knot the score at 13-13 with 11:08 remaining in the fourth quarter. That's when the Cardinals embarked on an 11-play, 68-yard game-winning march that fullback James Hodgins capped with his first Cardinal touchdown, a one-yard pass from quarterback Jeff Blake. Green Bay threatened to tie the game for the fourth time when it drove to Arizona's seven-yard line with 23 seconds to play. Two incomplete passes preceded the game's defining moment, free safety Dexter Jackson's game-clinching end-zone interception of Packer quarterback Brett Favre. Jackson's interception and a first-half fumble recovery by linebacker Ray Thompson, leading to Arizona's first touchdown four plays later, a one-yard run by Blake following a 38-yard reception to Green Bay's one-yard line by rookie wide receiver Anquan Boldin, were the Cardinals' first two defensive takeaways of the season. Boldin's five catches for 99 yards raised his season totals to 23 receptions for 378 yards, both NFL records for a rookie's first three games. The Cardinals converted eight of 13 (62 percent) third-down attempts. After a pass interception on their first possession, the Cardinals were turnover free the rest of the way after committing nine in their first two outings.

September 28, 2003 • Edward Jones Dome (65,758)

St. Louis dispatched Arizona with a relentless ball-control offense that produced four lopsided game-deciding statistical advantages—time of possession (42:27-17:33), first downs (34-7), plays (84-36), and total yards (401-161)—in the Rams' 37-13 triumph. The Rams methodically controlled the contest from the outset, scoring two touchdowns and two field goals in five first-half possessions. The Cardinals threatened in the third quarter when Josh Scobey returned Jeff Wilkins' fifth kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown, the ninth Cardinal in history with a return of 100 yards or more and the first in 24 years (106, Roy Green, NFL record at Dallas, Oct. 21, 1979). A missed Wilkins' field-goal attempt, a Scott Player punt to the Rams' one-yard line, and a St. Louis punt four plays later gave Arizona the ball back at the Rams' 44-yard line, trailing only 23-13 early in the fourth quarter. But quarterback Jeff Blake fumbled attempting to pass, a turnover that Ram defensive tackle Brian Young recovered and returned 21 yards to Arizona's 22-yard line. Four plays later, St. Louis posted the first of two clinching touchdowns. Arizona's only offensive touchdown was Emmitt Smith's first Cardinal six-pointer, a one-yard, fourth-down, second-quarter run. Rookie wide receiver Anquan Boldin caught seven team-leading passes for 86 yards, raising his season totals to 30 catches for 464 yards, making him the most prolific rookie receiver in NFL history through four games. Scobey's 252 kickoff-return yards shattered Arizona's single-game kickoff-return yardage record (207, Kevin Williams vs. Atlanta, Dec. 21, 1997).

Cowboys 24, Cardinals 7October 5, 2003 • Texas Stadium (63,601)

Ermitt Smith's anticipated return to Dallas was painful figuratively and literally as the Cardinals experienced a 24-7 setback and the future Hall of Fame running back suffered a second-quarter shoulder sprain that sidelined him for the rest of the game after gaining just two yards receiving and minus one yard rushing in eight touches of the ball. The Cardinals pedaled uphill most of the afternoon after the Cowboys tallied two touchdowns and a field goal beginning with their second possession of the first quarter. The first touchdown, a 51-yard pass from quarterback Quincy Carter to wide receiver Terry Glenn with 3:33 left in the first quarter, staked the Pokes to a lead they would not relinquish. It was the only Dallas score the Cardinals answered when Josh Scobey returned the ensuing kickoff 63 yards and quarterback Jeff Blake found wide receiver Bryan Gilmore with his first career touchdown reception, a 24-yarder three plays later. Arizona's comeback hopes were dashed at the outset of the second half when the Cards, trailing 17-7, saw their first three possessions end in interception and back-to-back safeties, both end-zone sacks of Blake on snaps from Arizona's one-yard line. For the second consecutive week, Arizona was on the short end of one-sided statistical comparisons—total yards (365–151), first downs (18–9), and time of possession (36:28–23:32). Linebacker Levar Fisher recorded his first career quarterback sack. Cornerback Renaldo Hill made his first interception of the season. Middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon's inspired effort included 14 team-leading total tackles (10 solos), his best single-game effort in 20 games (15 at Washington, Sept. 8, 2002).

Ravens 26, Cardinals 18October 2, 2003 • Sun Devil Stadium (24,193)

The opportunistic Ravens used two "big plays" to overcome an inspired Arizona defense that held Baltimore without an offensive touchdown, including rejections on four possessions and 16 plays inside the Cardinals' "red zone" (20-yard line) that resulted in only four field goals. The Ravens' two touchdowns came on special teams (blocked first-quarter Scott Player punt that Ed Reed recovered and returned 22 yards) and defense (Chris McAllister 83-yard third-quarter interception return). The Cardinals scored their two touchdowns on their first and final possessions. They started the day's scoring with a six-play, 74-yard opening drive capped by a 14-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jeff Blake to wide receiver Bryan Gilmore. A 12-yard touchdown pass from Blake to tight end Freddie Jones with 15 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter cut Baltimore's lead to eight points, the final 26-18 tally. In between, the Ravens tallied their two "big plays" and four field goals, all by Matt Stover. Arizona's only points between its early and late touchdowns were a 46-yard field goal by Tim Duncan on his first career attempt just before halftime. Running back Marcel Shipp recorded 61 yards rushing on 14 carries in his first start of the season for the injured Emmitt Smith. Rookie wide receiver Anquan Boldin's six receptions for 95 yards increased his season total to 39 NFC-leading catches for 592 NFL-leading yards. Bludgeoning Raven running back Jamal Lewis, the NFL's leading rusher, carried 21 times for 131 yards, including a long of 52 yards.

Cardinals 16, 49ers 13 (OT) October 26, 2003 • Sun Devil Stadium (40,824)

Running back Marcel Shipp spearheaded a bludgeoning Arizona rushing attack with 35 carries for 165 yards, both career highs, in the Cardinals' 16-13 overtime victory, their first triumph over San Francisco since 1992. Shipp's effort was the top performance by a Card runner since Ronald Moore's 36-carry (franchise record), 160-yard outing November 7, 1993 vs. Philadelphia. Arizona's 44-rush, 221-yard running game led to a tide-turning 37:56-27:03 time-of-possession advantage. The kicking game also played a pivotal role in the contest. San Francisco missed one point-after-touchdown attempt, two field-goal tries, and booted the overtime kickoff out of bounds; Arizona kicker Tim Duncan made three of six field-goal attempts. The Cards took their first lead at 7-6 with 3:52 to play in the first quarter when quarterback Jeff Blake completed a 12-play, 70-yard march with a one-yard leap. The Cards extended their lead, which they held until 7:12 remained in the fourth quarter, to 13-6 on two Duncan field goals, the first a career-long 53-yarder, longest by a Cardinal kicker since 1998 (Joe Nedney). However, a 73-yard 49er touchdown drive tied the contest at 13-13. A missed field goal by both teams on their final fourth-quarter possessions sent the contest into overtime. When San Francisco's kickoff went out of bounds, Arizona enjoyed field position at its own 40-yard line. Nine plays and 38 yards later, Duncan booted his first career game-winning field goal from 39 yards away. An inspired Cardinal defense limited the 49ers' vaunted rushing attack to only 106 yards on 27 carries. Safety Adrian Wilson's third-quarter blocked punt, the Cardinals' first since 1997 (Tony McCombs), led to Arizona's second field goal.

Cardinals 17, Bengals 14 November 2, 2003 • Sun Devil Stadium (23,531)

The Cardinals followed the same blueprint for the second consecutive week to dispatch the visiting Bengals. The Marcel Shipp-fueled rushing attack gained 161 of Arizona's 304 total yards, spelling a 34:52-25:08 time-of-possession advantage. Shipp's 29-carry, 141-yard rushing effort made him the first Cardinal to post back-to-back 100-yard rushing performances since Johnny Johnson in 1992 (156 vs. N.Y. Giants, 146 at Indianapolis), a span of 167 games. Shipp's showing also was the Cards' best individual two-game rushing total since 1996 (311, LeShon Johnson). Arizona marched 47 yards in eight plays for its third opening-drive touchdown of the season (following a 95-game drought), capped by a one-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jeff Blake to tight end Freddie Jones. Cincinnati answered with two touchdowns, a two-yard run by running back Rudi Johnson and a 15-yard pass from quarterback Jon Kitna to wide receiver Peter Warrick, to take a 14-7 lead. A 31-yard Tim Duncan field goal cut the Bengals' edge to 14-10 before halftime. Arizona marched 80 yards in 13 plays on its first third-quarter possession to score the second half's only points, a seven-yard touchdown pass from Blake to rookie wide receiver Anquan Boldin. The Cardinal defense limited Cincinnati to 47 yards rushing. Arizona's lowest opponent total in 65 games (42, vs. Detroit, Nov. 14, 1999) while posting its first second-half shutout in 15 outings (vs. Seattle, Nov. 10, 2002). The Bengals failed to cross midfield in five second-half possessions (26 plays), gaining only 88 total yards (12 rushing, 76 passing). Cornerback Renaldo Hill and free safety Dexter Jackson ended two of Cincinnati's second-half possessions with interceptions.

Steelers 28, Cardinals 15November 9, 2003 • Heinz Field (59,520)

Pittsburgh broke open a tight game with three touchdowns in the first 7:27 of the third quarter, then coasted in the Cardinals' first appearance at Pittsburgh since 1985. The outcome snapped Arizona's two-game winning streak and Pittsburgh's five-game losing skid. The Steelers struck twice in the first 2:51 of the third quarter, beginning the second half with two short-field possessions (Arizona's 27- and 22-yard lines) due to a short punt and fumble recovery, respectively. They converted with two touchdowns in three plays during a 67-second span, both passes from quarterback Tommy Maddox to wide receiver Hines Ward (five, 22 yards). Following the next two Cardinal possessions, Antwan Randle El returned a Scott Player punt 52 yards for a touchdown, swelling Pittsburgh's 7-3 halftime lead into a commanding 28-3 advantage at 6:33 of the third quarter. Arizona's two prize rookie wide receivers, Anquan Boldin and Bryant Johnson, tallied the Cards' two touchdowns on passes from quarterback Jeff Blake. Boldin's tally was an 11-yarder to cap a seven-play, 79-yard drive he highlighted with a 40-yard reception four plays prior to his touchdown. Johnson scored his first NFL touchdown on a 54-yard pass with only 17 seconds to play. Boldin caught eight passes for 118 yards, his second 100-yard effort in his ninth NFL outing. Running back Marcel Shipp gained 63 rushing yards on 22 carries, completing a three-game span of 86 touts, a modern-era Cardinal record. Blake posted his second 300-yard passing day as a Cardinal, completing 23 of 43 passes for 307 yards. His Steeler counterpart, Tommy Maddox, completed only 12 passes, but three were touchdowns.

Browns 44, Cardinals 6November 16, 2003 • Cleveland Browns Stadium (72,908)

Cleveland dominated Arizona from the outset, handing the Cardinals their 10th consecutive road loss in the Cards' first appearance at Cleveland Browns Stadium. The Browns tallied at least 10 points in every quarter while amassing one-sided statistical advantages in first downs (27-10), total yards (481-187), plays (68-46), yards passing (392-146), takeaways (4-0), and time of possession (39:33-20:27). While Cleveland was scoring two touchdowns and two field goals on its first four possessions, the Cards ran only 10 plays on their first three drives to spot the Browns a 20-0 lead with 4:14 remaining in the second quarter. Three of Arizona's final four possessions ended with a fumble and two interceptions. The Cardinals' longest drive was 57 yards, leading to their second field goal. The Browns, however, posted seven marches of 40 or more yards and four possessions of 62 or more yards. Cleveland quarterback Kelly Holcomb completed 29 of 35 passes (83 percent) for 392 yards and three touchdowns, including a long of 68 yards. Two Brown receivers, Andre Davis (117 yards) and Quincy Morgan (116 yards), posted 100-yard game, a first against Arizona in 48 games (Cris Carter, 119/Randy Moss, 104 at Minnesota, Nov. 12, 2000). Kicker Neil Rackers tallied Arizona's only points with two field goals (42, 26 yards) in his first appearance as a Cardinal. Anquan Boldin, the NFL's leading rookie receiver, inched closer to becoming the NFL's 12th 1,000-yard first-year receiver with four receptions for 86 yards, raising his season totals to 60 catches for 876 yards.

Rams 30, Cardinals 27 (OT)

November 23, 2003 • Sun Devil Stadium (42,089)

St. Louis assumed sole possession of first place in the NFC Western Division with a palpitating 30-27 overtime victory at Sun Devil Stadium, Arizona's third consecutive defeat but its first setback in its past five overtime outcomes. The Cardinals' inspired defensive effort against the high-powered Ram offense included two season bests—five takeaways (four interceptions, one fumble recovery) and four quarterback sacks (31 yards). But the Cards were unable to protect their late 27-24 lead when St. Louis ran the game's final 24 plays to kick tying (24 yards with 0:00 remaining in the fourth quarter) and winning (49 yards in overtime) field goals to conclude 16-play/82-yard and eight-play/55-yard drives, respectively. The Cards pedaled uphill most of the day after spotting St. Louis a 14-0 first-quarter lead. Cornerback Renaldo Hill and rookie wide receiver Anquan Boldin changed the game's momentum. Hill with two pass interceptions, Boldin with two touchdown receptions. Hill returned his first pickoff 70 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter and his second 26 yards to the Rams' 22-yard line at the outset of the fourth quarter to set the table for Boldin's game-tying three-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Jeff Blake. Minutes earlier on the last play of the third quarter, Blake found Boldin for a 54-yard touchdown. Boldin caught six passes for 123 yards to inch within one receiving yard of becoming the NFL's 12th 1,000-yard rookie. Running backs Marcel Shipp (Cards) and Marshall Faulk (Rams) duelled with nearly identical rushing statistics. Shipp posted 95 yards on 24 carries; Faulk answered with 100 yards on 24 totes.

November 30, 2003 • Soldier Field (61,550)

The Cardinals dropped their 11th consecutive road outing in their first appearance at rebuilt Soldier Field when the home-standing Bears tallied three fourth-quarter touchdowns to break open a defensive contest, the 87th meeting between the NFL's two charter franchises. After the Bears drove 96 yards in six plays with their first possession, highlighted by a 57-yard pass completion, to take a quick 7-0 lead, the Cardinals responded with a 32-yard Neil Rackers field goal on their ensuing 11-play, 57-yard march. Both offenses were quiet for the next two and one-half quarters, going scoreless in 15 consecutive combined possessions. But three fourth-quarter Cardinal turnovers (two interceptions, one fumble) awakened the Bears, who scored touchdowns on three straight drives, beginning with a 12-yard short field following a 29-yard interception return by R.W. McQuarters, and capped by another 34-yard short field following quarterback Jeff Blake's fumble. The Cardinal offense managed only nine first downs, running three plays or less on eight of 12 possessions, including five straight drives during the second and third quarters. Arizona failed to gain 200 total yards for the fourth time in 2003 and didn't register an offensive touchdown for the third time. Anquan Boldin became the NFL's 12th all-time 1,000-yard rookie receiver with his first reception, a seven-yard catch. Two unsung Bear rookies, runner Brock Forsey and wide receiver Justin Gage, seized their opportunities. Forsey, subbing for ill regular Anthony Thomas, gained 134 yards rushing and scored a touchdown on 27 carries. Gage caught four passes for 100 yards, including the 57-yarder in the first quarter, to become Chicago's first 100-yard receiver of the season. The pair became the Bears' first 100-yard rushing/receiving combination since 1997 and their first duo of rookies to combine for the accomplishment since 1965.

49ers 50, Cardinals 14December 7, 2003 • 3Com Park (66,975)

Arizona suffered its 12th consecutive road loss, a one-sided 50-14 setback at San Francisco decided quickly when the 49ers scored five first-half touchdowns to lead 34-0 at intermission. San Francisco quarterback Jeff Garcia accounted for the first six of seven 49er touchdowns—four passing, two rushing. Running back Kevan Barlow, in his first career start (for injured regular Garrison Hearst), posted his first 100-yard rushing effort with 154 yards and one touchdown on 18 carries. The Niners amassed 496 total yards in balanced fashion (264 yards passing, 232 rushing), accumulating 302 total yards by halftime. The 49ers recorded first downs on seven of their first 10 plays and gained 41 or more yards on eight possessions, scoring touchdowns on seven of those drives. Eight 49ers caught passes, led by Terrell Owens' seven catches for 92 yards and two touchdowns. While the Cardinal defense was overwhelmed, Arizona's offense did little to stem the tide, gaining two or less net yards on seven possessions and failing to score until late in the third quarter. By then, reserve quarterback Josh McCown had replaced starter Jeff Blake. McCown, playing the entire second half, drove the Cards to their two touchdowns, the first a six-play, 66-yard march capped by a three-yard pass to fullback James Hodgins, the second a 15-play, 94-yard final-possession drive that rookie Anquan Boldin punctuated with a 16-yard touchdown reception. The scores were McCown's first two career touchdown passes. Boldin posted his fourth 100-yard receiving day by catching nine passes for 123 yards and his late touchdown.

Panthers 20, Cardinals 17December 14, 2003 • Sun Devil Stadium (23,217)

The Cardinals won the battle but lost the war in their sixth consecutive loss. Carolina's John Kasay booted a 49-yard field goal with four seconds remaining to give the Panthers a 20-17 victory and the NFC Southern Division title in their first Arizona appearance. The Cards enjoyed advantages in most statistical categories—first downs (23-17), plays (69-51), offensive possessions (11-9), total yards (317-298), rushing yards (170-67), and time of possession (37:54-22:06)—and broke even in giveaway-takeaway ratio (one interception, one fumble apiece). Arizona quarterback Josh McCown, in his first NFL start, ran for the Cardinals' first touchdown, a 16-yard first-quarter scamper that tied the contest at 7-7 and offset his earlier interception that Carolina strong safety Mike Minter returned 35 yards for the Panthers' opening six points. Arizona took a 14-7 halftime lead on running back Emmitt Smith's four-yard second-quarter touchdown, his first home score as a Cardinal. Carolina answered with the first 10 second-half points (21-yard Kasay field goal, 31-yard DeShaun Foster touchdown reception). The Cards then drove within field-goal range twice. Neil Rackers missed the first attempt (35 yards) but made the second (44 yards) with 1:09 to play to knot the contest at 17-17. Panther quarterback Jake Delhomme completed six of eight passes for all 49 yards on Carolina's game-winning march, including a key clock-stopping seven-yard toss to wide receiver Steve Smith with eight seconds and no timeouts remaining that barely pulled Carolina within field-goal range. McCown completed 14 of 25 passes for 172 yards. He also ran seven times for 47 yards. Marcel Shipp (23-89) and Smith (9-23) combined for 112 yards rushing. Anquan Boldin's seven receptions raised his total to 66 to inch within four catches of equalling the NFL single-season rookie record.

Seahawks 28, Cardinals 10

December 21, 2003 • Seahawks Stadium (64,899)

The Cardinals' 28-10 loss at Seattle was their seventh consecutive setback and their 13th straight on the road. Arizona never seriously threatened after failing to score following four Seahawk turnovers (two interceptions, two fumbles) and three trips inside Seattle's "red zone" (two missed field goal, one sack-and-fumble). The Seahawks took quick command with touchdowns on three of its first four possessions, highlighted by running back Shaun Alexander's 44-yard dash for the third six-pointer. At halftime, the Seahawks already boasted 271 total yards (147 passing, 124 rushing) to lead 21-3. Wide receiver Anquan Boldin made history with his fifth reception of the day in the third quarter, an 11-yard gain in front of the Arizona bench, to become the most prolific rookie receiver in NFL history. He finished the day with 10 receptions for 122 yards and one touchdown, a 60-yarder from quarterback Josh McCown in the fourth quarter for the Cards' only six-pointer. Boldin raised his season reception total to 96, bettering Terry Glenn's 90-catch record for New England in 1996. Neil Rackers tallied Arizona's only other points with a 49-yard second-quarter field goal. McCown was 25-for-40 for 274 yards passing in his first road start. He also led the Cardinals in rushing with 38 yards on eight carries, a team first in 41 games (35 yards, Jake Plummer at Dallas, Oct. 28, 2001). McCown endured eight sacks (-54 yards), the most against the Cardinals in 52 outings (8 at Philadelphia, Nov. 19, 2000). Alexander became the fourth Card opponent runner in five weeks to crack 100 rushing yards with 135 yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns. Cornerback Rinaldo Hill and strong safety Dexter Jackson each logged their fifth interceptions of the season, careers bests for both.

Cardinals 18, Vikings 17

December 28, 2003 • Sun Devil Stadium (52,734)

The Cardinals snapped their seven-game losing streak in dramatic fashion, scoring touchdowns on their final two possessions in the game's final two minutes, including the last six-pointer as time expired, to knock Minnesota out of the playoffs. Arizona took a 6-0 halftime lead on two Neil Rackers field goals (22, 26 yards), its first first-half shutout in 25 games, then watched the Vikings tally the second half's first 17 points. Facing a 17-6 deficit, the Cards drove 60 yards in 14 plays midway through the fourth quarter, a march highlighted by wide receiver Nate Poole's 37-yard reception and capped by tight end Steve Bush's two-yard touchdown reception on fourth-and-one from Minnesota's two-yard line. Only 1:54 remained. Rackers' onside kickoff was recovered by Damien Anderson at Arizona's 39-yard line. A 30-yard pass interference penalty on the ensuing play gave the Cards a first-and-10 at Minnesota's 31-yard line. Arizona's next three plays gained 22 yards. The Cards were second-and-six from the nine-yard line with 39 seconds to play. Quarterback Josh McCown was sacked on the next two plays. Without a timeout and the clock ticking toward 0:00, McCown took the final snap from the Vikings' 28-yard line with four seconds remaining. He lofted a pass toward the corner of the end zone that Poole caught for the game-winning touchdown as he was forced out of bounds by Minnesota defenders as time expired. Rookie wide receiver Anquan Boldin's five receptions raised his season total to 101, equalling the Cardinals' single-season record of fullback Larry Centers (1995) and bettering David Boston's 98-catch wide receiver best (2001).

CLUB HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

The Cardinals, founded in 1898 and a charter member of the National Football League, hold the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation.

The Early Days

The team boasts a colorful history. Fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The franchise began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien, finding a bargain, bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born.

Former Cardinal owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations once again in 1918. Following Armistice Day, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football landscape in America.

Growth

The Racine Cardinals, their popularity growing in the Chicago area, eventually became one of 11 charter members of the American Professional Football League, forerunner of the NFL, in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee. Immediately after joining the league, O'Brien lured a great halfback, John "Paddy" Driscoll, to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He also coached the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career during the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks. Horween's claim to fame, however, would occur many years later. In 1996, the retired lawyer, who was born in Chicago on August 3, 1896, became the National Football League's first centenarian. He died in 1997.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park that they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

The Illinois champion Cardinals of 1902.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record. (NFL postseason play began in 1933.)

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the crosstown Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 composite record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Modern Era

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and a new era began.

However, the team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field. The Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals' top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—entered military service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

The 1947 Championship Season

In the flush of post-World War II, the 1947 Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and the NFL championship.

But the title season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization. In April, the death of Bidwill, the club's spearhead since taking over as owner in 1933 who helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression," deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

But he still earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was Bidwill's unprecedented signing of University of Georgia all-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of

Just two seasons earlier in 1945, the Cardinals as a team were outscored for the entire season by Philadelphia's premier running back, Steve Van Buren, 110-98. But the following year, the third-winningest coach in Cardinals' history, the omni-talented Jimmy Conzelman, led Chicago out of the wilderness to a 6-5 mark, the club's first winning season since 1935.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding churning Wisconsin fullback Harder, Angsman of Notre Dame, and brilliant end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Bill Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football and the "dean" of the "Million-Dollar Backfield." Also a running back, Goldberg, a two-time all-America at Pittsburgh, had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, a run that included a 31-7 trouncing of the hated crosstown rival Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles on a trip heavy with fate. They incurred their first loss of the season, 27-7 to the Rams, but lost something far more precious than a game.

Rookie punter Jeff Burkett suffered an appendicitis attack and missed the game as well as the team plane back to Chicago. He spent several days recuperating after an appendectomy before boarding a United Airlines DC-6 bound for home. He never made it. The plane crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time of the tragedy with a 47.4-yard average.

Under the pall of the loss of Burkett, the Cardinals climbed to 7-3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7-3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45-21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the Bears, who, ironically and poetically, stood as the only remaining obstacle between the Cardinals and their first Western Division crown. A showdown loomed for the regular-season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field on Chicago's North Side.

If the '47 Cardinals' miracle season could be summarized in a single moment, the opening play of that division decider unquestionably would receive the vote. It was the creation of mastermind Conzelman, a pass play designed to give the Cardinals an advantage at the outset. In a best-case scenario, the stratagem would isolate Bears' left-side linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with Boris "Babe" Dimancheff, a blistering speedster who was Trippi's replacement. Conzelman eagerly looked forward to rehearsing the play all week before the big game, but nature did not cooperate. Dimancheff's wife was expecting, and he missed the entire week of practice to be at her side. He did not rejoin the team until the day before the game.

Running back Elmer Angsman starred for the Cardinals from 1946-52. He authored two long touchdown runs in the 1947 NFL championship game.

The 1947 Cardinals won the NFL championship with a 10–3 overall record. They bettered the Philadelphia Eagles 28–21 at Chicago's Comiskey Park in the NFL's 15th title contest.

The biggest play of the season for the soon-to-be-champion Cardinals never had a single dry run.

The stunning game-opening play worked to perfection anyway. Dimancheff ran a flair pattern, turned outside the end, then raced down the center of the field. He outdistanced Holovak, caught Christman's perfect pass, and galloped into the end zone despite stumbling over the baseball pitcher's mound.

The Cardinals also intercepted four passes by legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win.

Victories over the Bears were especially sweet. A sore spot with the Cardinals was their inescapable status as Chicago's "other" team.

The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

The NFL's 15th championship game opened with a surprise controversy and was studded with more big-play touchdowns on the ground than any NFL title game or Super Bowl since.

On December 28, 1947, a grim, frozen Comiskey Park gave little indication of the approaching heat of the day's upcoming war. Even the preliminaries generated sparks. Pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles, in attempts to get better gripping on the concrete-like playing surface, had sharpened and filed their cleats. A succession of penalties for the blatant rules infraction opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale.

The Cardinals quietly had slipped into tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three devastating back-breaking long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi.

In the third period, Trippi circled under a high Joe Muha punt, taking it on his own 25-yard line. Spectacularly side-stepping three Eagle pursuers, Trippi pranced 75 yards for a touchdown, getting hit three times along the way.

Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals. The change was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The top 10 single-game home crowds in franchise history have watched the Cardinals in Sun Devil Stadium, including the largest, a throng of 73,025 that saw the Cards face Dallas on September 19, 1993.

The 1995 season also marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad, one of the NFL's youngest teams, ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought and notched the Cardinals' first postseason victory since 1947 with a 20–7 victory over the Cowboys at Texas Stadium.

Pivotal 2000 Campaign

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise.

On Election Day, November 7, 2000, voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation. The 454,785 "yes" votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

Heritage

The list of former Cardinals enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame reached 14 in 1996 when former offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf joined the elite group. The University of Michigan product, currently a CBS-TV NFL color analyst, played every down of his illustrious 13-year (1971–83) career as a Cardinal.

The others are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Conzelman, Driscoll, Kiesling, Curly Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Nevers, Jackie Smith, Jim Thorpe, Trippi, and Larry Wilson. ■

RETIRED JERSEYS

Pat Tillman Safety 40

Professional—Fierce competitor defied odds as seventh-round draft choice in 1998 to become three-year starting safety and establish franchise single-season record with 224 tackles in 2000 ... successfully converted from college linebacker to pro defensive back ... named All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 2000 ... in 1998 became first rookie starting safety for Cardinals since team relocated to Arizona in 1988 ... left the Cardinals prior to 2002 season to enlist in U.S. Army and become member of elite Army Ranger unit, as did his brother, Kevin, who tabled a professional baseball career in the Cleveland Indians organization ... admirably declined all media attention throughout tour of duty ... killed April 22, 2004 in Afghanistan.

College—Local favorite during college career at Arizona State University ... Pac-10 Conference defensive player-of-the-year in 1997 ... key member of Sun Devils' 1996 Rose Bowl squad ... three-year starting linebacker ... selected by Cardinals in seventh round (226th overall) of 1998 NFL Draft.

Etc.—Born Nov. 6, 1976 in Fremont, Calif. ... graduated summa cum laude in three and one-half years with marketing degree from ASU with 3.84 grade-point-average with academic all-America honors ... outdoors enthusiast also competed in triathlons as part of training regimen.

Larry Wilson Safety 8

Professional—One of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history ... enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1978 ... named to the all-time NFL team in 1994 to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary ... played entire career as a Cardinal in St. Louis (1960-72) ... played in eight Pro Bowls ... all-NFL six times ... 52 career interceptions ... cat-like defender and exceptional team leader ... interceptions in seven consecutive games in 1966 ... NFL's top free safety during 13-year career ... made the safety blitz famous.

College—Utah ... 6-0, 190 ... two-way star for Utes from 1957-60 ... seventh-round draft pick by St. Louis Cardinals in 1960.

Etc.—Born March 24, 1938 in Rigby, Idaho. ... regarded as one of the toughest players in NFL history ... once intercepted a pass for a go-ahead touchdown with two broken wrists ... retired in 2003, ending 43-year NFL career, all as a Cardinal.

J.V. Cain Tight End 88

Professional—Doubled at tight end and wide receiver for the St. Louis Cardinals (1974-77) ... part of Head Coach Don Coryell's messenger service as a rookie wide receiver in 1974 ... replaced Hall of Famer Jackie Smith at tight end in mid-1975 ... caught passes in 12 of 13 games in 1976 ... one-handed touchdown catch in 1977 provided margin of victory in 16-13 win over Chicago ... died after collapsing from a heart condition at training camp in 1979.

College—Colorado ... 6-4, 220 ... all-America ... two-time All-Big 8 Conference selection ... caught 53 passes for 700 yards during junior and senior seasons ... first-round draft choice of the Cardinals in 1974.

Etc.—Born July 22, 1951 in Houston, Texas ... played in the East-West and Hula Bowl games.

Stan Mauldin Tackle 77

Professional—Tackle for the Chicago Cardinals (1946-48) ... opened holes in the line with hard-hitting bulk for the Cardinals' "Million-Dollar Backfield" ... member of the Cards' 1947 NFL championship team ... died of a heart attack after opening-day victory over the Eagles in 1948.

College—Texas ... 6-2, 215 ... all-America tackle for the Longhorns ... winner of the Outstanding Athlete Trophy in 1942 ... one of Texas' "13 Immortals" in 1940.

Etc.—Born December 27, 1920 in Amarillo, Texas ... flew bombing missions with the 15th Air Force Division over Italy during World War II.

Marshall Goldberg Running Back/Def. Back 99

Professional—All-round player who starred as a ball carrier, defensive back, and return specialist for the Chicago Cardinals (1939-43, '46-48) ... second team all-pro selection in 1941 ... NFL mid-season rushing, punt and kickoff return, and interception leader in 1941 ... career statistics included 1,644 yards rushing in 476 attempts for 11 touchdowns, and 60 pass receptions for 776 yards and five touchdowns ... member of Cards' 1947 NFL championship team.

College—Pittsburgh ... 5-11, 195 ... two-time consensus all-America halfback at Pitt.

Etc.—Born October 24, 1917 in Elkins, West Virginia ... 1980 inductee into the Jewish Hall of Fame in Tel Aviv, Israel ... playing career interrupted for two years (1944-45) during World War II when he served in the Navy ... nicknamed "Biggie."

Notes

NFL approves Cards' move from Chicago to St. Louis on March 13 ... team plays in 34,000-seat Sportsman's Park ... with no regular practice site, the team practices at an open field at a city park ... running back John David Crow breaks Ollie Matson's single-season rushing mark with 1,071 yards ... Crow sets franchise single-game mark that stood for 35 years with 203 yards vs. Pittsburgh on Dec. 18 ... Cards lead NFL in rushing with 2,356 yards (196.3 yards per game) and in rushing defense, allowing 1,212 yards (101 yards per game) ... defense also leads league, allowing 252.4 yards per game, 158 first downs, and just 56 first downs rushing ... wide receiver Sonny Randle leads NFL with club-record 15 touchdowns receiving on 62 receptions ... little-known Utah halfback Larry Wilson, selected in seventh round of draft, converts to safety due to injuries.

Notes

Cards sign decade-long CFL passing leader Sam Etcheberry and trade quarterback John Roach for running back Prentice Gault and wide receiver Taz Anderson ... Gault and Anderson enjoy productive Cardinal careers ... Etcheberry, who passed for 30,381 yards and 183 touchdowns in nine seasons for the Montreal Alouettes, hurts his arm in training camp ... coupled with running back John David Crow's broken ankle, Cards finish 7-7 ... Head Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy resigns with two games remaining ... Cards win both remaining contests as assistants Chuck Drulis, Ray Prochaska, and Ray Willsey assume coaching reins ... during the season, Drulis and his prize pupil, second-year safety Larry Wilson, perfected the safety blitz.

Notes

Violet Wolfner Bidwill, widow of Card owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., passes away ... sons Bill and Charles (Stormy) Bidwill become legal owners and retain their titles of president (Stormy) and vice-president (Bill) ... Wally Lemm, a former Cardinal assistant coach, selected head coach ... Charley Johnson, a "future" draft pick in 1960, becomes starting quarterback in the fifth game of the season and sets team records for pass attempts (308), completions (150), and yardage (2,440) ... he also sets single-game mark with 386 yards against Philadelphia on Dec. 16 as Cards (589 yards total offense) and Eagles (498 yards) combine for 1,087 total yards, the second-highest total in NFL history ... Bobby Joe Conrad switches from running back to flanker and catches 62 passes to tie a club record set two years earlier by Sonny Randle ... Randle sets pair of team marks with 16 receptions for 256 yards at N.Y. Giants on Nov. 4.

Notes

Boostered by an exceptional draft, the Cardinals finish 9-5, their best record since 1948 ... eight draftees—and Don Brumm, linebacker Dave Meggsey, tackle Bob Reynolds, defensive tackle Sam Silas, tight end Jackie Smith, linebacker Larry Stallings, defensive back Jerry Stovall, and running back Bill Thornton—become multi-year starters ... flanker Bobby Joe Conrad catches club-record 73 passes for 967 yards with 10 touchdowns ... quarterback Charley Johnson sets four team single-season passing marks—attempts (423), completions (222), yardage (3,280) and touchdowns (26), still a club record tied by Neil Lomax in 1984 ... ground broken for a multi-purpose stadium in St. Louis.

Notes

Cards spun overture from Atlanta to relocate to the South with promise of a new stadium ... Cards improve to 9-3-2 record, second in NFL's Eastern Conference to eventual NFL champion Cleveland's 10-3-1 mark ... Cards gain life and victory, however, against Browns during regular-season play ... cornerback Pat Fischer earns all-pro honors with 10 interceptions, second in the league ... quarterback Charley Johnson finishes season throwing a touchdown pass in 11 consecutive games and pushes the streak to 16 straight in 1965 ... Cards defeat Green Bay 24-17 at Miami in non-advancing Playoff Bowl between second-place finishers in each conference ... World Series conflict with baseball Cardinals moves Oct. 12 home game vs. Colts to Baltimore.

Notes

Alabama all-America quarterback Joe Namath is Cards' first-round draft pick, but the flashy passer opts to sign with rival AFL's New York Jets ... Cards win four of first five games, but injuries to quarterback Charley Johnson, starting running backs Prentice Gautt and Joe Childress, and defensive backs Larry Wilson and Larry Stovall take a toll and the team slides to 5-9 ... Wilson sets team mark with 96-yard interception return for a touchdown vs. Cleveland on Dec. 19 ... a few weeks earlier, with casts on both hands, Wilson intercepts a Bill Nelsen pass against Pittsburgh on Nov. 7 ... Wally Lemm announces after the final game he will not return as head coach.

Notes

Charley Winner named head coach ... team begins play in newly-opened Busch Memorial Stadium, featuring artificial turf and a seating capacity of 51,392 ... record crowd of 50,673 views 10-10 tie with Dallas on Oct. 16, an attendance mark that would stand for four seasons ... Cards begin season 7-1-1, but another injury to quarterback Charley Johnson, and subsequent injuries to wide receiver Sonny Randle, cornerback Pat Fischer, and offensive linemen Bob DeMarco, Ken Gray, and Irv Goode result in 8-5-1 mark ... safety Larry Wilson leads NFL with 10 interceptions and ties another mark with thefts in seven consecutive games ... Cardinals score just 52 points in final five games ... Cards are victims of Atlanta's first home victory as a new franchise, a 16-10 Falcon win Dec. 11.

Notes

NFL expands to 16 teams ... Cards join Century Division of the Eastern Conference with Cleveland, New York, and Pittsburgh ... wide receiver Sonny Randle is traded to San Francisco ... quarterback Charley Johnson and linebacker Larry Stallings are inducted into the Army two days before the first preseason game ... kicker Jim Bakken leads NFL with 117 points (most for a kicker) on 27-of-39 field goals and 36-of-36 extra points ... he also sets NFL single-game record with nine field-goal attempts (made seven) vs. Pittsburgh Sept. 24 ... tight end Jackie Smith posts 1,205 receiving yards on 56 receptions for club record and impressive 21.5-yard average per catch ... Cards finish 6-7-1 but witness starting debut of former taxi squad free agent from Southern Illinois, quarterback Jim Hart ... John Omohundro, then an assistant to trainer Jack Rockwell, begins a tenure with the Cards that continues 37 years later.

Notes

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery. Cards limp to 4-9-1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183). Defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons. Safety Larry Wilson sets team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay Dec. 21 that stands until 2000. Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51-42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium Nov. 2. The combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined single-game scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Card individual and opponent marks.

Notes

Bob Holloway named head coach ... Cards draft cornerback Norm Thompson, offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf, and wide receiver Mel Gray ... Thompson will start for seven seasons, Dierdorf becomes six-time Pro Bowler and member of Pro Football Hall of Fame, and Gray logs 12 seasons, highlighted by a stretch of receptions in 121 consecutive games from 1973-82 ... Eagles' kicker Tom Dempsey sets then Card opponent record with 54-yard field goal Dec. 12 ... Gray completes rookie season with eye-popping averages of 28 yards on two rushing attempts, 29.7 yards on 18 pass receptions with four touchdowns, and 24.7 yards on 30 kickoff returns.

Notes

William V. Bidwill gains full ownership of the franchise ... assistant coach Chuck Drulis collapses of a heart attack on the team charter airplane returning from a preseason game at Houston ... he is pronounced dead following an emergency landing in Little Rock, Ark. ... safety Larry Wilson doubles as player and assistant coach, then two weeks before the end of the season he announces his retirement after 13 seasons ... quarterback Jim Hart connects with Ahmad Rashad (nee Bobby Moore) for a 98-yard pass play vs. L.A. Rams Dec. 10, the longest non-scoring pass play in NFL history.

Notes

Led by Pro Bowl offensive linemen Dan Dierdorf, Conrad Dobler, and Tom Banks, Cards win a second consecutive NFC Eastern Division title with an 11-3 mark, a franchise best since an 11-1 record by the 1948 team... fullback Jim Otis leads the NFC in rushing with 1,076 yards, running back/kick returner Terry Metcalf—a consensus NFL most valuable player—sets league record with 2,462 combined yards, and quarterback Jim Hart performs behind an offensive line that ties an NFL record by allowing just eight quarterback sacks... wide receiver Mel Gray catches controversial touchdown pass from Hart with 25 seconds left in regulation, known as the "Phantom Catch"; to send game into overtime as Cards win 20-17 over Washington... Cards travel to Los Angeles to face Rams in playoff contest and lose 35-23 after trailing 26-9 at halftime... seven offensive players go to the Pro Bowl (Dierdorf, Dobler, Banks, Hart, Metcalf, Gray, and Otis).

Notes

Despite 10-4 record (6-1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to qualify for playoffs ... Cards defeat N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington at Dallas later that day ... but the Redskins win 27-14 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFC to go 10-4 and not gain a postseason berth ... eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker ... Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America ... Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington Oct. 25.

Notes

Though saddled with a 1-3 start, Head Coach Don Coryell rallies his troops to six consecutive victories and a 7-3 record ending the final stretch of the season... four losses, however, drop the Cards to 7-7 and Coryell abandons the Midwest to join the San Diego Chargers... QB Jim Hart sets club mark with 12 consecutive pass completions vs. Chicago Sept. 25... FB Wayne Morris rushes for 182 yards on 27 carries on Nov. 6 at Minnesota, the fourth-highest single-game effort in team history... Cards deal 8-0 Dallas its first defeat of the season, a 24-17 decision in Texas Stadium before a "Monday Night Football" audience Nov. 14... Miami quarterback Bob Griese ties Card opponent mark with six touchdown passes in 55-14 Dolphin win Nov. 24.

Notes

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama LB E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State QB Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel RB Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards...all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice...Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7-9...return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and equals two NFL records...Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

Notes

A second consecutive jackpot draft class of UCLA
T Luis Sharpe (first round), Florida DT David
Galloway (second round), Alabama S Benny Perrin
(third round), and East Tennessee State FB Earl Ferrell (fifth round) will average over eight years per player, all four earning near-immediate starting roles
... Cards become youngest team in NFL to qualify for the Super Bowl tournament in strike-shortened season with 5-4 record ... NFL players walk out Sept. 19 after second game of the season due to labor strike ... play does not resume until Nov. 21 ...
Cards lose 41-16 at Green Bay in first-round action as Card QB Neil Lomax sets league postseason record with 385 yards passing.

NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to nine. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based upon their records during the season.

Notes

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23-7 halftime deficit to take a 27-26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29-27 win and the division crown ... in the torrid comeback at Washington, QB Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half ... Cards finish 9-7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points ... Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating ... WR Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

Notes

After 18 seasons in St. Louis (1960-87), Cards relocate to Arizona to play in Sun Devil Stadium at Arizona State University ... Hall of Famer Larry Wilson named vice president and general manager ... victories over three most recent Super Bowl champions—N.Y. Giants, Washington, and San Francisco—and 7-4 start (best since 1976) overshadowed by five consecutive losses to end season ... signature victory by overcoming 23-0 third-quarter deficit to down San Francisco 24-23 on a touchdown pass from QB Neil Lomax to WR Roy Green with three seconds left ... a national "Monday Night Football" audience and capacity Sun Devil Stadium crowd witness the Cards' inaugural regular-season game in Arizona, a 17-14 Dallas victory ... Cards gain first home victory in new venue with 30-21 upset of defending Super Bowl champion Washington Sept. 25.

Notes

After a 2-0 start and 5-5 mark after 10 games, Head Coach Gene Stallings resigns after 37-14 loss to L.A. Rams dips Cards' slate to 5-6. Cards lose next five games under interim head coach Hank Kuhlmann... QB Neil Lomax forced to sidelines for entire season due to career-ending arthritis condition in left hip... only four Cardinals start all 16 games as 21 players who started at least one game miss playing time... Cards sweep first season series against Cowboys since 1970 with 19-10 win at Dallas and 24-20 victory in Arizona... FB Ron Wolfley named to unprecedented fourth consecutive Pro Bowl for kamikaze-like play on special teams.

Notes

Encouragement from 4-0 preseason record and 2-0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4-12, the most losses in franchise history. • QB Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery. • Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting DT Eric Swann despite no college playing experience. Little-known Southern University walk-on CB Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991. • LB Eric Hill returns a fumble 65 yards for a touchdown in season-opener at L.A. Rams Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

Notes

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4-12 season ... defense allows lowest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) ... CB Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) ... Pro Bowl P Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

Notes

A 5-3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7-9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job ... rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth ... defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 ... first-round draft pick RB Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game ... Pittsburgh (Kan.) State rookie RB Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns ... Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) ... franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17-10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 ... Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17-10 victory Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

Notes

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4-12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job. defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries. Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) - low light of season off expansion Carolina Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest output in 40 years. ... FB Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record. ... Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

Notes

Improvement from 4-12 to 7-9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach ... RB LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—an en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards ... QB Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third-most in league history) in 37-34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Redskins on Nov. 10 ... O-R N.Y. Jets secure the only victory of their 1-15 season with 31-21 win at Arizona Oct. 27 ... first-round draft pick, Illinois DE Simeon Rice, sets Cardinal mark and equals their league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

Notes

RB Mario Bates' nine rushing touchdowns a team best since 1993 ... K Chris Jacke's 31-yard game-winning field goal in season-opener at Philadelphia makes him the first NFL kicker to win four consecutive regular-season games with walk-off three-pointers ... Mac Cody's 11.7-yard punt-return average leads NFC ... WR Frank Sanders' 13 receptions in finale at Green Bay most by a Card since 1962 ... RB Michael Pittman logs 133 rushing yards against Detroit in first career start ... MLB Ronald McKinnon becomes first Cardinal to crack 200-tackle plateau (223 total stops) ... OLB Rob Fredrickson sets franchise modern-day record with 22 total tackles vs. N.Y. Jets and becomes first Card linebacker to return an interception for a touchdown since 1987.

Notes

Defensive coordinator Dave McGinnis replaces Head Coach Vince Tobin on an interim basis after seven games ... McGinnis is named permanent head coach Dec. 18 ... Maricopa Co. voters approve new multi-purpose stadium on Election Day, Nov. 7 ... 103 starter games lost by injuries to 17 players ... fewest victories and lowest winning percentage since 1959 ... CB Aeneas Williams appears in 160th consecutive game to end season, the longest streak by a position player in franchise history ... he also authors a 104-yard fumble return for a touchdown Nov. 5 vs. Washington to equal the NFL record ... SS Pat Tillman (224) and middle MLB Ronald McKinnon (208) become the first pair of Cards to crack 200 single-season total tackles ... McKinnon also becomes the first Card to register 200-plus total tackles in consecutive seasons ... WR MarTay Jenkins sets NFL single-season records with 82 kickoff returns for 2,186 yards ... Jenkins posts Cards' first kickoff return for a touchdown in 21 years Nov. 12 at Minnesota ... QB Jake Plummer becomes the fastest Cardinal to 10,000 career passing yards in his 47th NFL game Nov. 5 vs. Washington.

Notes

Cards join NFC West Division after 32 seasons in the NFC East... first 3-2 start since 1991, first 4-2 getaway since 1998 precede injury sieges... 95 starter and replacement starter games lost to injury most on offense... 41 players start games... Freddie Jones first light end to lead team in receptions since 1973... RB Marcel Shipp rushing leader (834 yards) in only six starts plus 80-yard touchdown reception at St. Louis. Cards' longest play from scrimmage since 1988... MLB Ronald McKinnon leads Arizona in tackles for fourth consecutive season... FS Adrian Wilson intercepts three passes against Dallas to share NFL single-game high... Arizona beats Dallas 9-6 without a touchdown, a franchise first in 123 games... the Cards' 49-0 loss at Kansas City the most one-sided setback in franchise history, their first shutout in 105 games, and the largest margin in the NFL since 1969... final political hurdles cleared to begin construction of new $355.3 million stadium in Glendale in west suburban Maricopa County... S Pat Tillman declines new multi-year contract offer to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training.

Notes

Second-round draft choice Anquan Boldin becomes most prolific rookie receiver in NFL history with 101 receptions, while his 1,377 receiving yards most by NFL rookie in 43 years ... 217 receiving yards in season opener at Detroit most by player in first NFL game ... Emmitt Smith, the NFL's all-time rushing leader, signs two-year contract with Cardinals but a shoulder injury limits him to just six starting roles ... Super Bowl MVP Dexter Jackson lured from Tampa Bay as free agent and leads team with six interceptions ... Cards forge 4-4 mark at home, but 0-8 road record results in 4-12 finish and dismissal of third-year Head Coach Dave McGinnis ... Josh McCown handed quarterback duties late in season and guides Arizona to 18-17 victory in season finale vs. Minnesota with 28-yard touchdown pass to Nate Poolle, knocking Vikings out of playoffs ... construction begins on new $355.3 million stadium in Glendale in west suburban Maricopa County ... S. Pat Tillman, who left the Cardinals to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training prior to 2002 season, is killed April 22 in Afghanistan.

OVERTIME GAMES

October 26, 2003 • Sun Devil Stadium (40,824)

Running back Marcel Shipp spearheaded a bludgeoning Arizona rushing attack with 35 carries for 165 yards, both career highs, in the Cardinals' 16-13 overtime victory, their first triumph over San Francisco since 1982. Shipp's effort was the top performance by a Card runner since Ronald Moore's 36-carry (franchise record), 160-yard outing November 7, 1993 vs. Philadelphia. Arizona's 44-rush, 221-yard running game led to a tide-turning 37-56-27.03 time-of-possession advantage. The kicking game also played a pivotal role in the contest. San Francisco missed one point-after-touchdown attempt, two field-goal tries and booted the overtime kickoff out of bounds; Arizona kicker Tim Duncan made three of six field-goal attempts. The Cards took their first lead at 7-6 with 3:52 to play in the first quarter when quarterback Jeff Blake completed a 12-play, 70-yard march with a one-yard leap. The Cards extended their lead, which they held until 7:12 remained in the fourth quarter, to 13-6 on two Arizona field goals, the first a career-long 53-yarder, longest by a Cardinal kicker since 1998 (Joe Nease). However, a 73-yard 49er touchdown drive tied the contest at 13-13. A missed field goal by both teams on their final fourth-quarter possessions sent the contest into overtime. When San Francisco's kickoff went out of bounds, Arizona enjoyed field position at its own 40-yard line. Nine plays and 38 yards later, Duncan booted his first career game-winning field goal from 39 yards away. An inspired Cardinal defense limited the 49ers' vaunted rushing attack to only 106 yards on 27 carries. Safety Adrian Wilson's third-quarter blocked punt, the Cardinals' first since 1997 (Tony McCombs), led to Arizona's second field goal.

Rams 30, Cardinals 27

November 23, 2004 • Sun Devil Stadium (42,089)

St. Louis assumed sole possession of first place in the NFC Western Division with a palpitating 30-27 overtime victory at Sun Devil Stadium, Arizona's third consecutive defeat, but its first setback in its past five overtime outcomes. The Cardinals' inspired defensive effort against the high-powered Ram offense included two season bests—five takeaways (four interceptions, one fumble recovery) and four quarterback sacks (~31 yards). But the Cards were unable to protect their lead 27-24 late when St. Louis ran the game's final 24 plays to kick tying (24 yards with 0:00 remaining in the fourth quarter) and winning (49 yards in overtime) field goals to conclude 16-play/82-yard and eight-play/55-yard drives, respectively. The Cards pedaled uphill most of the day after spotting St. Louis a 14-0 first-quarter lead. Cornerback Randal Hill and rookie wide receiver Anquan Boldin changed the game's momentum. Hill with two pass interceptions, Boldin with two touchdown receptions. Hill returned his first pickoff 70 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter and his second 26 yards to the Rams' 22-yard line at the outset of the fourth quarter to set the table for Boldin's game-tying three-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Jeff Blake. Minutes earlier on the last play of the third quarter, Blake found Boldin for a 54-yard touchdown. Boldin caught six passes for 123 yards to inch within one receiving yard of becoming the NFL's 12th 1,000-yard rookie. Running backs Marcel Shipp (Cards) and Marshall Faulk (Rams) duelled with nearly identical rushing statistics. Shipp posted 95 yards on 24 carries. Faulk answered with 100 yards on 24 totes.

December 6, 2002 • Sun Devil Stadium (28,640)

Arizona snapped its six-game losing streak with its fifth consecutive victory against Detroit on late clutch kicking by Bill Gramatica, whose three field goals cut Detroit's lead to 20-17 with 5:30 remaining in the fourth quarter (29 yards), tied the contest with 3:23 to play (41 yards), and won it with 10:48 to go in overtime (42 yards). Detroit clung to leads of 14-7, 17-7, and 20-14 prior to Gramatica's dramatics. The Cards' two touchdowns were the result of short passes of one (Joel Mekiavicius) and 10 (Nathan Poole) yards in the first and second quarters, respectively. Following Gramatica's game-tying three-pointer, the Cardinal defenders forced two Detroit punts to end regulation. Arizona enjoyed the only overtime possession, driving 46 yards in seven plays, a march keyed by wide receiver Kevin Kasper's 23-yard reception two plays before Gramatica's game-winning boot. The Cardinals' defense, in addition to holding Detroit to only three second-half points, limited the Lions to 203 total yards, the lowest opponent total in 89 games (167 at Tampa Bay, Sept. 28, 1997).

Cardinals 9, Cowboys 6

October 20, 2002 • Sun Devil Stadium (59,702)

Four Cardinal interceptions of Dallas quarterback Quincy Carter, including three by strong safety Adrian Wilson, and three Bill Gramatica field goals passed Arizona to its third consecutive victory, a share of first place in the NFC West, its first 4-2 start since 1988, its fourth straight home-field success against Dallas, back-to-back home wins for the first time since 1999, and its third consecutive overtime win over five seasons. The Cards' triumph was accomplished without benefit of a touchdown, a team first in 123 games (12-6 vs. Philadelphia, Nov. 20, 1994). The four Cardinal interceptions were made in Arizona territory including two (Hill and Wilson's third) in the Cardinal end zone to snuff two Dallas drives that had reached the Cards' 14-yard line. Wilson became the first Cardinal to intercept three or more passes since Kwame Lassiter in the 1998 regular-season finale. Arizona settled for Gramatica's first two field goals (41, 23 yards) on its first and final first-half possessions on drives that stalled at the Cowboys' 23- and five-yard lines, respectively. The only Dallas points against an inspired Arizona defense came midway through the third quarter on a 78-yard touchdown pass from Carter to wide receiver Antonio Bryant. The extra-point attempt failed when the center snap was mishandled. Both teams missed fourth-quarter field-goal attempts (Arizona two, Dallas one), sending the game into overtime. Each team had two overtime possessions. Following three punts, Arizona ended the drama with an eight-play, 45-yard drive prior to Gramatica's 40-yard walk-off game-winning field goal.

Cardinals 34, Raiders 31

December 2, 2001 • Network Associates Coliseum (46,601)

Rookie kicker Bill Gramatica's first walk-off game-winning field goal, his fourth three-pointer of the day, climaxed the Cardinals' improbable overtime upset at Oakland that ended 10-game Raider home and NFC winning streaks. The frenzied finish featured 17 points in the final 1:52 of regulation. In overtime, both teams exchanged punts, but the Raiders muted their return. LeVar Woods recovered the loose ball at the Raiders' 25-yard line. Gramatica booted his 36-yard game-winner three plays later.

Cardinals 20, Eagles 17

December 13, 1998 • Veterans Stadium (62,176)

The Cardinals returned to .500 and earned their first two-game season sweep against the Eagles since 1984 with their first December road win in four years (30-12 at Houston, Dec. 4, 1994). Quarterback Jake Plummer directed the Cards 58 yards to the Eagles' 14-yard line on the first nine plays of overtime to set the table for Chris Jackson's 32-yard game-winning field goal. The final march principally was the work of two clutch completions to Rob Moore: the first for 30 yards, the other for 16 yards in the face of a third-and-eight Philadelphia blitz.

Steelers 26, Cardinals 20

November 30, 1997 • Sun Devil Stadium (64,322)

Like two boxers, the Steelers and Cardinals traded scores throughout an exciting turnover-free contest that was Arizona's fourth overtime outing of the season and Pittsburgh's first victory in four trips to Sun Devil Stadium. The tilt also was Arizona's sixth setback in eight games decided in the final minute of overtime: Pittsburgh battering ram Jerome Bettis rushed for Card opponent single-game and season bests of 142 yards on 36 carries and three touchdowns, including the overtime game-winner, a 10-yard rumble that climaxed the Steelers' only overtime possession, a five-play, 52-yard drive that took just 2:51.

Eagles 13, Cardinals 10

October 19, 1997 • Veterans Stadium (66,860)

Arizona's run of close losses continued at Philadelphia where the Eagles handed the Cardinals a 13-10 overtime setback, the Cards' second loss in three overtime contests and their fifth defeat in the final minute or overtime. In rookie Jake Plummer's first NFL action in relief of starter Stoney Case, the quarterback had the Cardinals on the march with the opening possession of overtime, reaching Arizona's 42-yard line before an intentional grounding penalty led to a punt three plays later. Philadelphia then drove 73 yards in six plays to set the table for Chris Boniol's 24-yard game-winning field goal.

September 14, 1997 • Jack Kent Cooke Stadium (78,270)

A capacity crowd at the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins' new home, witnessed a defensive struggle that two old rivals took into overtime for the second consecutive time at Washington. After winning the overtime coin toss, Cardinals running back Leeland McElroy fumbled on Arizona's second play from scrimmage. Two plays later, pressured Washington quarterback Gus Frazier dove stumbling, wide receiver Michael Westbrook with a 40-yard touchdown pass to end the game.

September 7, 1997 • Sun Devil Stadium (70,660)

One week after watching a 21-3 lead evaporate into a 24-21 defeat at Cincinnati, the Cardinals reversed roles to storm from behind and earn their first home-opening victory since arriving in Arizona in 1988, a triumph that also snapped the Cowboys' 13-game series, winning streak. After trading overtime fumbles, the Cardinals needed only five plays—highlighted by completions of 19 and 29 yards to wide receiver Rod Moore and fullback Larry Centers, respectively, to position kicker Kevin Butler for his 20-yard field goal that glanced off the left upright. It was the 16th game-winning three-pointer of Butler's career. The victory was Arizona's fourth straight in overtime and the third under head coach Vince Tobin. It also was Arizona's best second-half comeback since overcoming Washington's 21-6 lead in the Cards' 27-24 success on Oct. 4, 1992.

Cardinals 37, Redskins 34

November 10, 1996 • R.F.K. Stadium (51,929)

The Cardinals rode a record-setting passing effort by quarterback Boomer Esiason to shock NFC East Division-leading Washington in overtime. Esiason's personal best 522 passing yards were the third most prolific total in NFL history while also setting Cardinal and Redskin opponent single-game records. Cardinals kicker Kevin Butler, signed five days earlier, sealed the pulsating victory with his third field goal, a 32-yarder, after he and Redskin kicker Scott Brunton traded overtime misses. Arizona's 615 total yards were the first 600-yard outing in franchise history and the highest total in the NFL in six years (676, Washington vs. Detroit, Nov. 4, 1990).

Cardinals 31, Rams 28

September 29, 1996 • Sun Devil Stadium (33,116)

The Cardinals scored the game's final 17 points on their last three possessions to post a dramatic 31-28 comeback victory and register their first two-victory September since 1991. It also was the first time in 66 games the Cards overcame a fourth-quarter deficit of 14 points or greater. Two plays into overtime, running back LeShon Johnson scored 66 yards to set the table for kicker Greg Davis' 24-yard game-winning field goal two plays later. Johnson's pivotal overtime dash was the longest non-scoring run by a Cardinal since 1979 (Otis Anderson, 75 yards).

Cardinals 40, Falcons 37

November 26, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium (35,147)

The Cardinals mustered their first 500-yard game (513) and highest point total (40) since 1988 in Arizona's third consecutive home overtime contest, equalling Green Bay's 1987 NFL record. Falcon punter Dan Strykowski muffed an errant center snap on the first overtime possession, then fumbled the ball to the Cards' Eric England at Atlanta's 10-yard line. Kicker Greg Davis ended the game with his fourth field goal on the next play.

Vikings 30, Cardinals 24

November 12, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium (51,242)

For the third time in five games, the Cardinals were extended into overtime. For the second time in '95, it meant sudden death for Arizona. It took Minnesota only six plays from scrimmage following the overtime kickoff to end the contest, capped by Viking wide receiver Garry Smith's 50-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Warren Moon 2:16 into the extra stanza. It was Moon's fourth touchdown toss of the afternoon. Leading to Smith's heroics, the Vikings gained field position with a 29-yard completion to wide receiver Chris Carter.

Cardinals 20, Seahawks 14

October 29, 1995 • Sun Devil Stadium (39,600)

Turnovers and an improbable late ebb and flow highlighted Arizona's second overtime game in three outings. On Arizona's overtime-opening possession, Seattle blocked kicker Greg Davis' 27-yard field-goal attempt. The Seahawks then drove to Arizona's 33-yard line only to have Card safety Lorenzo Lynch dramatically end the contest with a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest overtime interception return for a score in NFL history. Seattle fumbled eight times, a Cardinal opponent record.

Giants 27, Cardinals 21

October 8, 1995 • Giants Stadium (68,463)

A see-saw overtime battle ended abruptly when Giant linebacker Jessie Armstead returned an interception 58 yards for the game-winning touchdown. Overtime began with an exchange of fumbles. Armstead's heroics came three plays into the Cards' second overtime possession.

Bears 19, Cardinals 16

November 27, 1994 • Sun Devil Stadium (65,922)

The Cardinals' third overtime outing in a seven-game span turned into a 19-16 setback when Chicago's Kevin Butler kicked his fourth field goal with 6:49 remaining in the extra period that the Cards forced with 10 game-tying fourth-quarter points. The Cardinals enjoyed the first overtime possession, but their drive stalled at the Chicago 38-yard line. The Bears followed with a 70-yard drive leading to Butler's game-winning field goal, a march highlighted by a 44-yard pass from quarterback Steve Walsh to wide receiver Jeff Graham.

Cardinals 20, Steelers 17

October 30, 1994 • Sun Devil Stadium (65,690)

The Cardinals' second consecutive home sellout crowd—a first since moving to Arizona in 1988—witnessed Arizona's second overtime victory in a three-week span. Card linebacker/long snapper Randy Kirk caused a fumble on the overtime kickoff that Arizona recovered, and four plays later, Greg Davis sent the game-winning field goal through the uprights from 51 yards away.

Cardinals 19, Redskins 16

Oct. 16, 1994 • R.F.K. Stadium (50,019)

Built teams missed long field-goal attempts, but newly-signed kicker Todd Peterson, appearing in his first NFL game as a substitute for the injured Greg Davis, redeemed himself with a 45:56 remaining in overtime with a 29-yard game-winner on the Cards' first play from scrimmage following their fifth interception that safety Terry Hoage made and returned 23 yards. The Cards knotted the contest in regulation with 27 seconds remaining on a five-yard pass from quarterback Steve Buehler to wide receiver Ricky Proehl.

Cardinals 30, Seahawks 27

December 19, 1993 • Kingdome (45,737)

The Cardinals scored the final five times they touched the football—four in regulation, one in overtime. Kicker Greg Davis tied the game at 27-27 on the final play of regulation with a franchise-record and personal-best 55-yard field goal. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals started the game-winning drive at their 20-yard line. Thirteen plays later, including a crucial 12-yard third-and-nine midfield completion to wide receiver Anthony Edwards, Davis delivered again with a 41-yard game-winning field goal.

Cardinals 10, Eagles 10

December 7, 1986 • Veterans Stadium (50,148)

One blocked field goal, two punts, and two missed field goals in overtime led to the 10-10 tie after the Cardinals erased a 10-3 deficit with 2:39 left in regulation on a 48-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Neil Lomax to wide receiver Roy Green. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss and drove into field-goal range, but Eagle Reggie White blocked Eric Schubert's 40-yard three-point attempt. The teams traded punts before Philadelphia's Paul McFadden pushed a 43-yard field-goal try wide left. Schubert did the same from 37 yards away. On the final play of the extra period, Cardinal cornerback Carl Carter intercepted a pass by Eagle quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and returned it to midfield as time expired.

Cardinals 27, Browns 24

September 8, 1985 • Cleveland Stadium (62,107)

The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove nine plays for Neil O'Donoghue's 35-yard game-winning field goal with 5:27 elapsed in overtime.

October 24, 1983 • Busch Stadium (45,630)

The Cardinals and Giants fought to a "Monday Night Football" draw in a game best remembered for three missed overtime field-goal attempts by Cardinal kicker Neil O'Donoghue (44, 19, 42 yards). The teams traded punts before O'Donoghue's first miss. The Cardinals drove 81 yards to New York's two-yard line prior to his second misfire, a 19-yard attempt. His third errant boot followed a 23-yard interception return by Lionel Washington to New York's 25-yard line. The game ended when Cardinal cornerback Wayne Smith intercepted Giant quarterback Jeff Rutledge at the St. Louis 33-yard line.

Falcons 33, Cardinals 27

November 9, 1980 • Busch Stadium (48,662)

Atlanta overcame a 24-6 halftime deficit with 21 second-half points to win 33-27. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and running back Ray Strong scored on a 21-yard run 4:42 into the extra period to decide the 33-27 verdict.

49ers 24, Cardinals 21

September 14, 1980 • Candlestick Park (49,999)

The 49ers drove 80 yards in the final two minutes to tie the game at 21-21, then kicked a field goal on their first overtime possession to win. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss, but punted following their first possession. The 49ers took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line where Ray Werschling kicked a 33-yard field goal with 4:12 elapsed in overtime.

Cowboys 24, Cardinals 21

October 15, 1978 • Busch Stadium (48,991)

Veteran Card kicker Jim Bakken saw a 33-yard game-winning field-goal attempt glance off the left upright with less than three minutes to play in regulation. Dallas won the overtime coin toss and the game 24-21 on a 47-yard field goal by Rafael Septien with 3:28 expired.

October 31, 1976 • Busch Stadium (50,365)

Despite a San Francisco ground attack that amassed 265 yards, Card kicker Jim Bakken atoned for a blocked point-after-touchdown attempt that sent the game into overtime with a field goal in the extra period for a 23-20 Cardinal victory. The Cards won the overtime coin toss and were forced to punt, but running back Steve Jones recovered a fumble on the return by 49er Tony Leonard at the San Francisco 43-yard line. Card running back Jim Otis carried the ball six consecutive times for 39 yards, including a 23-yarder, to set up Bakken's 21-yard game-winner with 6:42 elapsed.

Cardinals 20, Redskins 17

November 16, 1975 • Busch Stadium (49,919)

The Cardinals overcame two fourth-quarter deficits to capture undisputed possession of the NFC East lead. The Cards won the coin toss and drove 55 yards to set up Jim Bakken's game-winning 37-yard field goal with seven minutes elapsed.

Cowboys 37, Cardinals 31

September 28, 1975 • Texas Stadium (52,417)

The Cardinals won the toss. Quarterback Jim Hart's pass was intercepted and returned by Dallas linebacker Lee Roy Jordan to the Cardinals' 37-yard line. Cowboy quarterback Roger Staubach passed to tight end Billy Joe DuPree for a three-yard touchdown at 7:53.

NEW CARDINALS STADIUM

The new $370 million Cardinals Stadium, scheduled to open in 2006 on a 165-acre site in west suburban Glendale, Arizona, the fastest-growing area in greater Phoenix, will be the first of its kind in North America and has been selected as site of the Super Bowl in 2008.

World-renowned architect Peter Eisenman, in partnership with HOK Sport and Hunt Construction Group, has created a state-of-the-art stadium design that is sure to become an Arizona landmark. The stadium's exterior skin takes its design cue from the barrel cactus and features alternating sections of shimmering metal panels intended to reflect the shifting desert light alongside magnificent vertical glass slots allowing patrons a spectacular view of the horizon from any level of the interior.

In addition to its high-design architecture, the stadium, to be owned and operated by the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority, will feature the latest innovations in stadium comfort. The roof will be comprised of two large retractable panels remaining closed to allow for air conditioning during the hot summer months and remaining open during cooler times of the year to take advantage of Arizona's patented sunshine. Light will penetrate the fabric roof, allowing the stadium to have an open, airy feel even when the roof is closed.

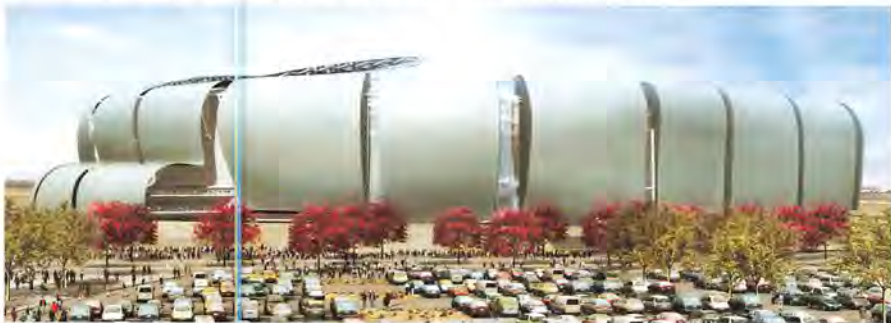

Cardinals Stadium will also feature a unique rollout natural-grass playing field, contained in a moveable 12 million-pound tray (234 feet wide, 400 feet long). The first retractable field in North America, it will be positioned inside the stadium on game days to offer the preferred natural-grass playing surface for football and outside the stadium for the remaining 350+ days of the year to receive sunlight and watering. The field tray will be powered by electric motors mounted on steel wheels riding on tracks embedded in the concrete floor. The flexibility of this unique design allows Cardinals Stadium to serve as a true multi-purpose venue featuring a 152,000 square-foot event floor for other prominent events such as NCAA Final Four basketball tournaments, trade and consumer shows, conventions, concerts, motor sports, and rodeos.

The stadium will be aligned along a slight northwest to southeast axis to offer the maximum sun exposure for the grass field and maximum shade for stadium patrons. On-site parking will accommodate 14,000 cars as part of an innovative site plan designed to create a truly unique tailgating experience for fans. Spaces for an additional 6,000 vehicles will be conveniently located at the adjacent NHL arena and another 6,000 off-site spaces will be available to the general public.

The stadium's seating capacity will exceed 65,000 for Cardinals' games and is expandable to approximately 75,000 for mega-events like the Super Bowl and Fiesta Bowl. The stadium's layout provides for excellent site lines, comfortable seats, abundant restrooms and concession stands, spacious end-zone viewing decks, and wide concourses with an "open" design allowing for a unobstructed view of the field from both the lower and upper concourses. The stadium will also showcase two state-of-the-art videoboard/scoreboard displays prominently located in the endzones with excellent site lines from all seating areas.

Cardinals Stadium will include 88 luxury suites featuring preferred parking, an exclusive entrance, private restrooms, multiple televisions, in-suite catering and a bold, modern interior design unlike any other suites in the market. In addition to the private suites, a luxurious Club Level will feature wider seats, preferred parking, private entrances, and a climate controlled Club Lounge with multiple two-story spaces, comfortable lounge seating, plentiful TV monitors, upgraded food and beverage offerings and dedicated restrooms. ■

The New Arizona Cardinals Stadium has been under construction for just over one year. The steel trusses for the roof of the building will be hoisted early next year, with the completion of the stadium set for August, 2006.

SUN DEVIL STADIUM

Sun Devil Stadium, home to Arizona State University football since 1958 and the Fiesta Bowl since 1971, added the National Football League in 1988 when the Cardinals also took residence "between the buttes."

Super Bowl XXX was played at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996!

Literally carved from the desert, Sun Devil Stadium sits in a unique setting between two mountain buttes in Tempe, Arizona southeast of Phoenix.

Originally erected in 1958, Sun Devil Stadium has been expanded four times (1976, '77, '88, and '89). Capacity for NFL football in 2001 again will be 73,014. Improvements costing over $23 million have been made since the Cardinals arrived in 1988.

A $1.67 million field renovation (lowering and widening), completed in June of 1992, was the most recent major upgrade. Besides providing significantly more sideline space, the project also changed the look of the stadium by removing the characteristic moats in favor of field-level walkways. Ninety thousand square feet of Tifway 419 sod, the same grass that adorns the Cardinals' training facility, covers a unique layering support system that includes hot-water tubes designed to fool Mother Nature (delay dormancy) and promote growth during cooler months. Although approximately 1,300 seats were lost during the renovation, the project eliminated sight-line problems that had caused obstructed views from lower-row seats.

The bowl (south) end was connected seven years ago by Arizona State's six-story Intercollegiate Athletic Complex building and an extension of loge-level seats. A state-of-the-art video replay scoreboard and locker rooms in the north end also were added. The color video replay system, situated in the southwest corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southeast corner.

In 1989, $11.5 million was spent to construct a three-story, 60,000 square-foot building atop the upper deck on the west side containing two 30-suite levels and topped by a modern press box and eight additional private suites. Served by four industrial-sized elevators—one for the media and three for the public—the addition offers working space for 200 sportswriters, broadcast booths, booth space for statistical crews, coaches, public address personnel, security, scoreboard operations, and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for over 900 fans.

The playing field was named Frank Kush Field in 1996 to honor the legendary former Arizona State University head coach who also served as head coach of the NFL Indianapolis Colts from 1982–84.

The Cardinals will continue to call Sun Devil Stadium home through the 2005 season before moving into their new stadium in Glendale in 2006.

Super Bowl XXX required a number of improvements, including a new sound system, four new light poles at each corner of the stadium, new light fixtures to existing light standards on the east and west sides, and a resodded playing field.

Sun Devil Stadium proved a most hospitable host to the Cardinals in the team's inaugural season in Arizona in 1988 when seven of the Cards' eight regular-season home games broke the club's previous single-game attendance record. The season total of 472,937 fans also easily eclipsed the Cardinal franchise's single-season home attendance mark.

In 1994, the Cards again broke their single-season attendance mark when 497,330 fans, or an average of 62,166 patrons per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The largest crowd in Cardinal history—73,025—witnessed the Cards' September 19, 1993 battle against the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys at Sun Devil Stadium.

The 10 largest crowds to watch Cardinal home games all have been played at Sun Devil Stadium since the team's 1988 arrival in Arizona. ■

TRAINING FACILITY

Rising from a former cotton field in south Tempe is the Cardinals' training facility and corporate headquarters.

Covering 14.7 acres of land, the Cardinals' home since September of 1990 is a 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sporting desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Southwestern (Sonoran) desert landscaping that leaves no doubt where the team proudly calls home.

Possessing many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and an Arizona landmark, the showcase complex has won numerous architectural and landscape awards. In the spring of 1996, it also served as a location for the filming of the movie "Jerry Maguire" starring Tom Cruise.

The facility incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which integrate into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously. Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy (15-player in-floor jacuzzi and cold plunge) and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms. They open to three playing fields (one lighted) on nearly five acres of land.

The second and third floors comprise the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible. The integration of current electronic and construction technologies also makes the facility more economical to operate and easier to maintain.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the public relations department that houses a media center featuring custom-designed work carrels, private interview rooms, televisions, and a reference library. Another two-story building housing two handball courts completes the complex.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used for golf course putting greens and the Sun Devil Stadium playing surface, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex lateral piping, sub-drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields, making them playable within three hours.

Furthermore, many details are invisible to the naked eye. For example, the fields and team building are set at the same angle as Sun Devil Stadium, the Cards' home field at Arizona State University, allowing simulation of the position of the sun under game conditions. ■

The Cardinals' training facility in south Tempe has housed the franchise's day-to-day operations since 1990.

CARDINALS CHARITIES

Founded in 1990, Cardinals Charities supports programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in the state of Arizona.

Cardinals Charities' grants are awarded on an annual basis in response to applications from various qualified non-profit organizations whose goals and programs meet the mission statement.

CARDINALS CHARITIES

Every effort is made to direct contributions where they can have the greatest impact while addressing the most critical needs.

Since its inception, Cardinals Charities has distributed over $2,000,000 to over 200 worthy Arizona charitable organizations on behalf of the Arizona Cardinals and the National Football League. ■

CARDINALS CHEERLEADERS

Whether it's performing at all Arizona Cardinals' home games, community service involvement, appearances at other sporting and civic events, or just signing autographs, the Arizona Cardinals Cheerleaders are recognized throughout the country for their talent, exciting dance routings, and professionalism.

The cheerleaders have performed throughout the United States, Mexico, and Canada. At the invitation of the Pentagon, the cheerleaders also have entertained U.S. military troops in Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Bosnia, Egypt, Greenland, Kosovo, and Bahrain.

Through their talent, showmanship, enthusiasm, and dedication to their community and country, the cheerleaders have established themselves as an integral part of the Cardinals' organization.

The cheerleaders are available for community service events, civic events, meetings, conventions, or special occasions. Call the Cardinals (602/379-0101) for more information. ■

CARDS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Arizona Cardinals make community activities a year-round commitment.

Fourth-year Community Relations Director Luis Zendejas, the former NFL (Dallas and Philadelphia) and Arizona State kicker, directs the Cardinals' community activities.

Zendejas and the Cardinals continue their efforts to expand the team's community programs to encompass the entire state of Arizona and parts of Nevada. Various community events include involvement Cardinals players, coaches, wives, cheerleaders, and mascot and front office personnel.

Among the team's most successful recent programs has been the Arizona Cardinals NFL Flag Football, a 5-on-5 non-contact flag football for boys and girls between the ages 6 of -14. NFL Flag was developed to help provide youngsters with a program that teaches the basic fundamentals of football, while at the same time instilling the values of fair play and teamwork. Through a partnership with the Arizona Department of Health Services, participants in the program are also taught the important lessons on living a healthy lifestyle, and staying tobacco free.

The NFL recently selected the Arizona Cardinals as one of just six regional sites for the 2004 Flag Football National Regional Tournament in recognition of the incredible response that the state of Arizona has taken to NFL Flag Football. The free Tournament will be held on Saturday, October 16th at the Arizona Cardinals South Tempe training facility.

Over 8,000 kids throughout the states of Arizona & Nevada have participated in NFL Flag Football from the 2003 fall season through the fall 2004 season. The Cardinals NFL Flag program is currently rated as one of the top two NFL Flag programs in all of the National Football League.

During the 2004 off-season, the Cardinals staged over 120 events that including the "Milk & Cookies" reading program, Gatorade Junior Training camps, kids clinics, annual holiday toy and food drives, and various community appearances.

The 12-month "SRP Milk & Cookies Reading Program" takes a Cardinals player to an elementary school to read to students on a weekly basis. The annual "Hometown Huddle" program teams the Cardinals with the Boys & Girls Clubs throughout the Valley of the Sun to help promote education. Youngsters participate in a kids camp while having the opportunity to interact with a group of Cardinals players and take a tour of the team's training facility.

The "Gatorade Junior Training Camps" provide children a year-round opportunity for on-field instructions from Cardinals players at recreational sites, including the Cardinals' training facility located in south Tempe.

The Cardinals "High School Coach of the Week" program recognizes the efforts of the coaches throughout the state of Arizona and their football programs throughout the fall. The school receives a monetary award from Cardinals Charities, and team members receive t-shirts.

The "High School Player of the Week" award program was also created during the 2003 season. This program recognizes individual high school football players for their accomplishments on the field for the previous week. During the season each winner is provided the opportunity to visit one of the team's practices followed by an award presentation from a Cardinals player or coach.

The second "Football Skills & Educational Camp" brought over 500 high school football players from around Arizona to the Cards' training facility to learn from the professionals with on-field drills, classroom instruction and recruiting tips.

Broad "Fan Fare" events expose large numbers of fans to the Cardinals in a variety of ways. Recent examples were the Draft Day Party in downtown Phoenix, and the second "Fan Fest" mini-camp practice at the Cards' training facility. At all these events, fans are afforded the opportunity to interact and obtain autographs from players, coaches and cheerleaders.

Team mascot Big Red has gained a loyal following since hatching his entertaining antics in 1998. He is seen at most team community events and makes a number of individual appearances. Examples just from the past year include "Gatorade Junior Training Camps," "Cardinals Kid's Clinics," celebrations, the "Milk & Cookies Reading Program," "Holiday Express," "Toy & Clothing Drive" "High School Coach of the Week" award ceremonies, "Literacy Festival"

Big Red will begin a new program called "Thursday's with Big Red". He will make monthly visits to the Phoenix Children's hospital and Banner Desert Medical Center throughout the football season.

Wives of players and coaches also lend a hand in the community. Through the help of Cardinals wives, the Salvation Army was able to provide Thanksgiving food boxes last November for over 300 families with the help of our annual canned food drive at Sun Devil Stadium prior to the start of our home game. The wives also collected enough toys during our toy drive to provide several thousand children with toys during the annual "Chicanos Por La Causa Christmas Toy giveaway" event. Wives also joined their husbands to serve Thanksgiving dinner to the less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission and to deliver Christmas teddy bears to youngsters at the local hospitals for the holidays.

The Cardinals, in conjunction with the Save the Family organization, took part in the rebuilding of Cherry Street Park in Mesa on April 17. Team President William Bidwill and Head Coach Dennis Green along with players, cheerleaders, mascot Big Red and staff joined Save the Family volunteers and local residents for the work which included players cooking hamburgers and hot dogs during a lunch break. Save the Family works in the Valley to help homeless families transition to stable and self-sufficient members of society.

Players also invest time and effort into the community of their own volition. For example, Levar Fisher, founder of "Fisher of Men, Inc.," always had a dream of becoming a NFL player. In April 2002 the dream was fulfilled when Fisher was taken with the 17th selection in the second round of the NFL draft. Fisher, along with the help of his family, then put together a plan of action to give something back to the supporting community that assisted him in his ongoing success. We currently offer transitional housing up and running now in a home designed to house 8 individuals and a live-in manager. Duane Starks founded "Starks Charitable Foundation" because of his continued commitment to provide high school students with the opportunity to further their education. He was able to present 10 more graduating high school students with scholarships of $1,500 for each student to attend the college of their choice. Wendell Bryant established "The Wendell Bryant Foundation" in 2003 as a multi-purpose organization that functions as a vehicle in assisting organizations in dealing with socioeconomic, educational, health, and other related issues in Madison, Wisconsin. This year Bryant presented $1,000 scholarships to five single women who are raising a family. The scholarship provides each woman the opportunity to go back to school and further their education. He also funded his miniature youth football camp for the children of Madison as well as donating thousands of dollars to various domestic violence shelters in the Madison area.

Community service never is out of season for the Cardinals. ■

BIDWILL BENEVOLENCE

The Arizona Cardinals' philanthropic efforts remain one of the team's most visible off-the-field undertakings.

Cardinals Charities has been supporting community needs in Arizona since its formation in 1990 by President William V. Bidwill. Less visible, yet far more expansive, is the Bidwill family's ongoing individual and collective efforts to improve the lives of others in a myriad of ways. Without fanfare, often bordering on total anonymity, the Bidwills continue to involve themselves personally in community needs both with financial support and volunteer efforts.

Examples of their community spirit follow.

Boys Hope/Girls Hope—As an original founder of Boys Hope/Girls Hope in St. Louis, President Bidwill has had untold positive impact on the lives of youth with promise living in unsuitable environments. Boys Hope/Girls Hope provides a structured home environment fostering healthy growth and learning. As long-time supporters, the Bidwills have donated hundreds of thousands of dollars to the program that has expanded internationally.

Phoenix Children's Hospital—Another Bidwill family calling is Phoenix Children's Hospital. Development contributions and volunteer involvement in hospital programs remain priorities.

Youth Sports In Arizona—The positive influence of youth sports has been a family priority in Arizona. Those efforts were recognized recently when Cardinals' Vice President and General Counsel Michael Bidwill was honored with the 2003 Glenn S. "Pop" Warner Award, presented annually by the national youth football organization to an individual who has achieved excellence in athletics, scholarship, and life's endeavors with integrity and humanity. Bidwill was recognized for his support of youth sports in Arizona.

St. Peter Indian Mission School, Gila River Indian Community—The Bidwills' support of "Sister Martha's" elementary school south of the Phoenix metropolitan area has been an ongoing focus of the Bidwills' benevolence for over 10 years. A new roof for the school is just one example of the support the youth of the Gila River Indian Community have received.

United Way—Like the National Football League, the Bidwills have been staunch supporters of United Way of America, the nation's leading community solutions provider. It invests in the programs and services that strengthen the ability of local United Ways to identify and build a coalition around a set of community priorities and measure success based on community impact.

Communities In Schools Of Arizona (CISA)—Founded in 1994, CISA is affiliated with the Communities In Schools national program. Its mission is to mobilize and connect community resources with schools. CISA partners with schools with 85 percent or more of their students at or below the federal poverty level. Acting as resource brokers, CISA uses a coordinated network of partner agencies to bring resources such as food, clothing, and health services to help students more effectively learn, stay in school, and successfully prepare for life.

St. Michael's Indian School, Navajo Indian Reservation—The oldest Catholic school on a reservation, the St. Michael's Indian School in northern Arizona has kept its high school football program alive in part through the generous support of the Bidwill family.

Life Teen—Life Teen, Inc. is an international ministry that serves the Catholic Church and provides teenagers resources and training that encourage growth in their faith. It was founded by "Father Dale" Fushak, pastor of St. Timothy's Catholic Community in Mesa, Arizona that houses the Life Teen world headquarters. Nicole Bidwill currently serves as chairman of Life Teen Camp.

Make A Difference—Make A Difference is a non-profit organization that meets critical community needs by making volunteer opportunities available to busy professional people in the Phoenix metropolitan area.

Step Up For Youth—The campaign to raise $1.16 million to double the size of the Glendale/Peoria (Arizona) YMCA's facilities and add new programs and services is being chaired by Michael Bidwill.

Youth Soccer—Financial support, league development, and volunteer coaching of youth soccer has been a family interest since the arrival of grandchildren.

Georgetown Prep—The college preparatory high school in suburban Washington, D.C. has remained an apple of William V. Bidwill's eye since his graduation. He has maintained a level of financial support and assisted in the school's building program for many years. Georgetown University Law Center also has benefited from Bidwill support.

Committees/Boards—Members of the Bidwill families have and continue to sit on a variety of organizational boards of trustees, including NFL Charities, Arizona Chamber of Commerce, East Valley Partnership, Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce, Notre Dame Academy (north Scottsdale), Heard Museum, Museum of Northern Arizona, Southwest Human Development, FBI Citizens Academy, Life Teen, and Catholic University.

Fund-Raising—Family members participate in countless fund-raising committees, organizing dinners, festivals, camps, telethons, capital campaigns, and building projects for an array of organizations.

The Bidwill family encourages everyone to participate in their community for the common good of all. ■

CARDINAL BROADCASTING

Cardinal broadcasting for 2004 again includes KDUS Radio (1060 AM)/KSLX Radio (100.7 FM) and AZ-TV (channel 27 over the air, cable channel 13), ABC 15 (KNXV-TV, channel 15).

Play-By-Play Broadcast Teams

Dave Pasch/John Mistler—Pasch and Mistler begin their third season together in the Cardinals' preseason television booth before returning to their familiar role as the team's radio voices for the regular season.

Pasch joined the Cardinals last season after calling Syracuse University football and basketball for three years.

Mistler, the former NFL (N.Y. Giants) and college (Arizona State) wide receiver, returns for his 12th year as Arizona's color analyst.

Kent Derdivanis—Veteran play-by-play broadcaster Kent Derdivanis, past voice of the Pittsburgh Pirates and Boston Red Sox and current broadcaster for Northern Arizona University football and men's basketball and Arizona Rattlers Arena League football, joins the Cardinals to describe preseason action on the radio while Pasch concentrates on preseason television.

Gabriel Trujillo/Luis Zendejas—Trujillo (play-by-play) and Zendejas (color commentary), the former Arizona State and NFL kicker who also serves as the Cardinals' director of community relations, return to describe all Arizona games in Spanish on KSUN (Radio Fiesta, 1400 AM).

Sideline Reporters

Mike Jurecki/Jody Jackson—KDUS Radio weekday talk-show host and "Cardinal Insider" Mike Jurecki returns to offer sideline commentary on the Cardinals Radio Network.

Fox Sports Network reporter Jody Jackson will provide the same on preseason telecasts.

Game-Day Radio Programming

KDUS (1060 AM), a.k.a. "The Deuce," and KSLX (100.7 FM) will serve as the Cardinals' radio flagships for all Cardinal games for the sixth consecutive season.

"The Pre-Game Huddle" begins two hours prior to kickoff. It is hosted by KNXV-TV sports director Craig Fouhy who will be joined by four analysts—Plank, who spends his off-seasons as defensive coordinator for the Rattlers, ex-Cardinal Running Back and Special Teams Pro Bowler Ron Wolfley, former Raider, Cardinal, and Patriot center Bill Lewis, and Mike Jurecki also will be included in discussions from the sidelines.

The show features a complete breakdown of upcoming game, opponent previews, player profiles, NFL scoreboards, and live interviews with former Cardinal and NFL greats.

"Cardinals Talk," a post-game call-in show, will be hosted by the Cardinals Pre Season Radio play-by-play voice Kent Derdivanis. He will be joined by Lewis for analysis.

Radio Network

All Cardinals' games will be heard over a 17-station regional network, anchored by KDUS-AM and KSLX-FM.

The 17 stations comprising the remainder of the network follow.

Weekday Radio

Two regular weekday radio shows will be aired on KDUS.

The "Dennis Green Show" features the Cardinals' head coach for 30 minutes each Monday from 5-5:30 PM beginning the first week of the regular season. The show gives fans a chance to interact via phone or e-mail (askcoachgreen@cardinals.nfl.net).

"The Big Red Rage," featuring Pro Bowl Wide Receiver Anquan Boldin, is hosted by Dave Pasch and John Mistler and will air every Thursday from 6-7 p.m. in front of a live audience at Jilly's American Grill at 54th Street and Ray Road in Chandler.

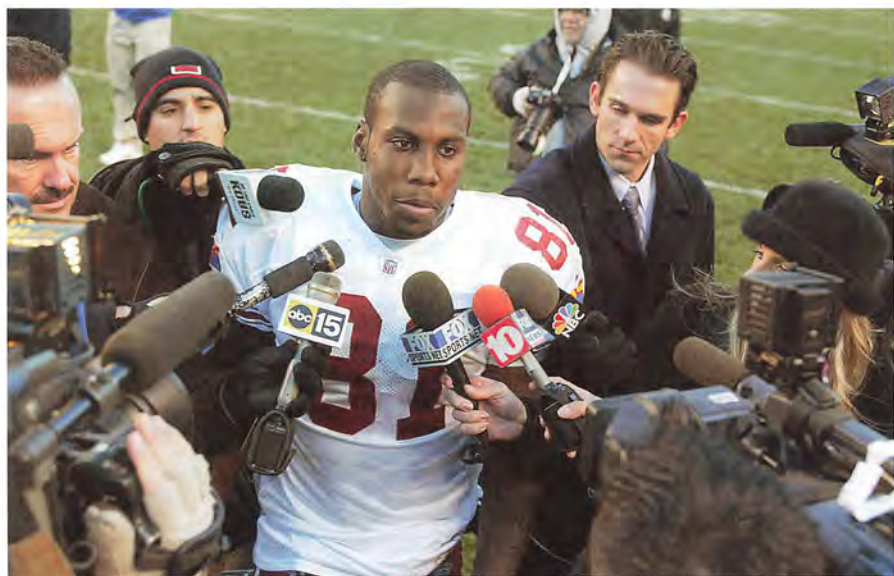

Preseason Television

AZ-TV, formerly KUSK-TV, has been broadcasting live sports for over 20 years. It will air the Cardinals' four preseason games in prime time for the first time.

The two road games—Saturday, August 14 at Minnesota, Thursday, September 2 at Denver—will air live and then again during a prime-time replay ([Minnesota] Sunday August 15 at

The preseason games also will be seen in Tucson (KTTU-TV, UPN, channel 18) and Las Vegas (KFBT-TV, channel 33).

AZ-TV, the Cardinals' preseason television partner, currently has a large inventory of sports telecasts, including University of Arizona football, men's basketball, and softball, Arizona State University men's and women's basketball, softball, baseball, and volleyball, Northern Arizona University football and men's basketball, Mountain West Conference football and men's basketball, Big 12 Conference men's basketball, and Phoenix Mercury basketball.

AZ-TV is seen over the air on channel 27. It also is carried by over 40 cable television systems, mostly on channels 13 and 7.

Ancillary Cardinal TV Programming

"Maximum Cardinals By Alltel," the team's 30-minute magazine-style show, will air on AZ-TV on Saturday's from 6:30-7:00 p.m. and on KNXV-TV (ABC, channel 15, Phoenix) visit azcardinals.com for show times.

Jody Jackson returns to host "Maximum Cardinals By Alltel." She will be joined for segments with Pasch and Mistler.

Spanish Radio

The Cards became the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games—preseason and regular season, home and road—in Spanish in 2000.

The broadcast team of play-by-play voice Trujillo (play-by-play) and color commentator Zendejas remains intact.

TRAINING CAMP

The Cardinals annually trek 150 miles north of Phoenix to the cool climate of Flagstaff, Arizona, northern Arizona's largest city located at one of America's highest city elevations, and the excellent facilities of Northern Arizona University (N.A.U.) for the team's preseason training camp.

While Phoenix temperatures range somewhere between hot and hotter in late July and August, the Cardinals benefit from Flagstaff's 7,200-foot altitude that consistently produces daytime temperatures in the upper 70s and low 80s. On average, summer temperatures in Flagstaff reach 90 degrees only three days per year.

Flagstaff is situated in the Coconino National Forest, the largest continuous stand of ponderosa pines in the United States. It also serves as the county seat for Coconino County, the second largest county in the nation with 12 million acres.

The picturesque N.A.U. campus arguably provides the National Football League's most scenic training-camp venue.

The Cardinals' three practice fields literally were carved from pine trees with the San Francisco Peaks, the highest points in Arizona at 12,633 feet, serving as a unrivaled backdrop and a photographer's delight.

N.A.U.'s 14,000-seat Walkup Skydome also offers the Cardinals flexibility if the occasional summertime afternoon showers interfere with practice schedules and a venue for their annual intrasquad scrimmage.

The Cardinals situate at the south end of the N.A.U. campus, utilizing the school's dormitories, dining halls, and classroom buildings for their daily regimen. ■
